vs.

Jonathan D. Dixon

APPEAL TO S.C.
COURT OF APPEALS

SC Court of Appeals

Your Honor, On Wednesday January 13TH 2016, The Defendant In The Above Captioned case, Was Brought Before The Honorable Judge John C. Hayes III, And Cited As Best He Could, To The Courts' Concerns, Of A Highly Possible Break Down In The Attorney Client Relationship Between Himself And Mr. Bryson J. Barrowclough, Who Had Been Appointed By The State Of S.C, As Legal Representation On Behalf Of The Defendant For Two 2014 Affidavits, And Two 2015 Affidavits, That Included But Was Not Limited Too, A Likely Conflict Of Interests In Obligations, Failed Diligence, Failed Cooperation With Client Interests, Failure To Investigate And Produce Product For Trial, And Other Irreconcilable Differences.

The Honorable Judge John C. Hayes III, Did In Fact! Relieve Mr. Barrowclough Of His Duties As Appointed Legal Representation, But Ordered The Defendant To Represent Himself Or Hire Private Counsel, Which Was Evident That The Defendant Was, And Is Unable To Do, Provided He Was Deemed Eligible For Appointed Counsel From The First, And Thereby! Due To This Fact! And The Fact That, The Defendant Acknowledges That He Has An Inadequate And Inappropriate Knowledge Of The Law, Is Under Duress, And Rightfully Has Reason To Believe That Justice Would Not Be Found In Being Ordered To Represent Himself, There May Possibly Be A Violation With The Defendants Procedural Due Process Rights, In That The Honorable Judge John C. Hayes III, Failed To Exercise The Power To Appoint Competent Replacement Counsel, And Thereby! It Is The Order Of Self Representation That The Defendant Hereby Appeals.

Mr. Dixon Hereby Submits A Request That Substitute Counsel Please Be Appointed To His Current Case, As State Appointed Legal Representation:

I Swear Under Penalty Of Perjury That The Foregoing Is True And Correct.
