Re: Benjamin Anderson v. Davita Upstate Dialysis
Appellate Case No. 2015-001932

Dear Mr. Anderson:

The Court has received your appellant's initial brief. However, the brief is being returned to you because there is a motion to dismiss currently pending before this Court. The motion to dismiss holds all filing deadlines in abeyance. Therefore, you have filed your brief prematurely and it is being returned to you so that you can file it after the Court has considered the motion to dismiss.

You are advised that the documents you attached to your brief do not constitute a designation of matter, pursuant to Rule 209 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules. Please be sure to make the necessary corrections when filing your initial brief and designation of matter in the future.

Very truly yours,
