Re: L. Virgil Porter v. Eloise Chvis
Appellate Case No. 2015-002591

Dear Mr. Porter:

Upon reviewing your notice of appeal, the following deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and any deficiency must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of this letter or your appeal may be dismissed:

- The notice of appeal fails to include a statement of when you received written notice of entry of the order or judgment from which this appeal is taken.
- The required filing fee has not been submitted. The correct filing fee is $100.00.
- A proof of service has not been provided. You must serve and file a proof of service substantially in the format shown by Form 7 in Appendix C to part II of the SCACR. Specifically, the proof of service must include the name of the document served, the name and address of the party being served with the document, and the date of service.
- The notice of appeal you have filed is not legible. The document will need to be resubmitted in a format that is legible and complies with the requirements of Rule 267, SCACR.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen, Deputy
