ORDER GRANTING CLASS CERTIFICATION

12 AUG 28 PM 1:40
CLERK OF COURT

Program from Santee Cooper, which was implementing the Program with many electric cooperatives across the state.

Integral to this action is Horry Electric's Program requirement that all homes built under the Program have a vapor barrier installed on the heated side of the exterior walls. According to the Plaintiffs, the installation of the vapor barrier in this location does cause, and was known at the time of the adoption of the Program, to cause condensation, moisture, and mildew in the wall cavities of structures in warm humid climates such as Horry County. Plaintiffs contend Horry Electric traded off long-term moisture and mold problems in Class Member homes in exchange for the short-term benefit of reducing peak demand so that Horry Electric or its power providers would not have to spend money to build new power plants. Set forth below are the findings of fact and conclusions of law in favor of class certification.

CLASS FACTS

To receive the Good Cents Home approval as being energy efficient, the new home builder was required to follow Horry Electric's design instructions. The Program design instructions did not change during the years 1988-2003. One critical requirement was that a specified vapor barrier be installed on the heated side of the studs. From 1988-2008 Horry Electric's two specified methods to meet its vapor barrier requirement in new homes were:

- (a) Method One
 - (i) 4 or 6 mil. Polyethylene vapor barrier installed on the inside surface of the exterior walls and ceilings
 - (ii) properly installed friction fit batts
 - (iii) properly installed house wrap (such as Tyvek) as an air barrier

2 / mtc

(b) Method Two

- (i) properly installed Kraft or foil-faced insulation
- (ii) taped and painted gypsum board installed on the inside of the exterior wall
- (iii) properly installed house wrap (such as Tyvek) as an air barrier

Through 2003 all homes were required to have one of the two vapor barriers installed on the interior side of the exterior wall. The specifications did not change during the class period, 1988-2003. All new homes enrolled in the program were inspected by Horry Electric and were certified as having met the vapor barrier specifications. More than one thousand new homes, 1434, were built according to Horry Electric's vapor barrier specification.

Horry Electric required the same documentation for each home and used a systematic or classwide approach for approving the new homes and documenting the same. Horry Electric would use an inspection form to verify the required vapor barrier was installed. All homes have the same required Horry Electric documentation.

Although it knew of no building code that required a vapor barrier during 1988 to 2003, Horry Electric required one because Santee Cooper required it. Horry Electric did not permit homeowners or contractors to deviate from the Good Cents New Home requirement of vapor barriers installed on the inside of the exterior walls.

ANALYSIS

In South Carolina, the class action rule is more expansive than its federal counterpart, Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and it is appropriately used to effectuate class wide resolution of claims. In Grazia v. South Carolina State Plastering, LLC, 390 S.C. 562, 703 S.E.2d 197, 198 (2010) the Supreme Court again held that class actions are favored in this State, and that we have a more expansive view of class actions than our federal counterparts.

CLASS DEFINITION

The class is defined as each and every Horry County homeowner of a new Good Cents Program Home that has a vapor barrier, on the inside of its exterior walls and was included by the Defendant in the new Good Cents Program Home upon its construction during years 1988 through 2003. All persons within the Class who do not elect to exclude themselves from ("opt out of") the Class are referred to as class members.

RULE 23 REQUIREMENTS ARE MET

The prerequisites of South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure Rule 23 are met in this action and are set forth below:

- (a) the class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable;
- (b) there are questions of law or fact common to the class;
- (c) the claims or defenses of the representative parties are typical of the claims or defenses of the class;
- (d) the representative parties will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class; and
- (e) . . . the amount in controversy exceeds one hundred dollars for each member of the class.

In ruling on a motion for class certification, the merits of the case are not to be considered by the trial court. Tilley v. Pacesetter Corp., 333 S.C. 33, 508 S.E.2d 16 (1988). Rather, the appropriate inquiry is whether or not the case is suitable for treatment as a class action. Plaintiffs bear the burden of proving all five requirements for class certification. Gardner v. South Carolina Dept. of Revenue, 353 S.C. 1, 21, 577 S.E.2d 190, 200 (S.C. 2003).

A. Numerosity

The class is so numerous that joinder of all members of the class as petitioners herein is impracticable. No definite standard exists as to what size class satisfies the requirements of Rule 23(a)(1). Haywood v. Barnes, 109 F.R.D. 568, 576 (E.D.N.C. 1986). However, where the class numbers at least 40, joinder is usually impracticable, and where the class numbers in the hundreds, joinder is clearly impracticable. See, e.g., Swanson v. American Consumer Industries, 415 F.2d 1326, 1333 (7th Cir. 1969) (reversing denial of class certification in a securities case involving 151 class members). Here, the 30 (b)(6) designee of Horry Electric clearly states that more than 1000 new homes with vapor barriers were accepted into the Good Cents Program by Horry Electric from 1988-2003. Horry Electric later stated that 1434 new homes were included in the Good Cents Program. As a result, the numerosity test has been met and, accordingly, the first prong of Rule 23, SCRCF is met.¹

B. Commonality

Common questions of law and fact exist as to all members of the class. The commonality requirement is liberally construed and given permissive application so that common questions have been found to exist in a wide range of contexts. Haywood v. Barnes, 109 F.R.D. 568, 577 (E.D.N.C. 1986). See also McGann v. Mungo, 287 S.C. 561, 568, 340 S.E.2d 154, 157-58 (Ct.App. 1986) holding:

It is important to note that the subsection does not demand all questions of law and fact to be common, only that there be common issues among the class. In fact, a single common issue will suffice if it is important enough. (Emphasis added).

