Re: Diana Jordan v. SCDEW
Appellate Case No. 2015-001912

Dear Ms. Jordan:

The Court received your "Motion that all Time Requirements and Deadlines be Held in Abeyance," in which you request the Court to stay all appellate deadlines. We construe this petition as a petition to rehear our denial of the petition for rehearing. Pursuant to Rule 240(i) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), "The court will not entertain petitions for rehearing on a motion or petition unless the action of the court on the motion or petition has the effect of dismissing or finally deciding a party's appeal." The motion to reinstate this appeal was denied on January 13, 2016. Accordingly, the Court will not take any further action on your "Motion that all Time Requirements and Deadlines be Held in Abeyance." Therefore, this filing is being returned to you.

We have also received your letters addressed to Judge Williams at his home address. He asked us to respond to you. You must direct your requests for action to the Court via the Clerk's office at the above address. If you would like to request relief, you may do so by filing an appropriate motion pursuant to Rule 240, SCACR. Accordingly, we will not take any further action on your filings.

Very truly yours,

CLERK
