Re: The State v. James C. Williams
Appellate Case No. 2013-001849

Dear Mr. Williams:

Upon reviewing your documents received November 12, 2015 which are being construed as documents that are to be included in your record on appeal, the following deficiency or deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR). We are returning your documents with this letter, along with the final brief since according to our records we have already received your final brief. You must file the record on appeal in its entirety, including all documents listed in yours and the respondent's designation of matter, along with the following corrections within ten (10) days of the date of this letter or your appeal will be dismissed:

- Pursuant to Rule 210, SCACR, the record on appeal needs to have a cover page and must include all items listed in the designation of matters filed by the appellant and respondent. Please see Form 15, SCACR, for proper format of the cover page.
- You must provide a proof of service showing the full record on appeal in its entirety has been served upon the respondent.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen, Deputy