In this case, common issues abound as to all homeowners: the alleged vapor barrier design defect and the improper requirement of a vapor barrier in the warm humid climate of ¹A class action may proceed upon estimates as to the size of the proposed class. In re Alcoholic Beverages Litigation, 95 F.R.D. 321 (E.D.N.Y. 1982); Leist v. Shawano Cty, 91 F.R.D. 64 (D. Wis. 1981); Amswiss Int'l Corp. V. Heublein, Inc., 69 F.R.D. 663 (N.D. Ga. 1975).

Horry County. Under well-established South Carolina law, a defendant may be liable in negligence and under implied warranty for furnishing plans and specifications, even where no contractual privity exists between the furnisher and the home buyer. Beachwalk Villas v. Martin, 305 S.C. 144, 406 S.E.2d 372 (S.C. 1991); APAC Carolina Inc. v. Town of Allendale, S.C., 41 F.3d 157 (D.S.C. 1994). Common issues of fact and law easily exceed the threshold of commonality required by SCRCP 23(a).

All Class Members live in Horry County and are subject to the same warm humid climate and suffer from the same alleged design defect. Horry Electric used the same uniform documents and inspections for each class member. The common design defect, uniform documents and warm humid climate all favor class certification. To summarize, the commonality requirement of Rule 23, SCRCP has been satisfied.

Defendant contends that individual issues exist for damages and causation issues. However, the action centers on the alleged design defect which all Class Members have in common. The existence of some possible individual issues does not defeat class certification. Moreover, our courts have refused to deny certification on that ground. McGann v. Mungo, 287 S.C. 561, 340 S.E.2d 154 (Ct. App. 1986). In McGann residents and owners of improved residential property in a subdivision near Columbia filed a class action concerning negligent design and construction of streets and drainage. The defendants argued each class member's damages prevented class certification. In rendering its decision, the South Carolina Court of Appeals stated, "The mere fact that the Plaintiffs may be entitled to different amounts of damages does not prevent them from banding together and asserting their rights jointly in one action." McGann, 340 S.E.2d at 158. McGann has been cited consistently by the South Carolina appellate courts and on many occasions by the South Carolina Supreme Court in ruling on class certification issues.

As the Supreme Court has previously recognized, this type of case is ideal for class certification because there is one main issue of law, i.e., was the Defendant's vapor barrier requirement a design defect in the warm humid climate of Horry County? Answering this common issue alone justifies class certification.

C. Typicality

The tenets of commonality and typicality most often are dealt with as one in terms of class certification. General Telephone Company of the Southwest v. Falcon, 457 U.S. 147, 158 (1982) (The commonality and typicality requirements of Rule 23(a) tend to merge.). The "typicality" requirement of Rule 23(a)(3), SCRPC requires that the claims or defenses of the class be typical. To satisfy the typicality requirement, the named representatives' claims must be similar enough to those of the class to assure that the class' interests are vigorously prosecuted. 7A Charles Alan Wright & Arthur R. Miller, Federal Practice & Procedure, 1764 (2d. Ed. 1986).

Here, the claims and defenses of the representative parties are typical of the claims and defenses of the class. Plaintiffs Vance and Montorio are each in the Good Cents Program per Horry Electric's billing and Good Cents records. The Defendant documented their homes and inspections. Their claims are typical of the Class claims. Mr. Ferrell, on the other hand, appears to not be in the Program and, therefore, he is not a suitable Class Representative.

D. Adequacy of Representation

South Carolina Rule of Civil Procedure 23(a)(4) requires that the named plaintiff fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class. That protection involves two factors: (1) counsel must be qualified, experienced and generally able to conduct the proposed litigation; and (2) plaintiffs' claims must be sufficiently interrelated and not antagonistic to the class claims. Lott v.

7 / MK

Westinghouse Savannah River Co., 200 F.R.D. 539 561 (D.S.C. 2000); Waller v. Seabrook Island Property Owners Ass'n, 300 S.C. 465, 468, 388 S.E.2d 799, 801 (S.C. 1990).

Here, there is no argument that Plaintiffs Vance and Montorio will not fairly and adequately protect the interest of the class or that their interests conflict with the economic interests of the Class. Vance and Montorio's claims are typical of the class. They and the other class members were subjected to the same allegedly defective vapor barrier requirement. In addition, they have been involved and have participated in the litigation. Vance and Montorio have opened their homes to inspection and investigation by not only the Plaintiffs' expert but also the Defendant's experts. Their interests do not conflict with those of the Class. See Waller v. Seabrook Island Property Owners Ass'n, 300 S.C. 465, 468, 388 S.E.2d 799, 801 (S.C. 1990).

Vance and Montorio have and will continue to fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Class and are appointed as Class Representatives. They have engaged counsel with over a decade of experience in class actions as class counsel and complex litigation. The Court has reviewed the Affidavit of Nate Fata and concluded that he and Mr. Brunty are qualified, experienced and generally able to conduct the proposed litigation. Accordingly, Mr. Fata and Mr. Brunty are hereby appointed as Class Counsel.

E. Amount in Controversy

The final prong of Rule 23, SCRCP requires that each class member have a claim in excess of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00). Here, according to the Affidavit of Larry Elkin, Plaintiffs' expert, each class member will suffer at least $100 of damages due to the removal of the vapor barrier. As a result, the final prong of Rule 23, SCRCP has been easily met.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

1. The Class is hereby certified on all causes of action; provided however, the defendant may assert the Statute of Repose as a defense to certain members of the class; (BHC)

2. Tammy Vance and David Montorio are found to be representative Plaintiffs who will adequately protect the interests of the Class;

3. Nate Fata and Mark Brunty are designated as Class Counsel; and

4. Defendants shall provide the names and addresses of all Class Members to Class Counsel within 30 days of the filing of this Order so that Class Counsel can send Class Notice with an opt out deadline to Class Members within 30 days of Class Counsels' receipt of the Class Member names and addresses.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.

