appealed the order of default to the South Carolina Court of Appeals which dismissed the appeal by order dated September 10, 2014. The Remittitur was sent from the Court of Appeals on September 30, 2014.

5. For value received, the Defendant Petrel International, LLC made, executed and delivered the Note dated December 22, 2009 promising thereby to pay to the order of H. Thad White, Jr. the sum of Two Hundred Seventy Thousand and no/100ths ($270,000.00) Dollars with interest at the rate of 5% per annum. The note provides that the Defendant Petrel International, LLC would make monthly payments of principal and interest on a monthly basis beginning February 1, 2010 with a final payment due on January 1, 2020. A copy of the Note was introduced into evidence at the hearing as Plaintiff's Exhibit 1.

6. In order to better secure the payment of the Note described above and the indebtedness represented thereby the Defendant Petrel International, LLC executed and delivered to the Plaintiff a certain real estate mortgage wherein and whereby the Defendant Petrel International, LLC conveyed by way of mortgage the following described property:

11. The Plaintiff is seeking the usual foreclosure of the mortgage and has at the hearing of this matter expressly waived the right to a deficiency judgment.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

I, THEREFORE, CONCLUDE AS FOLLOWS:

1. The Plaintiff should have judgment of foreclosure of its mortgage.
2. The mortgaged properties should be ordered sold at Public Auction after due advertisement. The sale shall be subject to taxes and assessments that are due on the date of sale.
3. The proceeds arising from such sale should be applied, first, to the costs, fees, and disbursements of this action, and next, to the payment and discharge of the amount of Plaintiff's debt and interest, or so much thereof as the proceeds will pay, and any surplus should be held pending further Order of this Court.

NOW, ON MOTION OF PLAINTIFF'S ATTORNEY,

IT IS SO ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That there is due to the Plaintiff on the obligation and Mortgages set forth in the Complaint the sum of Three Hundred and Five Thousand Six Hundred and Fifteen and 54/100ths ($305,615.54) Dollars representing the total debt due Plaintiff as set out in Paragraph 10, supra, together with interest at the rate provided in said obligation on the balance of principal from the date aforesaid to the date hereof.

2. The amount due in the preceding Paragraph (the "Total Debt" as set forth in Paragraph 10, supra, and later accrued interest on the principal) shall constitute the total Judgment debt due the Plaintiff and shall bear interest hereafter at the legal rate.

3. That the Defendant Petrel International, LLC shall, on or before the date of sale of the property hereinafter described, pay to the Plaintiff, or Plaintiff's attorney, the amount of Plaintiff's debt as aforesaid, together with the costs and disbursements of this action.

4. That on default of payment at or before the time herein indicated, the mortgaged premises described in the Complaint, as hereinafter set forth, be sold by the undersigned Special Referee at Public Auction, at the Darlington County Courthouse, County and State aforesaid, on Tuesday, January 6, 2015 at 12:30 o'clock P.M., on the following terms:

a. FOR CASH: The undersigned Special Referee will require a deposit of five (5%) percent on the amount of the bid (in cash or equivalent), same to be applied on the purchase price only upon compliance with the bid, but in the case of non-compliance, within thirty (30) days, same to be forfeited and applied to the costs and Plaintiff's debt, without further notice.

b. Interest on the balance of the bid shall be paid to the day of compliance at the rate of interest of 5% percent per annum.

c. The sale shall be subject to taxes and assessments, existing easements, and easements and restrictions of record.

d. Purchaser to pay for the preparation of the Deed, documentary stamps and costs of recording the Deed.

5. If Plaintiff is the successful bidder at the said sale, for a sum not exceeding the amount of costs, expenses and the indebtedness of the Plaintiff's in full, Plaintiff may pay to the undersigned Special Referee only the amount of the costs and expenses crediting the balance of the bid on Plaintiff's indebtedness.

6. No personal or deficiency judgment being demanded, the bidding will not remain open after the date of sale, but compliance with the bid may be made immediately.

7. The undersigned Special Referee will, by advertisement according to law, give notice of the time, date and place of sale and the terms thereof; and will execute to the purchaser, or purchasers, a deed to the premises sold. The Plaintiff, or any other party to this action, may become purchaser at such sale, and that if, upon such sale being made, the purchaser, or purchasers, should fail to comply with the terms thereof within thirty (30) days after date of sale, then the undersigned Special Referee may advertise the said premises for sale on the next, or some other subsequent sales day, at the risk of the highest bidder, and so from time to time thereafter until a full compliance shall be secured. In the event the Plaintiff is the successful bidder, at his option, or the option of his assignee, the Deed may be taken subject to payment by Grantee of any taxes or assessments constituting a lien against the property sold under the Order and hereinafter more fully described.

8. That the undersigned Special Referee apply the proceeds of the sale as follows:

FIRST: To the payment of the amount of the costs and expenses of this action;

NEXT: To the payment of the Plaintiff or Plaintiff's attorney the amount of Plaintiff's debt, interest and fees and so much thereof as the purchase money will pay on the same;

NEXT: Any surplus will be held pending further order of the Court.

9. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that in the event the successful bidder is other than the Defendant in possession herein, the Sheriff of Darlington County is ordered and directed to eject and remove from the premises the occupant(s) of the property sold, together with all personal property located thereon, and put the successful bidder or its assigns in full, quiet and peaceable possession of said premises without delay, and to keep said successful bidder or its assigns in such peaceable possession.

10. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that each Defendant named herein and all persons whosoever claiming under him, them or it, be forever barred and foreclosed of all right, title, interest, and equity of redemption in the said mortgaged premises so sold, or any part thereof.

11. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the Deed of Conveyance made pursuant to said sale shall contain the names of only the first-named Plaintiff and the first-named Defendant, and the Defendant who was the titleholder of the mortgaged property at the time of the filing of the notice of pendency of the within action, and the name of the grantee, and the Clerk of Court/Register of Mesne Conveyances is authorized to omit from the indices pertaining to such conveyance the names of all parties not contained in said deed.

12. The following is a description of the premises herein ordered to be sold:

Appellate Case No. 2014-000147

ORDER

This appeal was dismissed due to Appellant's failure to provide the name of the lawyer representing Appellant on appeal. Haiyan Lin, the single member of Appellant, has filed a petition to rehear the dismissal of the appeal, arguing she should be allowed to represent Appellant. After careful consideration of the petition for rehearing, the Court is unable to discover that any material fact or principle of law has been either overlooked or disregarded, and hence, there is no basis for granting a rehearing. Accordingly, the petition for rehearing is denied.

Date of Hearing: November 21, 2013
Attorney for Plaintiff: William J. Tuck (special appearance for Bryan W. Braddock)
Attorney for Defendant: Pro Se
Court Reporter: Crystal M. Holmes

This matter came to be heard before me on November 21, 2013 pursuant to Plaintiff's Motion for Order of Default filed with the Clerk of Court of Common Pleas for Darlington County on July 12, 2013. William J. Tuck appeared for Bryan W. Braddock, who represents Plaintiff. Haiyan Lin appeared on behalf of the Defendant, Petrel International, LLC.

This matter arises out of a foreclosure action filed by Plaintiff on April 29, 2013. The property at issue is a twelve acre tract of commercial property located at the intersection of Interstate 20 and US Highway 401 in Darlington County.

Defendant has failed to make payments as set forth in the note and mortgage, specifically by not making any payment since October of 2012. Furthermore, Defendant has failed to pay the taxes on the property, and Plaintiff was forced to pay the property taxes for the last two years to protect the property from being sold at a tax sale.

TRUE COPY, B. Suggs
 CLERK OF COURT/RMG
 DARLINGTON COUNTY, SC

Haiyan Lin, who is not an attorney, filed an Answer and Counterclaim on behalf of the Defendant limited liability company on June 17, 2013. Plaintiff's counsel notified Ms. Lin by letter dated July 9, 2013 that an individual cannot represent a corporation and proceeding without an attorney constitutes the unauthorized practice of law. The Defendant has failed to retain an attorney, and Ms. Lin appeared at the motion hearing to represent the Defendant limited liability company.

Ms. Lin filed a return to the Motion and argued in opposition at the hearing, relying on one South Carolina Code Section and one South Carolina Supreme Court Case. However, Ms. Lin's reliance on South Carolina Code §12-2-25 and CFRE, LLC v. Greenville County Assessor 395 S.C. 67, 716 S.E.2d 877 (S.C. 2011) for the proposition that she can represent a LLC is misplaced. §12-2-25 provides that:

"For South Carolina tax purposes:

- (1) a single-member limited liability company, which is not taxed for South Carolina income tax purposes as a corporation, is not regarded as an entity separate from its owner;
- (2) a "qualified subchapter S subsidiary", as defined in Section 1361 (b)(3)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code, is not regarded as an entity separate from the 'S' corporation that owns the stock of the qualified subchapter 'S' subsidiary."

The present case does not involve taxation issues. It involves issues related to the practice of law, upon which our appellate courts have been clear.

Furthermore, CFRE, LLC v. Greenville County simply held that CFRE LLC was entitled to the residential tax ratio on real estate owned by the LLC under the S.C. Tax Code § 12-43-220(C). The CFRE case has nothing to do with a non-lawyer's ability to represent an LLC. Bringing further irony to the citation, the LLC in CFRE, LLC v. Greenville County was represented by an attorney.

The South Carolina Constitution provides the Supreme Court with the duty to regulate the practice of law in the state. See S.C. Const. art. V, § 4; In re Unauthorized Practice of Law Rules, supra; see also S.C. Code Ann., §40-5-10 (1986). The generally understood definition of the practice of law embraces the preparation of pleadings and other papers indicate the actions and special proceedings and the management of such actions and proceedings on behalf of clients before judges and courts. Doe v. McMaster, 355 S.C. 306, 585 SE2d 773 (S.C. 2002). Further, § 40-5-310 of the South Carolina Code provides that "No person may either practice law or solicit the legal cause of another person or entity in this State unless he is enrolled as a member of the South Carolina Bar pursuant to applicable court rules, or otherwise authorized to perform prescribed legal activities by action of the Supreme Court of South Carolina. The type of conduct that is the subject of any charge filed pursuant to this section must have been defined as the unauthorized practice of law by the Supreme Court of South Carolina prior to any charge being filed. A person who violates this section is guilty of a felony and, upon conviction, must be fined not more than five thousand dollars or imprisoned not more than five years, or both."

