SC Court of Appeals

RE: Ex Parte: Tara Dawn Shurling, Attorney, Appellant.
In Re: State of South Carolina v. Bejay Harley
Court of Appeals Appellate Case No. 2013-001298
Supreme Court Appellate Case No. 2015-001580

Dear Mr. Shearouse:

I recently requested a second extension of time in which to file a Reply in the above captioned matter. Please accept my apology for misunderstanding the new rule on extensions in cases on Certiorari following a Court of Appeals decision. I frankly did not recall that the limits applied to the entire appeal as opposed to any one stage of the process.

I finally had the opportunity to complete my review of the Return this week and have determined that a Reply is not necessary. While there are a few points I could have responded to, I believe my position is adequately set forth in my petition. I withdraw my request for an additional extension.

Again, I apologize for any inconvenience my extension request caused. I remain,

Sincerely yours,