Benjamin H. Culbertson
BENJAMIN H. CULBERTSON
PRESIDING JUDGE
FIFTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT

Georgetown, SC

The 21st day of August, 2012

It is further Ordered that the defendant's requests for further arguments and another hearing on this motion are DENIED.

Benjamin H. Culbertson

thoroughly considered the foregoing, the Court preliminarily approves the settlement, the proposed notice to the Class, and the plan for notifying the Class of the settlement.

II. THE ACTION

Tammy Vance and David Montorio ("Plaintiffs"), on behalf of themselves and on behalf of a class of similarly situated persons, sued Defendant Horry Electric Cooperative in 2011, alleging that Defendant's Good Cents Program's vapor barrier requirement for the interior side of the exterior walls was inappropriate and a design defect (the "Action"). The Action was filed in the Horry County, South Carolina Court of Common Pleas. Defendant denies that it acted improperly or wrongfully in any way and denies any and all allegations of wrongdoing, fault, liability, or damages of any kind to Plaintiffs or other customers. Moreover, Defendant has asserted numerous affirmative defenses. The parties engaged in substantial discovery and four mediation sessions.

III. THE CLASS

It is necessary to identify the "Class" and "Class Members" affected by the Action. Plaintiffs bring the Action on behalf of a group of similarly situated persons. The Class consists of all persons whose homes were enrolled in the Horry Electric Good Cents Program for New Homes (the "Program") and who were mailed a Notice of Class Action in January 2013, excluding those persons who previously opted out of the Class. All persons within the Class who do not elect to exclude themselves from ("opt out of") the Class are referred to as Class Members.

IV. APPROVAL OF SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF NOTICE

The Parties have submitted to the Court their Settlement Agreement, with exhibits, including the form of notice to be mailed to the Class and the plan for providing notice to the Class. The Court will not recite the terms of the Settlement Agreement or plan of notice, but refers to and incorporates them herein. Based upon the Settlement Agreement, the record, and the proceedings herein, it appears to the Court upon preliminary examination that the Settlement Agreement is fair, reasonable, just and adequate; that the notice and plan for giving notice constitute the best practicable means of notifying the Class of the settlement; that absent Class Members' interests have been adequately represented; that the proceedings to date and as contemplated by the Settlement Agreement have afforded and will afford the absent Class Members all of the requisite due process protections; and that a final hearing should be held, after notice has been given to the Class, to determine whether the Settlement Agreement is fair, reasonable, and just, and whether final judgment should be entered in this Action based upon the Settlement Agreement.

The Court further finds that the notice and proceedings contemplated by the Settlement Agreement are fair and reasonable. The notice fairly describes the Action, the terms and conditions of the Settlement Agreement generally, and the absent Class Members' rights and how they are to be exercised.

It is hereby ORDERED that:

1. The Class as defined herein is hereby CERTIFIED for the purposes of settlement conditionally and without prejudice to Class Representatives, Defendant, or Class Members in the event the settlement is not finally approved.
2. The Settlement Agreement and the settlement contained therein are preliminarily APPROVED as fair, reasonable, just, and adequate.
3. The Settlement Agreement is ADOPTED by the Court and made a part of this Order as if fully set out herein.

3 /mhc

4. The proposed plan of providing notice contained in the Settlement Agreement is APPROVED and DEEMED to be adequate to protect the due process rights of Class Members. Further, the form of the notice to be mailed to the Class (Exhibit C to the Settlement Agreement) is hereby APPROVED, and it is hereby ORDERED that, no later than March 17, 2014, Defendant shall cause notification of the settlement to be mailed to Class Members in substantially the same form as Exhibit C to the Settlement Agreement.
5. A hearing (the "Final Hearing") is scheduled for May 30, 2014, at 9:30 A.M., at the Horry County Courthouse, 1301 Second Avenue, Conway, South Carolina, to determine finally whether the proposed settlement of this Action, as set forth in the Settlement Agreement, is fair, reasonable, just, and adequate and should be finally approved. No less than five business days prior to the date of the Final Hearing, the Parties may file additional briefs and papers in support of the proposed settlement, and Class Counsel shall file an application for an award of fees and expenses. After the Final Hearing, the Court may enter a final order in accordance with the Settlement Agreement.
6. Any person within the Class may exclude himself or herself from the Class by requesting to be excluded. Any person within the Class who wishes to exclude himself or herself from the Class must fill out, sign, and date the Opt-Out Form included in the form of notice to be mailed to the Class (Exhibit C to the Settlement Agreement), and mail it to Class Counsel and Defendant's Counsel identified in the notice and on the Opt-Out Form postmarked on or before May 1, 2014 (the "Opt-Out Deadline"). Class Members who opt out of the Class on or before the Opt-Out Deadline shall be ineligible for any settlement benefits and shall be entitled to no payment from the settlement proceeds.

7. Any Class Member may object to the proposed settlement or to Class Counsel's application for an award of fees and expenses. Any objection must be either mailed or personally delivered to the Clerk of Court for Horry County, 1301 Second Avenue, Conway, South Carolina, 29526, on or before May 15, 2014, and must specifically refer to the Horry Electric Cooperative Good Cents Program Class Action Settlement pending before the Honorable Benjamin H. Culbertson, Presiding Judge for the Fifteenth Judicial Circuit, Civil Action No. 2011-CP-26-1266. Copies of any written objections must also be served on Class Counsel and Defendant's Counsel identified in the notice. An objector to the settlement must set forth his or her full name and current address and must state in writing all specific objections and the reasons in support thereof, and include any and all supporting papers, including proof of ownership of a home address designated for the Good Cents Program and, if applicable, the objector's statement of intent to appear at the final fairness hearing. If the objector intends to appear through counsel, the objector's counsel shall append to the statement of intent to appear a list of all prior class action settlement objections previously filed by such counsel in state and federal courts. Any Class Member who files an objection must also appear at the final hearing in person or through counsel to show why the proposed settlement should not be approved as fair, reasonable, just, and adequate. These requirements shall be described in the notice.
8. Any person who fails to object in the manner prescribed herein and in the notice without good cause shown or who fails to appear at the hearing shall be deemed to have waived any such objection with respect to the settlement, including, without limitation, any objection to the proposed settlement or any provision of the Settlement Agreement, by appeal, collateral attack, or otherwise.

