RE: Mr. Wesley Edward Smith, III Petitioner v Charleston County School District et al
Respondents IN REF: Case Appellant Court Case Trial Number 2015-00787

Enclosed for your immediate attention is Mr. Wesley Edward Smith III order to support Petitioning this Court for a Writ of Certiorari in lieu of the Court of Appeal non review of my petition for reinstatement, reconsideration and or new trial and reversal and expungement of the court order. See enclosures, I have sent to the Court of Appeals for the State of South Carolina a petition for reinstatement and reconsideration based on the fact that I was terminated from employment and deprived statutory rights which made the Charleston County School District action Frivolous under S C Code 15-36-10 et seg, (but the Court order is reviewing Me as Frivolous under S C Code 15-36-10 et seg). As inferred the order which I am appealing has implied discriminative implications of supporting Charleston Country School District behavior in violation of the State law.

As a citizen, I have a duty to warn, protect, and serve those persons employed under the State law, that someone may construe this continued procrastination as a non-related judicial discretion mater that borderlines and illegal business practice for action considered part of a sham process. This process unbeknownst holds others in contempt serpenticiously liable, responsible and accountable for his and her actions along with others that have previously denied Mr. Wesley Edward Smith III of his procedural protection and safeguard that allows disclosure of all and any substantive evidence of proof and a cognizable stated claim for relief as required to render a one sided Summary Judgment. I am requesting this Court, expedite the legal matter by fast tracking the Appeals Court process (exercising rights). This because I have notice the interchangeability of Court Officers that person that I have made decision against me in favor of my adversary. Such person identified have been promoted and sits higher seats authority related to resolving these legal private matter in the spirit of judicial efficiency involving employment termination and discrimination matters between Mr. Wesley Edward Smith III and the Charleston County School District.

ORDER

By order dated June 25, 2015, the South Carolina Court of Appeals dismissed the appeal in this matter. The Court of Appeals sent the remittitur on July 15, 2015.<sup>1</sup>

Petitioner has now filed documents asking this Court to review the decision of the Court of Appeals. Since review of a decision of the Court of Appeals is sought by serving and filing a petition for a writ of certiorari under Rule 242 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), the documents have been construed as a petition for a writ of certiorari.

This Court will only review a final decision of the Court of Appeals, and a decision is not final for the purposes of review until a petition for rehearing or reinstatement has been acted on by the Court of Appeals. Rule 242(c), SCACR. Since no petition for rehearing or reinstatement has been ruled on by the Court of Appeals in this matter, there is no final decision for this Court to review.

Further, when no petition for rehearing or reinstatement was received by the Court of Appeals within the time permitted by Rule 221, SCACR, the Court of Appeals properly sent the remittitur. Rule 221, SCACR. The sending of the remittitur ended appellate jurisdiction over this case, and no further motions or petitions can be considered in this case by either appellate court. Wise v. S.C. Dept. of Corr., 372 S.C. 173, 642 S.E.2d 551 (2007).

Accordingly, the petition for a writ of certiorari is dismissed.
