Re: Doe v BZA et al
App. Case No. 2015-002297

Dear Madam:

We hope you and your kind staff had a wonderful Thanksgiving and we extend our sincere gratitude for the important work all of you do every day. Also, Happy Holidays and thank you for your correspondence dated November 23, 2015. Please accept this response to all three letters. The copy of the transcript request was inadvertently sent to your previously listed street address at 1015 Sumter Street and Suite 200. We apologize for any inconvenience. It has not been returned indicating it was likely received already, however, please be assured that another copy has been forwarded to the new address at 1220 Senate St., Suite 200, Columbia, SC 29201. The "cc" indicates it was also sent to the other side at 16 Charlotte Street, Charleston, SC 29403, and it also has not been returned. In addition, pursuant to Rule 203, SCACR, your kind staff noted stay pending timely Rule 59, SCRCF, motion. Rule 203(b), SCACR, and Rule 59(f), SCRCF. With regard to Rule 267(b), formerly 238(b), SCACR, Chief Justice Toal states in her authoritative text that the original requires a signature. Toal et al., Appellate Practice in South Carolina (2002), p. 147, regarding former Rule 238(b), SCACR, currently Rule 267(b), SCACR. Please be assured that the original as opposed to the copy fully complies with Rule 267(b), SCACR. Also, enclosed please find a copy of this correspondence with SASE for return. As an update, Court Administration has now confirmed they in fact did receive the copy of the transcript request which was successfully delivered despite the use of the old address.

Again, we wish you a joyous Holiday Season and many thanks for your help with this matter. Please do not hesitate to contact us at 843.883.3010 with any questions. With best personal regards, I remain

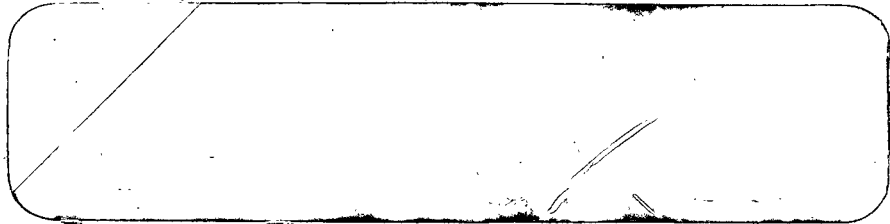

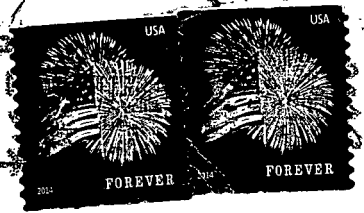

Very truly yours,