9. Pending final determination of whether the Settlement Agreement should be approved, the Class Representatives and Class Members are hereby enjoined and prohibited from prosecuting any pending action or filing any new action, either directly, individually, representatively, or in any capacity, asserting any claims against any of the other Parties arising out of or relating to the subject matter of this Action in any state or federal court or administrative proceeding.
10. All discovery and other pretrial proceedings in this Action are stayed and suspended, except such actions as may be necessary to implement the Settlement Agreement and this Order.
11. If the proposed settlement as provided in the Settlement Agreement is not given final approval by the Court, or for any reason the Parties fail to obtain a Final Approval Order as contemplated in the Settlement Agreement, or the Settlement Agreement is terminated pursuant to the terms of the Settlement Agreement or Orders of this Court, the Settlement Agreement and this Preliminary Approval Order shall become null and void and shall be of no further force and effect. In such event, the Settlement Agreement, any negotiations relating thereto, the Preliminary Approval Order, and any other matter relating to the settlement shall not be used or referred to for any purposes whatsoever in this or any other action, case, proceeding, or controversy.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.

- c. There were no objections to the Agreement;
- d. The Settlement is the result of arm's length negotiations, taken in good faith, between counsel for Plaintiffs and Defendant; and
- e. The terms of the Agreement is in all respects fair, reasonable and adequate -- in light of the risks of the litigation -- and in the best interests of the class.

ACCORDINGLY, the Agreement is hereby fully and finally APPROVED and it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that:

1. The Court grants final approval to the Agreement as fair, reasonable and adequate.
2. Notice to the Class including, but not limited to, the forms of notice and methods of identifying and notifying members of the Class, has been given in an adequate and sufficient manner, constituting the best notice practicable, satisfying and complying in all respects with S.C.R.C.P. 23 and due process.
3. The parties are directed to implement and consummate the Agreement according to its terms and conditions.
4. The persons identified on Exhibit A of this Order of Final Judgment have timely and validly requested exclusion from the Class, and are excluded from the Class. Such persons are not included in, or bound by, this Order of Final Judgment, nor are they entitled to any recovery provided for by the Agreement.
5. Neither the Agreement, nor any of its terms or provisions, nor any of the negotiations or proceedings in connection therewith, shall be construed as an admission or concession by Defendant of the truth of any of the allegations in the litigation, or of any liability, fault or wrongdoing of any kind.

6. Class representatives David Montorio and Tammy Vance will each receive an award of $5000 each as compensation for their time and effort in this litigation.

7. An award of attorneys' fees and reimbursement of costs is warranted in this case under the South Carolina common law, which holds that attorneys' fees may be awarded from a common fund created by counsel. Petition of Crum Johnson v. Williams, 196 S.C. 528, 531, 14 S.E.2d 21, 23 (1941) ("[A] court exercising equitable jurisdiction may make an allowance of a reasonable fee out of the common fund or property created or preserved, for an attorney representing a party who, at his own expense, has maintained a suit for the recovery, preservation, protection, or increase of a common fund or common property, or has created or brought into the Court a fund in which others are entitled to share."); First Union Nat'l Bank of S.C. v. Soden, 333 S.C. 554, 511 S.E.2d 372 (Ct. App. 1998); Laymen v. State, 376 S.C. 434, 452, 658 S.E.2d 320, 329 (2008). "The justification for awarding attorneys' fees in this manner is based on the principle that 'one who preserves or protects a common fund works for others as well as for himself, and the others so benefited should bear their just share of the expenses.'" Laymen, 376 S.C. at 452, 658 S.E.2d at 329 (2008) (quoting Petition of Crum Johnson v. Williams, 196 S.C. 528, 531, 14 S.E.2d 21, 23 (1941)).

8. Before attorneys' fees can be charged to a fund in which others are entitled to share, the following elements much be met: (1) the attorney must preserve or protect a common fund; (2) the attorney's services much have aided in creating, preserving, or protecting the fund, and the services must prove fruitful to the general class; and (3) there must be a "principle of representation or agency as in a class suit, that is, before one may be allowed compensation out of the common fund belonging to others for services rendered on behalf of the common interest there must be a contract of employment, either expressly made or superinduced by the law upon the facts.” First Union Nat’l Bank, 333 S.C. at 573-74, 511 S.E.2d at 382 (emphasis added) (citations omitted).

9. In this case, Class Counsel has met each of the elements set forth by the Court of Appeals in First Union Nat’l Bank. First, Class Counsel has created a common fund represented by the monies paid by the Defendant in accordance with the terms of the Agreement. Second, Class Counsel’s services clearly aided in creating and preserving that fund, and their services have proved fruitful to the general class. Each qualifying Class member will derive a benefit from the settlement achieved by Class Counsel. Third, this is a class suit and the Named Plaintiffs and Class Counsel, by virtue of Rule 23 and by order of this Court, have been appointed representatives of the class. Moreover, the contingency fee agreement between the named Plaintiff and Class Counsel provides for the payment of an attorneys’ fee of one-third of any recovery in this case. Accordingly, based upon the common law of this state, Class Counsel is entitled to a reasonable award of attorneys’ fees. In further support of an award of attorneys’ fees and litigation expenses from the common fund, the Court finds that the prosecution of this matter was an immense and highly risky undertaking for Class Counsel given the complexity of the issues presented and the defense mounted by Defendant, as the discussions below clearly support.

