Re: Transcript Request
CHEMGARD, INC. V. HAYNES et al
Hearing of July 6, 2015
Before The Honorable Perry H. Gravely

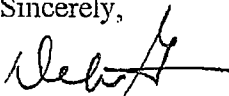

Dear Ellen:

I have received your letter requesting a transcript of a hearing before The Honorable Perry H. Gravely in the above-captioned matter, which was held on July 6, 2015.

A review of the record indicates that a deposit in the amount of $268.25 is required to accept your request. Transcript requests are not accepted without the required deposit. This is an estimated amount. If the cost of the transcript is more than the required amount, you will be notified to remit the balance. If the cost is less than the deposit, a refund will accompany the transcript on delivery. Once a valid deposit is received, the transcript will be provided within sixty days from the date of receipt, unless an extension for cause is granted.

Deposits are required of all parties, including those indigent, incarcerated or appearing pro se.

Sincerely,

Deborah Garrison

Dear Ms. Garrison:

I just received your request today for the required $268.25 deposit for the transcript referenced above. I have requested your check from bookkeeping but am told that I need a signed W-9 from you before the check can be processed.

If possible, please email your W-9 to me at egriffin@roecassidy.com and I will mail your check immediately upon receipt.

Should you have any questions or need further information, please free feel to contact me. Thank you.

Dear Ms. Garrison:

I am writing to follow-up on my November 2, 2015 (enclosed) letter to you requesting a W-9. As I have not yet received your W-9, I am afraid my letter should have been sent to your Greenville address instead of the Johns Island address on your letterhead.

The check for the record is ready and I just need your W-9 for bookkeeping. Much thanks and Happy Holidays.

7 List account number(s) here (optional)

Requester's name and address (optional)

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1 and the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Social security number or

Employer identification number

5	7	-	0	8	9	7	6	7	8
---	---	---	---	---	---	---	---	---	---

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
- The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 3.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. Information about developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) is at www.irs.gov/fw9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)

- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
 - Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
 - Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)
- Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.
- If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding? on page 2.*
- By signing the filled-out form, you:
- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
 - Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
 - Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
 - Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting? on page 2 for further information.
