S.C. SUPREME COURT

Petitioner's Request for Permission to File for Bail Pending Appellate Review Pro-Se

The above Petitioner now Petitions this court for Permission to file for Bail Pending Appellate Review Pro-Se because his Appellate Defender David Alexander refuses to assist him in doing so.

Petitioner initially filed for bail pending Appellate Review in the lower courts of Chesterfield County because he has 10 years and under. The Judge made an error in my ruling by saying it was Hybrid Representation. My P.C.R. Counsel Jack Swerling relieved himself as counsel, so I had no attorney in the lower courts. Only my Appellate Counsel who represents me in the Court of Appeals, or Supreme Court. So I had a right to file a Pro-Se request for Bail in the lower courts.

Now Appellate Defender David Alexander, and Robert M. Dudek refuse to help me appeal the ruling, and will not file for me an Appeals Bond.

Petitioner now ask that this court either order his Appellate Defender David Alexander to file for Bail Pending Appellate Review or allow Petitioner to file a Pro-Se bail pending Appellate Review in the Original Jurisdiction a Common-Law Certiorari as stated in State v. Hill cite as 444 SE 2d 255 (S.C. 1994) Please note Judge Paul Burch Reversed + Remanded his Conviction
