

IN THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
APPEALS COURT DIVISION

RECEIVED

OCT 26 2015

SC Court of Appeals

BRENDA G. HARMON, Appellant,

CA: 2015-000061

v.

JOEL E. JOHNSON, D.M.D., Respondent

RULE 26(f) REPORT

-----
MOTION FOR DISCOVERY
-----

I, the above named appellate, MOTION to the Court of Appeals for a discovery since all of the medical bills have not been disclosed to me, the Appellate, considering my care has not been dismissed. However, because of the Appellant's continuation of health failures stemming from 'Trigeminal Neuralgia' Which was caused by the Respondent, I, the above named Appellant is scheduled for surgery, for this atrocity. It is shameful that I had to suffer for the last four years and six months, because of the color of my skin. There is no question in my mind that my color is the predominant reason that I am being subjected to what is now happening, a continuation of denied right, even though the Court, granted me the right to have a trial.
