The Honorable Jenny Abbott Kitchings
Clerk of Court, South Carolina Court of Appeals
1013 Sumter Street
Columbia, South Carolina 29201

RE: John M. English v. Ellen Sexton
Case No. 2014-002661
Lower Court Case No. 2010-CP-10-7241

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I am a pro se respondent in the above case. Originally, I had been listed as attorney for the Appellant, but was relieved as counsel for Appellant and named a respondent by twin orders issued simultaneously several months ago.

Since receiving those orders changing my status, I do not think I have received any mail from the Court. I learned of an order dismissing the appeal by being served with a motion to reinstate the appeal, whereupon I called the Court sometime in late December and requested a copy of the order dismissing the appeal, which order I had not received. I understand the case worker was on vacation.

I have not received a copy of that order yet and I think I have not received any other correspondence or papers from the Court since the orders relieving me as counsel and naming me as a respondent. A troubling possibility just occurred to me. Perhaps when I was relieved as counsel, my name was taken off the list of people to be served orders and notices of hearings, etc.

I respectfully request that you please verify I am to be served as appropriate for a pro se respondent. I also respectfully request a copy of any notices, orders, correspondence or other papers which the Court has sent to the attorneys or parties in this matter since the orders relieving me as counsel and naming me as a (pro se) respondent.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