While South Carolina law recognizes an individual's ability to appear pro se with leave of the court, corporations - which are artificial creatures of state law - do not have a right to appear pro se in all instances. See S.C. Code Ann. § 40-

CLERK OF COURT/RMC

5-80 (Supp.2002) and S.C. Code Ann. § 40-5-320 (1986). Our appellate courts have granted corporations the ability to appear pro se, with leave of the court, in civil magistrate's court. See In re Unauthorized Practice of Law, supra. However, their ability to appear pro se in a state circuit or appellate court has been rejected. Renaissance Enterprises, Inc. v. Summit Teleservices, Inc., 334 S.C. 649, 515 S.E.2d 257 (1999). Additionally, the Supreme Court in Doe v. McMaster addressed this issue: "Doe argues these cases imply a corporation engages in unauthorized practice of law only where it seeks to act on behalf of others and not solely itself. We disagree. As previously stated, the pro se exception for corporation is strictly limited." A Limited Liability Company, just like a corporation, is an artificial creature of state law that is a separate legal entity. A Limited Liability Company has the capacity to contract as well as the capacity to sue and be sued. Therefore, the same analysis applies to that entity.

Haiyan Lin was notified by letter on July 9, 2013 that Petrel International, LLC failed to file a proper Answer and that proceeding without an attorney constituted the unauthorized practice of law. Since that time, Defendant has failed to retain an attorney and, in fact, Ms. Lin appeared before this Court at the motion hearing representing the Defendant in violation of South Carolina law.

Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff's Motion for Default is granted.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff prays that:

DARLINGTON COUNTY, SC

An Order of Reference was then signed by the Clerk of Court in his administrative capacity and filed with the Court on November 17, 2014, referring this matter to be heard before the Honorable Haigh Porter, and transferring to him the authority to do the following: make decisions of law and fact about this case as Special Referee, take testimony and making findings of facts and conclusions of law, and enter a Final Decree of Foreclosure and Sale.

WHEREUPON, H. THAD WHITE, BEING DULY SWORN, TESTIFIED AS FOLLOWS:

H. Thad White was the owner of the property located at 4600 Lamar Highway in Lamar, South Carolina and the Plaintiff in this action. Mr. White testified regarding the note dated December 22, 2009 Petrel International, LLC, acting through its member Haiyan Lin, made, executed and delivered unto Plaintiff in the amount of Two Hundred Seventy Thousand and 00/100ths ($270,000.00) Dollars with interest thereon from the date thereof at 6.25% thereafter. A copy of the original Note was offered into evidence.

Attention was called to the provisions of the Note with reference to default.

Also, the Court's attention was called to the provisions in the Note with reference to payment of costs of collection and a reasonable attorney's fee. The sum of Three Thousand and 00/100ths ($3,000.00) Dollars is a reasonable fee to allow as attorney's fees for Plaintiff's attorney for services performed and anticipated to be performed until final adjudication of the within action, under the terms of the Note and Mortgage.

NOTE identified, offered and received in evidence as Exhibit 1.

On December 22 2009, Petrel International, LLC made, executed and delivered certain mortgages unto Plaintiff which mortgages contained the same terms and provisions as the Note offered in evidence, and conveyed by way of mortgages the identical properties described in the Complaint in this action, which properties are situated in Darlington County, South Carolina.

Thereafter, on December 23, 2009 the mortgage was recorded in the Office of the Registrar for Darlington County, South Carolina in Mortgage Book 1058 at Pages 5856-5860.

This Mortgage constitutes a First lien covering the property therein described.

Copies of the original Mortgage was offered into evidence.

MORTGAGE identified, offered and received in evidence as Exhibit 2.

The Defendant Petrel International, LLC is the record fee simple owner of the mortgaged property.

The payments as provided for in said Note and Mortgage were not paid in accordance with the terms and conditions thereof, and therefore, the Note and Mortgage are in default; and, as a result thereof, Plaintiff has elected to declare the entire unpaid amount immediately due and payable. The Plaintiff submitted costs necessarily incurred in this case as set forth below:

|--------------------------------------|-----------|
| Costs of Collection Prior to Hearing | |
| - Clerk of Court (filing fees) | 150.00 |
| - Title Search | 50.00 |
| - Special Referee | 250.00 |
| - Service | 54.74 |
| Estimated Publication | 450.00 |
| | TOTAL |
| | $954.74. |

There is due and owing on Plaintiff's Note and Mortgage the sum of Three Hundred One Thousand Six Hundred Sixty and 80/100ths ($301,660.80) Dollars, together with interest thereon as of December 1, 2014 at 5.00% per annum for a per diem of $36.98 as well as attorney's fees of $3,000.00 and costs of $954.74.

That, Your Honor, completes Plaintiff's case and Plaintiff rests.
