RE: Mr. Wesley Edward Smith, III Petitioner v Charleston County School District et al
Respondents IN REF: Case Appellant Court Case Trial Number 2015-00787

Enclosed for your immediate attention is Mr. Wesley Edward Smith III Petitioning this Court for a Writ of Certiorari. Mr. Wesley Edward Smith III is claiming the issue before this court is that I was denied my full Constitutional protections which promises, guarantees and protects from unreasonableness of a unfair, unbiased and unequal treatment of due process the Constitution afford and prohibit certain acts as mandated by conditions. My protections and safeguard from unreasonableness and encroachment upon my of due process right were infringed in the performance of my job duties at Charleston County School District while charlston County School Distric is operating under the State Constitution.

I relied upon the job requirement of professional, by lean on the States Constitution unchanging due process poster, as my reliable supporting source of information used to support my objectionable dissenting the Courts premature order(s)

Relief is sought in this Court in accordance with South Carolina Appellate rule 242. The Court professionals guidance is requested for up to date relief of legal changes, that would directly related to Constitutional violations, or as related to the Constitutional discrimination of my civil rights of employment matters

I did/do not consent to the waiver, use of my precious time and services have anyone to use me as practice on my legal or personal rights, nor did I authorized involuntary servitude. All other rights are preserved and reserved at this time.
