Re: Robert Fletcher Herbert v. State of South Carolina

2015-001507

Dear Mr. Shearouse:

On March 22, 2016, we sent a letter requesting this case be held in abeyance due to a transcript we requested. We received the transcript on March 23, 2016, so this case no longer needs to be held in abeyance. In accordance with respondent's motion to supplement the record, a supplemental appendix will be filed with the court.

Should you have any questions concerning this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Robert M. Pachak
Appellate Defender
