Re: Dennis Gallipeau v. Carnaby Square
2015-2177

Dear Claire:

Thank you for acknowledging, 21 days after I filed it, the receipt of my petition for rehearing. In your letter of receipt, you state that "no action will be taken" on my petition. You seem to be suggesting that if I fail to comply with Judge Few's order, my appeal will not be dismissed. I think you are wrong. It is my position, and my belief, that the effect of my failure to comply with the order by not being able to pay the filing fee will be the dismissal of my appeal. How stupid can you be to not see that? You have been nothing but an impediment and an obstruction to my access to the court. You have nitpicked, and rejected, every paper I have attempted to file with the court, finding one petty reason after another. It seems to be your forte.

Please put my petition for rehearing before the court where it belongs. It meets the requirements of the Rule cited by you in your letter.

Thank you so kindly, Claire.
