RE: Bagley v. SCDC, Appellate Case No. 2015-002096.

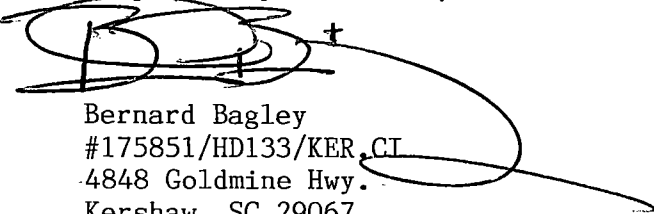

Dear Madam Clerk:

Due to the fact that SCDC officials will not release the $100.00 filing fee from my long term offender account, in which there is $3,500.00 in such account, it's regrettable that I must withdraw my appeal based on circumstances beyond my control.

I'm not able to pay the filing fee from my Cooper account because I'm out of work for the moment, and have been for about a month now. I notice that SCDC general counsel submitted a letter to file its initial brief in 30 days, when they are aware that I don't have the $100.00 filing fee available at this current time.

Thank you for your assistance regarding this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

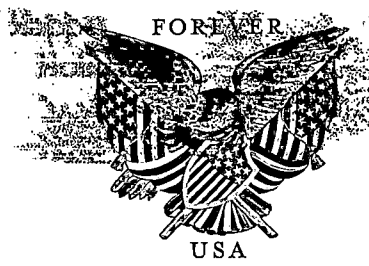

Bernard Bagley