10. Analysis of Pertinent Factors. In Jackson v. Speed, 326 S.C. 289, 308, 486, S.E.2d 750, 760 (1997), the South Carolina Supreme Court set forth factors for courts in South Carolina to consider when deciding whether to award attorneys’ fees. While these factors were not issued in the context of a class action suit, this Court chooses to analyze those factors in this case. In doing so the Court has determined that the amount of attorneys’ fees and costs requested is more than reasonable.

i. The nature, extent, and difficulty of the case. The case involved numerous complex factual and legal issues. The breadth and scope of fact and expert discovery, coupled with the complex legal issues, demonstrates that the requested fee is justified by the nature, extent, and difficulty of the case.

ii. The time necessarily devoted to the case. Class Counsel expended significant time on the litigation and settlement of this case over a period of three years and will continue to expend significant time while the settlement is implemented. The case could only be settled on the eve of trial.

iii. Professional standing of counsel. Class Counsel are experienced in civil litigation and have particular expertise in class actions. Further, Class Counsel enjoy excellent reputations in the legal community. Finally, Class Counsel have consistently demonstrated their competence, preparedness, tenacity, skill, and perseverance to the Court over the course of this litigation.

iv. Contingency of compensation. As previously noted, the contingency fee agreements between the named Plaintiffs and Class Counsel provide for a contingency fee of one-third of the recovery, if any. The Court is well aware of the risk inherent in contingency fee litigation, where neither recovery for the plaintiff nor compensation for the attorneys who undertake the risk is guaranteed. Additionally, Class Counsel advanced expenses with no assurance of reimbursement.

v. Beneficial results obtained. Class Counsel have secured a real, valuable benefit for the Class totaling $6 million (including the award of attorneys' fees and costs), and all Class members are entitled to receive a cash payment.

vi. Customary legal fees for similar services. The attorneys' fee request is consistent with the fees customarily awarded in similar cases. "When awarding attorneys' fees to be paid from a common fund, courts often use the common fund itself as a measure of the litigation's 'success.'" Laymen, 376 S.C. at 453, 658 S.E.2d at 330 (2008). Consequently, courts customarily base the award of attorneys' fees on a percentage of the common fund created. Id. The South Carolina Supreme Court has acknowledged that this percentage-of-the-recovery approach "may be appropriate under circumstances in which a court is given jurisdiction over a common fund from which it must allocate attorneys' fees among a benefited group of litigants." Id. at 453-54, 658 S.E.2d at 330; see also Ex parte Condon, 354 S.C. 634, 636-37, 583 S.E.2d 430, 431 (2003) (approving a circuit court's award of attorneys' fees based on a percentage-of-the-recovery approach where the parties' agreement stipulating that the circuit court would calculate and award attorneys' fees clearly contemplated an award based on a percentage of the common fund recovered).

11. The attorneys' fees requested here are only 16% of the total common fund. This percentage is well within the range of reasonableness for attorneys' fees in class actions. See Fairey v. Exxon Corp., No. 94-CP-38-118, Order filed October 9, 2003 (First Judicial Circuit) (J. Goodstein) (approving attorneys' fees and costs representing 40% of recovery); Alba Conte & Herbert Newberg, Newberg on Class Actions § 14:6 (4th ed. 2002) ("Empirical studies show that . . . fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery."). It is also well below what federal district courts within the Fourth Circuit have previously awarded in the percentage of the fund context. See, e.g., In re: The Mills Corp. Sec. Litig., 265 F.R.D. 246, 264 (E.D.Va. 2009) (chart outlining fee awards).

12. The Agreement calls for an award of attorneys' fees and costs in the total amount of Nine Hundred Ninety Thousand and no/100 ($990,000.00) dollars. Class Counsel already incurred over $40,000 in out-of-pocket expenses. Defendant set forth in the Agreement, and has advised the Court, that it has no opposition to an award in that amount, and agrees to the payment of such amount.

13. After consideration of the factors noted above, Class Counsel are awarded attorneys' fees and reimbursement of reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the Action in the total amount of $990,000.00, which sum the Court finds to be fair and reasonable, and which shall be paid from the common fund as set forth in the Agreement.

14. Final approval operates as a release to Defendant and its present or former officers, directors, employees, agents, heirs, executors, administrators, successors, reorganized successors, assigns, subsidiaries, affiliates, parents, divisions, and predecessors, that they shall forever be released and discharged from any and all claims by the Class members and their assigns against Defendant which arise out of or are in any way related to vapor barriers installed under the Good Cents Program. This release and discharge will discharge the common liability of any joint tortfeasors and will be binding on any subsequent purchasers of the subject homes.

15. The Action is hereby dismissed with prejudice as to the Defendant and against Plaintiffs and all other members of the Class on the merits and, except as provided in the Agreement, without costs.

16. Without affecting the finality of this Order and Final Judgment in any way, this Court reserves jurisdiction over all matters relating to the administration and consummation of the Agreement.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

HORRY COUNTY
2015 FEB -9 AM 9:13
JELANE ROBERTSON
CLERK OF COURT

This is a class action which has been settled. The settlement was approved by an Order dated May 30, 2014. This Court, in its Order, retained jurisdiction "over all matters relating to the administration and consummation of the Agreement".

