Ms. R. Frierson
Director of Court Administration
Senate Street
Columbia, SC 29201

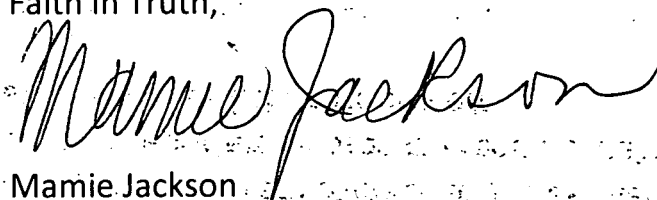

I have received the transcript from Court Reporter Cheryl M. St. Germain. The transcript does not conform to the instructions given for this transcript for which a $140.00 deposit was tendered. Ms. St. Germain was instructed to indent two spaces inside the prelined margins on each side. Caps of identifying parties were not to be indented. Ms. St. Germain has ignored those instructions in order to extend the longation of the the transcript with malice and forethought and is an act of fraud. I do not know what the procedure is to get the transcript as ordered. The clerk in the Court of Appeals for this case has stated that I should contact the court reporter. I am contacting you as I had requested of the personnel assigned to court reporters ignored my request that the transcript be sent to your office and I would pick it up from there.

The prelined page appears not to conform to any standard as the lined margin on the left side of the is wider than the right side. Should they not be in conformity.

The verbally abusive language of her communications is also objected to. I have not opened the last communication. The transcript is also not signed. Why are the title page and certificate page numbered? How is a $140.00 deposit justified on a transcript of less than 15 pages?

Request that the transcript be redone in the manner ordered.

Faith In Truth,

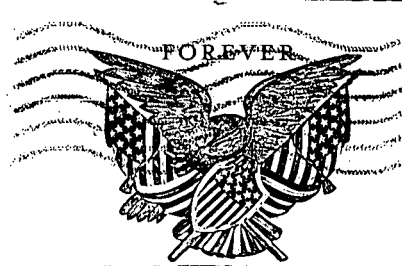

Mamie Jackson
