Pro se brief

I Jim Feagin believe the court should consider in this appeal violation of the fifth and fourteenth Amendment pursuant to Miranda v. Arizona 384 U.S. 436, 444 (1966) that law enforcement should have advised me of my rights after being in jail five days, I just think I did not get a fair trial or a fair sentence from judge Newman, so I would like you to go over all my trial transcripts and motion's hearing transcripts, and give me this Appeal for me and my family and give me a fair chance.
