v.

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA

Appellate case No: 2016-000016

REHEARING PURSUANT TO RULE
221 (b), SCACR.

The incompetency of the Petitioner is depended on a detective who testified at trial that he felt that Petitioner was competent. The Petitioner was incompetent and was on a mind altering drug, called depacote at 500 milligrams twice a day. and it continued until October 13 2013. Petitioner told this to the court in his prior PCR hearing on May 12, 2011. It violate due process to convict a defendant while he is incompetent Bishop v. United States 350 U.S. 961, 76 S.Ct. 440 (1956).

Petitioner request a remand for a PCR hearing on his competency.
