STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
IN THE COURT APPEALS

Appellate Case # 2016 - 000152
Jean P. Elliott - Respondent vs,
Alberto Alvarez - Appellant

SC Court of Appeals

Office Of The Clerk Of Court

To The Honorable Jenny Abbott Kitchings;

Dear Mrs Kitchings ,

At present I am in the process of preparing the initial "Brief Of Appellant" for my case on appeal listed above and am finding myself extremely pressed for time to complete this critical document within the time frame specified. Working in a Pro Se capacity, I am equally as concerned with what I present and communicate in my brief as I am with the exacting attention to detail and due diligence requisite to meet the standards and expectations of The Court Of Appeals.

Possessing a much improved understanding of what is to be expected of my work and of me, I am progressively gaining speed in my efforts and witness my production improve daily as I piece together so many essential components into this one document.

This said, with a most lucid understanding that I will not be allowed a second attempt - or should expect an "A" for effort - I wish to request an additional 30 days be allowed for me to complete this critical work to a consummate level of efficient and effective argumentation - with all references and documentations as outlined included. Such work as this is hardly for the faint of heart.

I believe in the appellate process of South Carolina and I believe in the case I have to present with intent to overturn the lower court's ruling. With all my heart I know I am right in my decision to effort to do so. I wish to add I deeply appreciate Judge Simmon's efforts to render as fair a decision as possible for my case and to his credit, albeit I disagree with his decision, I feel the outcome to have been determined more by testimony distorted by persons of an exceptionally clever turn phrase, acts of perjury self-evident within the very transcripts from the hearing, and the added complication of the challenge he faced in adjudicating such a complicated case while working with persons of profound Limited English Proficiency.

The "Brief Of Appellant" I am preparing will in no way be compromised by my heavy Spanish accent, poor understanding of the South Carolina Rules Of Civil Procedure, and my exceptionally weak platform skills. I need only to speak the truth in written form, and in doing so, I will not be taxed so as to recall and construct for the court the actual picture of the Truth, the Whole Truth, and Nothing But The Truth. As for one who speaks truth - the truth in fact speaks for them, while those who do not speak truth, struggle to recollect spur of the moment – improvised fiction.

I thank you in advance for your kind attention to my letter and request. I hope you find my request to be reasonable and as such, allot me the additional time I request so that I can complete my work at hand to the level of standards that must be met.

With Most Sincere Appreciation,

Alberto Alvarez
