Re: State v. Craddock, 2014-GS-42-03727

Case No. 2014-N-42-10200411 (Pettit Lincum Attorneys)

MR. Johnston:

Please send all my State criminal files related to all my state cases you represented me in.
And please don't let your staff know me to involve the Bar about my files. As you know, the Bar (and courts) have repeatedly held that the client's file "belongs to the client" at the completion of lawyer's services. I fired you 9-17-15 when you got me 3 yrs. in prison for a crime you know I did not commit, so your services have come to an end, and I need my files!!

VIA US MAIL AND FAX (803-734-1839)

Dear Ms. Kitchens:

The Notice of Appeal was filed pro se by the defendant. I was counsel for the guilty plea. After the plea, Mr. Crockett formally discharged me in writing. I have enclosed a copy of the relevant portion of his letter to that effect.

I respectfully request that I be relieved as counsel of record in this case.

Sincerely,

Andrew J. Johnston
 AJJ/lst