On or about August 15, 2014, Horry Electric Cooperative ("HEC") filed a motion for an order confirming that the persons identified as having a manufactured home on the list attached as Exhibit A to the Affidavit of Eddy Blackburn (some 30+ persons) do not meet the definition to qualify as a class member and are not entitled to be paid any amount whatsoever in the class action settlement in the above-referenced action. HEC submitted the affidavits and supplemental affidavits of Eddy Blackburn and Kelley Wilson in support of its motion. On or about September 24, 2014, the class representatives filed a Motion to Enforce Final Order and Payments to Class Members. The plaintiffs submitted the affidavits of David Montorio, Dayna Lewis, Roberta Lipman, Malcolm K. Dill, James T. Phillips, Suzy Bussel, and Giorgina M. Welsh. The plaintiffs, in their motion, moved to compel payment to the persons ^{previously approved as class members} ~~with manufactured homes~~ asserting that they should be paid (JHC) because they were on the list that HEC provided and approved. The plaintiffs sought additional relief.

The action came before the undersigned on November 13, 2014 for a hearing on these motions. For the reasons set forth below, I find that HEC's motion should be denied and the plaintiffs' motion should be granted as set forth herein.

Upon considering the arguments of counsel, the affidavits and the record in this case, I find the following facts and conclusions of law:

1. the list of class members was generated primarily by HEC's identification of people who participated in the "Good Cents Program" during the construction of their homes in the time period set by the court;
2. the class action settlement approved by the court allows those identified as class members to participate in the settlement;
3. subsequent to the court's approval of the class action settlement, HEC claims that it erroneously identified certain individuals as class members and that those individuals are not entitled to recovery under the settlement because they do not meet the definition of class members, said allegations being disputed by the plaintiffs;
4. HEC proposes that the court hold an evidentiary hearing for each individual whose continued identification as a class member is in dispute, with the individual bearing the burden of proving that he/she should be included as a class member; and
5. the relief sought by HEC defeats the intended purpose of class certification in class actions.

As a result of the above findings, the defendant's motion is denied and the plaintiffs' motion is granted. HEC shall pay the claims of those persons identified as class members under the Settlement Agreement dated February 28, 2014 and previously approved by the Court, according to the terms of said Settlement Agreement.

-2- / mtc

NOW, THEREFORE, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, it is hereby

ORDERED that the defendant's Motion to Exclude is DENIED; it is further

ORDERED that the plaintiffs' Motion to Enforce Final Order and Payment to Class Members is GRANTED; it is further

ORDERED that the defendant shall pay all claimants identified as class members under the Settlement Agreement dated February 28, 2014, according to the terms of said Settlement Agreement previously approved by the Court.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.

COMPLAINT

JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
FIFTEENTH

The Plaintiffs, individually, and as class representatives, complaining of the Defendants herein, would respectfully show unto this Honorable Court as follows:

PARTIES AND JURISDICTION

1. Plaintiff Ronnie Ferrell, individually and as class representative, is a citizen and resident of Horry County, South Carolina.
2. Plaintiff Tammy Vance, individually and as class representative, is a citizen and resident of Horry County, South Carolina.
3. Plaintiff David Montorio, individually and as class representative, is a citizen and resident of Horry County, South Carolina.
4. On information and belief, Defendant Horry Electric Cooperative is a company organized and existing under the laws of the State of South Carolina and does business through its agents and servants in Horry County, South Carolina.
5. This is a matter within the jurisdiction of this Court.

FACTUAL SUMMARY

6. Plaintiffs are the owners of residences in Horry County and reside in Horry County, South Carolina. The Defendant is the electrical service provider for each Plaintiff.

7. Each residence owned by the Plaintiffs and Plaintiff Class was constructed between 1988 and 2003 according to standards and specifications set forth and required by Defendant through the Defendant's "New Good Cents Program" (hereinafter the "Program"). All Program Homes were homes that were newly constructed as opposed to retrofits of existing structures.

8. The Defendant sets forth the design specifications requirements for a home to qualify for the Program.

9. The Defendant adopted and references ASHRAE (American Society of Heating Refrigeration and Air Conditioning Engineers) standards in its Program specifications.

10. The Defendant set forth the design and design standards for these Horry County residences.

11. The homes would not be accepted into the Program unless Defendant completed a final inspection of the home.

12. On information and belief, in 1988 Defendant adopted the Program from another electrical service provider without performing any of its own due diligence or research regarding the specifications and requirements that it required for new homes. On information and belief, Defendant never performed any research regarding the Program specifications and requirements.

13. The Defendant offered the Program in an effort to keep the cost of power low for both it and its members.

14. Defendant provided design specifications and requirements for the Program. On a systematic basis, the Defendant required the design specifications be followed for the home to be accepted into the Program.

15. The documentation and process used by Defendant for Good Cents homes were nearly identical for each home in the Program.

16. The specification and requirements had to be implemented as designed and set out by Defendant for acceptance of the home by Defendant into the Program.

17. Defendant required a vapor barrier to be installed on the inside of the exterior walls of all residences. The Defendant set forth specifications to meet the infiltration barrier requirements. The Defendant specified two methods of achieving superior infiltration and vapor protection:

(a) Method One

- (i) 4 or 6 mil polyethylene vapor barrier installed on the inside surface of the exterior walls and ceilings.
- (ii) properly installed friction fit batts.
- (iii) properly installed house wrap (such as Tyvek) as an air barrier.

(b) Method Two

- (i) properly installed Kraft or foil-faced insulation batts.
- (ii) taped and painted gypsum board installed on the inside of the exterior wall.
- (iii) properly installed house wrap (such as Tyvek) as an air barrier.

18. Defendant further required that Defendant inspect the installation of a vapor barrier during construction so that Defendant could verify that it was installed.

19. Each Plaintiff's Residence has a vapor barrier in accordance with Defendant's design specifications, requirements and standards.

