

To the ladies & gentlemen of the Court of Appeals,

12-7-15

I am writing you in reference to my recent probation revocation. This letter reflects my desire to appeal Judge Hayes' order based on several arguments and concerns.

Initially, I was being represented by a public defender by the name of Toni Johnson. Upon arriving to court, I was informed that I would be represented by someone else, and this defender does municipal court, and is not familiar with cases like my own. I am concerned that I did not receive an opportunity to be fairly represented, which in return resulted in the order that I received. I also feel as my probation officer Alicia Devon Richardson IS RACIST
