RE: State

vs.

Alexander B. Wilson
Case # 2014-002659

Dear, your Honor,

The 5th Amendment states that no one shall be compell to be a witness against themselves

I have a copy of a letter date Nov. 13, 2014
from the Brook's Law office, Charles T. Brook III
it said:

Dear Mr. Wilson,

Please be advised that when we have your trial in December you will get to testify along with Dr Domingo and Dr Martin. We will do our best to win the trial for you."

The burden is on the state, to prove beyond
A Reasonable doubt that I commit the crime

I shall Not be compell to be A witness About A double murder At my Resident when I'm the Suspect, Accuse of murder.

I Request the court to Reverse the conviction and vacated the sentence and dismiss this case for new trial.

Sign.
