RE: State of South Carolina, Respondent, vs. Wilford Gino Ford, Appellant
Appellate Case Number: 2015-002006

Dear Mrs. Kitchings:

I have been unable to visit with Mr. Ford to check on whether or not he ever ordered a transcript in the above referenced matter, in light of the fact that he filed his own appeal without my knowledge or assistance. As a result, and out of an abundance of caution, I have taken the liberty of ordering the transcript. A copy of the letter to the court reporter is enclosed. Thank you in advance for your consideration.

Sincerely,

RE: State of South Carolina, Respondent, vs. Wilford Gino Ford, Appellant
Appellate Case Number: 2015-002006

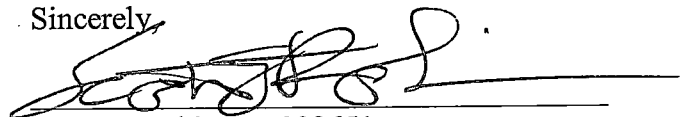

Dear Melissa:

On September 10, 2015, the above case was called for trial and eventually resulted in a guilty plea before the Honorable Howard P. King, Circuit Court Judge, in Clarendon County. My records indicate that you were the court reporter for this case.

I request that you provide me with a transcript of the proceedings. Please transcribe the entire record to include selection of the jury and the eventual guilty plea of Mr. Ford.

This matter is being forwarded to the Office of Appellate Defense for payment and further representation. Please contact me if you have any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Appellate Case No.: 2015-002006

The State of South Carolina,

Respondent.

Wilford Gino Ford,

v.

Appellant.

Written Explanation for Appeal of Guilty Plea

Defendant, Wilford Gino Ford, appeals his guilty plea and sentence in this case. The following is the Defendant's written explanation required by Rule 203(d)(1)(B)(iv) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.

The Defendant is informed and believes that the Court lacked jurisdiction to impose the sentence handed down in this matter. More specifically, the Defendant is informed and believes that all of his prior convictions had been expunged and he had no qualifying convictions to make the charge to which he pled a third or subsequent property crime. The Defendant handed up evidence of this expungement to the trial Judge, but the trial Judge ignored said information and imposed a sentence which the trial Court lacked jurisdiction to impose.

The Defendant is further informed and believes that his guilty plea was not freely and voluntarily entered into in as much as he was forced to plead guilty in light of the trial Judge's refusal to grant a continuance to allow the Defendant sufficient time to locate and subpoena witnesses that could have proven his innocence. In addition, the plea was not knowingly entered into because the Defendant was never given notice of the enhancement aspect of this charge would subjected the Defendant to a possible ten (10) year sentence. Although he was indicted for this charge, the Defendant was never served a copy of his indictment by the State.

Re: The State v. Wilford Gino Ford
Appellate Case No. 2015-002006

Dear Counsel:

Upon reviewing your client's notice of appeal, the following deficiency or deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and any deficiency must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of this letter or your appeal may be dismissed:

- The notice of appeal is not accompanied by a redacted copy of the order(s) and/or sentencing sheet(s) challenged on appeal.
- Since this is an appeal from a guilty plea, nolo contendere plea, or plea pursuant to Alford, Rule 203(d)(1)(B)(iv) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules requires "a written explanation showing that there is an issue which can be reviewed on appeal. This explanation should identify the issue(s) to be raised on appeal and the factual basis for the issue(s) including how the issue(s) was raised below and the ruling of the lower court on that issue(s). If an issue was not raised to and ruled on by the lower court, the explanation shall include argument and citation to legal authority showing how this issue can be reviewed on appeal."

Very truly yours,

Re: The State v. Wilford Gino Ford
Appellate Case No. 2015-002006

Dear Counsel:

This Court has received your notice of appeal, and the case has been assigned the appellate case number that appears above. Please use this number on all future correspondence relating to this matter.

All parties to this matter are advised that all filings must comply with the requirements of Rule 267 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR). The SCACR are available online at www.sccourts.org/courtreg. Additionally, any filings submitted by counsel admitted in South Carolina must include counsel's bar number.

The attention of the parties is directed to the order relating to the inclusion of personal data identifiers and other sensitive information in documents filed with the Supreme Court of South Carolina and the South Carolina Court of Appeals. The order can be found at www.sccourts.org/courtOrders/HTMLFiles/2014-04-15-02.htm. Please note that the responsibility for insuring that information is redacted or sealed as required by this order rests with counsel and the parties. This office will not review filings for redaction or to determine if materials should be sealed.

