Re: Moses Frasier v. State
Appellate Case No. 2015-002609
Lower Court Case No. 2009CP1001183

Dear Mr. Shearouse:

I am writing in response to your letter dated December 23, 2015 regarding the above-named matter. By way of an explanation, in January 2012 I represented Moses Frasier at his PCR hearing in what was my first and only court-appointed case. Shortly after the completion of the case I received notice from the South Carolina Bar that I was exempt from any future appointed cases due to my position at One80 Place, the homeless shelter in Charleston. In that position I provide free civil legal representation to individuals who are homeless.

Being a relatively new attorney and having no criminal law experience, I apparently made some incorrect assumptions at the close of this case: 1) that the court would send a copy of the order to both me and my client, 2) that my representation ended with the PCR hearing, and 3) that my client would file an appeal upon receipt of the order as he was instructed to do by Judge Dennis, who presided at the hearing.

In October 2015 I received a phone call from my client's mother. She told me that my client wanted a copy of the order from the January 2012 PCR hearing. I mailed a copy to the address given to me by his mother. Approximately six weeks later the order was returned to me marked "undeliverable." I contacted my client's mother. Apparently there was an error in the address she had given me. I then again mailed a copy of the order to my client and according to his mother, he finally received a copy on December 8, 2015.

As a result, it would appear that while I received written notice of entry of the order in February 2012, Moses Frasier did not receive a copy of the order until December 2015.

If you require any additional information please feel free to contact me. As an aside, your letter stated that "a copy of the notice of appeal and proof of services is enclosed." Neither of those items were enclosed with your letter.

Sincerely,
