RULE 203(B) EXPLANATION

Pursuant to Rule 203(B)(iv), the undersigned asserts that he does not have a good faith basis to believe that any issues are properly before the Court of Appeals, and the undersigned did not object to the sentence or file a motion to reconsider the sentence. Defendant did mention appealing moments after his sentencing hearing in Barnwell County, and the undersigned briefly informed Defendant about the appeals process before she was transported to the Barnwell County Detention Center. Subsequently, the Defendant's family made contact with Clyburn Pope & Price, LLC, stating that Defendant wanted an appeal filed on his case. Defendant was transported to the Department of Corrections before the undersigned was able to discuss this issue with him further. The undersigned has filed the instant appeal at the request of the Appellant because the Sixth Amendment requires counsel to follow the Appellant's request. See Frazier v. South Carolina, 430 F.3d 696, 706 (4th Cir.2005) ("A defendant has a right to pursue a direct appeal, even if frivolous, which counsel must assist as 'an active advocate on behalf of his client.'") (quoting Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738, 744 (1967)).

Respectfully Submitted,
