Re: The State v. Christopher J. Hicks
Appellate Case No. 2014-000392

Dear Mr. Hicks:

This Court is in receipt of your letter received December 7, 2015, requesting information on when your case will be going before the Court. At this time, your appeal is ready for consideration but a specific time cannot be given as to when it will be reviewed and a decision made. An appeal, once filed, can take anywhere from six months to two years for a final decision to be made. According to our records, your counsel of record is Wanda Carter with the Office of Appellate Defense. Any further inquiries need to be made through your representing counsel.

Very truly yours,
