Appellate Case No. 2015 - 002252

MOTION TO ENLARGE TIME

---

COMES NOW the Pro Se Appellate, Patrick L. Booker, who hereby moves this Court for additional time to provide the Court the orders denying Appellant's motion for reconsideration and the judgments dated April 9, 2008 and August 4, 2008. The basis for this motion is as follows:

- 1). By letter dated November 4, 2015, the Clerk of this Court provided Appellant a ten (10) day deadline within which to provide the afore-said order and judgments;
- 2). Due to the long period of time which has lapsed between the dates of when the judgments dated April 9, 2008 and August 4, 2008 were made and provided, the Appellant has requested the Lee County Clerk of Court to provide Appellant certified

Copies of the judgments, and is currently awaiting their receipt by him. The Appellant was advised by the Lee County Clerk of Court that the cost will be $11.50 and Appellant's mother sent that clerk of court a U.S. Postal money order in the amount of $12.00 on ~~Monday~~ Monday, November 9, 2015. Appellant's uncle has made multiple calls to Ameia (the case assistant) explaining Appellant's efforts to obtain the order/judgments.

3). Appellant is likewise without and is awaiting receipt of the order denying his motion for reconsideration. He received written notice of the entry of the denial of said motion on October 19, 2015 via the attached letter from Judge Cothran. Appellant received the letter without its envelope (presuming there was one for the letter) on October 19, 2015, despite the letter is dated May 29, 2015. The letter was addressed to Appellant's old address which, apparently, caused its delayed delivery to Appellant. (NOTE: The Appellant has had his mailed tampered with, and even stolen, many times by SCDC staff which has caused Appellant to sue the SCDC about the same. See Booker vs. SCDC et al., 2012-CP-35-00051. In fact, just recently on November 10, 2015, Appellant was allowed to file a "Second Amended Complaint" in that action wherein Appellant complaint about SCDC illegally opening and stealing his in-coming mail).

Appellant requests an additional ten (10) days to get the order and judgments to this court.

Re: Patrick Booker vs. SC Dept. of Corrections
Case No.: 06-CP-31-287

Dear Mr. Booker:

A hearing was held before me on April 9, 2008 at the Lee County Courthouse at which time I granted the Defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment. You filed a Motion for me to reconsider and I denied that Motion on August 4, 2008. There are no pending Motions before me at this time that has not been ruled on.

Sincerely,