This is to advise that the title in the above matter has been changed to read as follows:

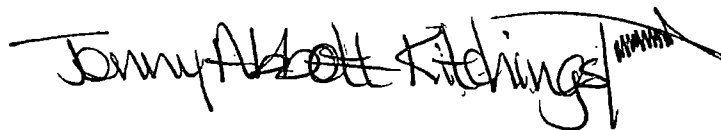

The State, Respondent,

v.

Wilford Gino Ford, Appellant.

All future records in this matter should be changed to reflect this title. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact this office.

Very truly yours,

Re: 2015A1420300010

Dear Mr. Ford:

Your application for a Public Defender has been approved and your case has been referred to me. Please carefully read the following:

1. Upon receipt of your case, I filed a motion for discovery. When that information is received, you will be contacted and an appointment will be scheduled. I typically do not discuss cases with clients prior to that appointment. I do not talk to family members.
2. By applying and receiving a Public Defender, you agree that I will determine what motions to file and what hearings will be scheduled. Therefore, it is within my discretion to waive any preliminary hearings requested prior to my representation.
3. I represent you on the criminal charges stated on your application. If you or your family come to some sort of agreement to have a private attorney represent you in any matter related to this case—such as lifting a bench warrant or scheduling a bond hearing—our office will file a motion to withdraw its representation of you. If you hire a private attorney, have him/her contact my office immediately.
4. All criminal defendants are entitled to a bond hearing. If you have a charge that requires a bond to be set before the General Sessions Court, the Solicitor's office will schedule that hearing. If you have had your bond set before a magistrate, you do not have an automatic right to a bond reconsideration hearing.
5. If you are in jail you can write to me or call me at the above listed telephone number. You are entitled to one telephone call per week. I make occasional visits to the jail and will discuss your case with you after I have received discovery.
6. If you receive new charges, you must re-apply for a Public Defender. Every application requires a $40 fee.
7. Contact my office immediately to update any changes in your address or telephone number.

Sincerely,
FILE COPY

Re: State v. Wilford Gino Ford
Warrant/Ticket No(s): 2015A1420300010

Dear Mr. Ford:

Please accept this letter as NOTICE of your obligation to be present at an upcoming MANDATORY Docket Appearance. This court appearance has been scheduled by the Solicitor's Office and will take place on Friday, September 4, 2015 @ 2PM at the Clarendon County Courthouse. BE AWARE that your presence is mandatory. Please understand that if you are not present at this time, on this date, the Solicitor will move before the Court and obtain a bench warrant for your arrest.

If I have contacted you in the past to discuss a plea offer, this is your decision date, if you were thinking about it or had other questions for me after our prior discussion, we must speak prior to this date, as this date is simply when we must advise the Solicitor of your acceptance, or your refusal and intention to proceed to trial. As stated, if a Plea Offer has been offered by the Solicitor, the above date is your only chance to accept this and set a date certain for disposition. IT IS VERY IMPORTANT THAT YOU UNDERSTAND: IF YOU DECIDE TO REJECT THE OFFER EXTENDED TO YOU, YOU ARE IN TURN CHOOSING TO PROCEED TO TRIAL AND WILL NOT BE GIVEN ANOTHER OR BETTER OFFER AS TRIAL NEARS. Be sure to appear promptly, advise me of your presence and remain in the courtroom until you are excused by the Solicitor's Office.

Also, keep in mind when you come to court you must be dressed appropriately; no shorts, cutoff jeans, slacks or trousers with holes, no tank tops, no halter tops, no see-through blouses or tops that expose a bare midriff are permitted. T-shirts must not contain vulgar, profane or inflammatory slogans or pictures. Also, please leave all cell phones in your vehicle; they are not permitted in the court room. Do not bring babies and/or young children to court with you. They are not allowed in the courtroom. Also seating is limited, so please do not bring family members to court with you. If they do come, chances are they will no be allowed in the courtroom due to the limited seating. Bailiffs will be required to enforce these rules, not being allowed to enter the courtroom due to one of the above items will not excuse you from court, the Judge will proceed in your absence.

If you are currently incarcerated and you have received this letter, I am aware of your situation and will contact you to complete the preparation of your defense.
