Re: Stuk v. Crockett, Appeal No. 2015-2298
" Letter/Motion For Transcript "

Honorable Court:

Your office recently sent me a letter from my former criminal defense attorney claiming my guilty plea process was just honky-dory and my appeal was basically frivolous. Moreover, your office advised me to respond within (20) days - which I've done, but shouldn't there be a record of the guilty plea and sentence made available for purposes of review by the former attorney, myself and the Court? How can anyone expect to recall what occurred over 6 mts. ago? I'm not going to assert, under oath, what or what did not occur at the proceedings last year - maybe Counsel has an extraordinary memory, but I'm human and need a transcript to refresh my recollections. Doesn't Anders v. California, say that I'm supposed to have a transcript to review prior to submitting my arguments about appeal that Counsel argues is without merit? "Thank you" for your time + concern in this matter.

Respectfully,
Timothy Dale Crockett
