RE: State v. William Watts
Appellate Case No: 2015-002058

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I am in receipt of this Court's letter request for a return to a pro se motion to amend a notice of appeal filed by William T. Watts. It appears this appeal arises from the Court of Common Pleas' review of a probate court matter. I am writing to advise that the Attorney General's Office does not represent any party to probate court appeals. Please extend the time for response to enable the assistant solicitor or other counsel to submit the return you requested.

By copy of this letter, I am advising Assistant Solicitor Suzanne Mayes that our office is not involved in this appeal, and will not submit a response to the motion to amend.

Sincerely,

Salley W. Elliott
Senior Assistant Deputy Attorney General
