Tom:

The Court of Appeals requires your written consent to the Appendix containing the additional pages from the trial transcript.

I understand that you are traveling and out of the office for the foreseeable future.

Can you please reply to this email confirming that you consent to the Appendix to the Record on Appeal filed on December 2, 2015?

I will obtain your signature when you return to the office.

Thank you.

Rachel

RE: Jeffrey Kennedy v. Richland County School District Two, Eric Barnes and Chuck Earles
Appellate Case No.: 2015-000613
Our File No.: 3000-0106

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

Pursuant to my conversation with Amelia, enclosed please find the written consent of Appellants' counsel to supplement the Record on Appeal, pursuant to Rule 212(b), SCACR, by way of the Appendix to the Record previously filed on December 2nd. There were a few pages of the trial transcript which were inadvertently excluded from the Designation of Matter on Appeal but were cited in Respondent's Initial Brief, hence the supplement.

Please note that Mr. Barlow is out of the office and he will provide me with a formal, signed letter next week.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,

Rachel G. Peavy
