C/A No: 2015-002481

RE: Your Letter to Me Dated March 1, 2016

Dear Mrs. Waller:

Per your letter, (copy attached for easy reference), the subject deposition is included in the Record on Appeal being prepared. I note your reference to what the subject rules are, but my question was to something different, and because I did not copy the clerk's file with that one, and in your reply copied to the clerk's office, you did not state what the question was, therefore I'm attaching a copy of it (my Feb. 25 letter) so when this letter is clocked for the court's file, anyone can see what my question was in that letter and, not that I simply needed to be schooled on the rules, as you implied in your March 1st reply letter thereto. A more apt reference to the rules, if any, would have been in regards to, certifying that no matter is included that are irrelevant to the appeal per the Designation of Matter, in which regards re the 1,072 pg. 's submitted, we will deal with at the appropriate time.

RE: DEPOSITION OF APPELLANT

Dear Mr. Culbreath:

As to the Deposition of Appellant (Charles Taylor) although it is on your Designation of Matter List to be included in the Record on Appeal; my question; is that really necessary because in neither of the 3 briefs are that Deposition referred to, unless I am in error, if not, with your permission, I will just leave it out. Please reply ASAP. Thanks.