20. Each Program residence was inspected by Defendant.

21. Each Program residence was accepted into the Program by the Defendant.

22. On information and belief, Defendant inspected each of the Plaintiffs' and Plaintiff Class' homes during construction to verify that the vapor barrier was installed on the inside of the exterior walls.

23. The existence of a vapor barrier on the inside of the exterior walls creates a condition where condensation forms on the outer surface of the vapor barrier. The presence of condensation causes, among other things, mold growth on the surface of the vapor barrier and inside the Plaintiffs' and Plaintiff Class' homes.

24. In 2003 Defendant finally stopped requiring the installation of vapor barriers on the heated side of studs in Horry County.

25. By virtue of writings and articles from ASHRAE, Defendant knew or should have known about the likelihood of condensation problems caused by the required vapor barrier as early as 1985 and no later than 1987. In 1986, an energy design update article stated, "In warm climates interior vapor barriers may in fact create moisture condensation problems." Yet Defendant ignored its design defect and continued to specify and require its flawed designs to be used in the Program Homes.

26. There are more than 1,000 Program Homes in Horry County which were constructed in accordance with the design flaw, vapor barriers on the heated side of the studs, in Horry County, in accordance with the Defendant's design specifications.

27. The Class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impractical. There are questions of law or fact common to the Class, including, but not limited to, the design defects inherent in the Program, when Horry Electric knew of such design defects, and whether Horry Electric was reckless in disregarding industry knowledge concerning its design defects.

28. Claims of the representative parties are typical of the claims of the Class. The representative Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interest of the Class and have engaged qualified counsel.

29. The amount in controversy for each Class Member exceeds One Hundred Dollars ($100.00). The cost of removal of the inappropriate materials is more than $100.00 ($100.00) per home.

30. The design defect was well known or should have been obviously known to the Defendant years in advance of the construction of the Plaintiff and Plaintiff Class homes.

31. The Defendant traded off the extremely high likelihood of long term mold problems with the homes in exchange for the short term benefit of reducing peak demand so that Defendant would not have to build new power plants.

32. The Defendant has violated the covenant of good faith and fair dealing and violated its agreement to provide a suitable design for living quarters.

33. The specified vapor barrier is not suitable for habitable dwellings in the coastal county of Horry.

34. The Class is defined as each and every Horry County homeowner of a Program Home that has a vapor barrier, on the inside of its exterior walls and was included by the Defendant in the Program upon its construction during years 1988 through 2003.

FOR A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
(Design Defect – Breach of Warranty)

35. Not inconsistent herewith, Plaintiffs and Plaintiff Class reallege each and every allegation above as if repeated verbatim herein.

36. Upon information and belief, Defendant made design specifications and requirements and express warranties in connection with its design and implementation of the Program to the effect that the design of the vapor barrier specifications would be free of defects.

37. Defendant set forth the design standards which were incorporated into the homes. Defendant impliedly warranted that the Program and its systems, recommendations, standards and requirements and details would be free from deficiencies.

38. Defendant used design specifications and requirements which it knew would cause mold in coastal southeastern counties including Horry County.

39. Defendant breached its express and implied warranties in the following particulars:

- (a) in failing to properly design and implement the Program into the Residences by failing to employ design specifications conforming to the customary and ordinary design standards of the construction industry;
- (b) in specifying and requiring inappropriate design or materials for a coastal county;
- (c) in specifying and requiring inappropriate materials in violation of industry standards;
- (d) in providing deficient and/or defective requirements, specifications and design, which was not in conformity with industry standards; and/or

(e) in failing to adequately research, design, and specify an air infiltration reduction system that would prevent moisture from occurring on the inside of the Residences.

40. As a direct and proximate result and consequence of Defendant's breach of its express and implied warranties, Plaintiffs have suffered injuries and damages in the amount equal to the extraordinary repair, maintenance and reconstruction costs required and to be required over the expected life of the structure, and will suffer from loss of use of the Residence.

41. The Plaintiff and Plaintiff Class have suffered damages due to the breach and are entitled to the same plus costs.

FOR A SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
(Negligence/Gross Negligence)

42. Not inconsistent herewith, Plaintiffs and Plaintiff Class reallege each and every allegation above as if repeated verbatim herein.

43. Defendant owed a duty to Plaintiffs to exercise that degree of skill necessary to design, specify, and set standards in a manner that would not cause a condition for moisture and condensation to occur within the residence and to insure that the Defendant's designs were designed in conformity with the customary and ordinary standards of the building and construction industry, including standards set forth by ASHRAE.

44. The defects and deficiencies that exist at the Residence are the direct and proximate result of the negligence and/or gross negligence of Defendant in one or more of the following particulars:

- (a) in requiring an improper standard, or in failing to set forth the appropriate design for the residence, by failing to employ practices and design methods of construction conforming with accepted industry standards; and/or requiring materials that Defendant knew or should have known was improper and which would cause damage to the Residences; and/or requiring the presence of a vapor barrier, which was in violation of the industry standards and/or accepted wise building methods;
- (b) in failing to research and determine the effect of the specifications and requirements of the Program, which it knew would affect thousands of homeowners;
- (c) in accepting and requiring inappropriate materials, which, when installed, would cause moisture and mold within the Plaintiffs' Residences;
- (d) in failing to review ASHRAE standards on the use of vapor barriers in coastal counties in the southeast.

45. As a direct and proximate result and consequence of the Program's design defects, the owners of the Residences have suffered damages. The Program Homes have suffered actual damage caused by moisture being trapped in the walls that resulted from the negligent design of the Defendant and specifications and requirements of Defendant's Program.

46. As a direct and proximate result and consequence of the negligence and/or gross negligence of Defendant, Plaintiffs have suffered injuries and damages in the amount equal to the extraordinary repair, maintenance and reconstruction costs required and to be required over the expected life of the structure and such other damages as may be appropriate. Plaintiffs and the Class are also entitled to punitive damages.

FOR A THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(Breach of Contract/Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing)

47. Not inconsistent herewith, Plaintiffs and Plaintiff Class reallege each and every allegation above as if repeated verbatim herein.

48. The Program Homes of the Plaintiffs and the Plaintiff Class were all constructed after the Defendant made an offer of the Good Cents Program.

49. To accept the offer, the Program Homes had to be constructed in accordance with the Defendant's design specifications.

50. The construction of the home in accordance with the Defendant's specifications and the subsequent approval of the construction and acceptance into the Good Cents Program by Defendant constitutes an agreement.

51. The agreement or the Program contract had the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing within it.

52. The Defendant has violated the covenant of good faith and fair dealing by not disclosing obvious design defects and design flaws with respect to its vapor barrier specifications and standard/recommendation it required.

53. The design defect was well known or should have been obviously known to the Defendant years in advance of the construction of the Plaintiffs and Plaintiff Class homes.

54. The Defendant traded off the extremely high likelihood of long term mold problems with the homes in exchange for the short term benefit of reducing peak demand so that Defendant would not have to build new power plants.

55. The Defendant has violated the covenant of good faith and fair dealing and violated its agreement to provide a suitable design for living quarters.

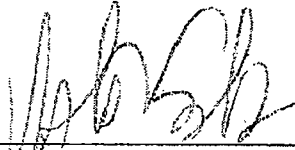

56. The plastic vapor barrier is not suitable for habitable dwellings in the coastal county of Horry.

57. As a result Plaintiffs and Plaintiff Class have suffered damages.

58. Plaintiffs and Plaintiff Class are informed and believe they are entitled to damages, punitive damages plus costs.

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiffs and Plaintiff Class pray for the following relief:

- a. Actual damages;
- b. Punitive damages; and
- c. Any costs of this action.

TO: YOU ARE A PERSON WHO OWNS A HOME WHICH WAS ENROLLED IN THE HORRY ELECTRIC GOOD CENTS NEW HOME PROGRAM
DURING THE PERIOD FEBRUARY 6, 1998 TO 2003

TAKE NOTE: Pursuant to Plaintiffs' Motion in the Court of Common Pleas, Horry County, South Carolina, a hearing was held on July 25, 2012 before the Honorable Benjamin H. Culbertson at the Horry County Government and Justice Building, Conway, South Carolina. The Court has certified a Class of homeowners of a Good Cents Program New Home that has a vapor barrier on the inside of its exterior walls and that was included by Horry Electric in its Good Cents New Home Program upon the home's completion during February 6, 1998 through 2003. You are receiving this Notice because you have been identified as a class member.

SUMMARY OF THE LAWSUIT

This matter is before the Court because the Class Representatives, who are Tammy Vance and David Montorio, are current owners of Good Cents homes which were enrolled in the Horry Electric Good Cents New Home Program during the period February 6, 1998 to 2003. They have alleged that Horry Electric's Good Cents New Home specifications and requirements that there be a vapor barrier installed on the interior side of the exterior walls was inappropriate and a design defect. The Plaintiffs have asserted claims for breach of warranty, gross negligence, breach of contract and the covenant of good faith and fair dealing and contend that the vapor barrier design specification and requirement is a design defect in the coastal county of Horry. The Defendant has denied the allegations and have asserted several defenses including, but not limited to, the statute of limitations, a previous class action settlement as a complete bar to any recovery, and the statute of repose.

The Circuit Court has appointed Nate Fata, P.A. as Class Counsel and has determined that this case should proceed as a class action. However, the Court has not made a determination on the merits of Plaintiffs' claim. You will automatically be included in this case unless you opt out by written letter within thirty (30) days. Your right to opt out is described below. If you have any questions, you may contact Class Counsel Nate Fata at (843) 238-2676 and by mail at Nate Fata, P.A., P.O. Box 16620, Surfside Beach, SC 29587.

RIGHT TO OPT OUT

If you do not wish to be a member of the Class, you have the right to choose to be excluded or opt out from the lawsuit and from the Class of persons entitled to participate in this lawsuit. P R O C E E D I N G S

THE COURT: All right. This is Case Number 2011-CP-26-1266, Ronnie Ferrell and others versus Horry Electric Cooperative.

The matter's before the Court on, I guess, a -- companion motions, the motion by the defense to exclude certain members of the class in this class action, and then a plaintiff's motion to enforce the final order for payments to all class members.

Present at the call of the case, Attorney Nate Fata, representing the plaintiff. Attorney Pope D. Johnson, III representing the defendant.

I'm assuming we can argue these at both times -- at the same time?

MR. FATA: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Is that correct?

Okay. Anyone else making an appearance?

MR. WARD: Good morning, Your Honor. Jay Ward for the plaintiffs.

THE COURT: All right.

All right. I guess, Mr. Johnson, you filed your motion first. So I will -- I guess we'll allow him to argue his motion.

MR. JOHNSON: Thank you, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: All right.

2 MR. JOHNSON: Horry Electric is here trying to get 3 guidance as to how to conclude for settlement and because of 4 issues that arose in the claims payment process.

5 THE COURT: All right.

6 MR. JOHNSON: The two issues we think you have to look
7 at and decide is persons who don't meet the definition of 8 class membership entitled to be paid, and then, secondly,
9 the persons who filed claims late entitled to be paid.

10 You may remember, you certified the class of Ms.
11 Dickson. Your class definition, in the original order,
12 class is defined as each and every Horry home -- Horry
13 County homeowner of the Good Sense Program home that has a 14 vapor barrier inside of the -- its interior walls and was 15 included in the Good Sense Home Program from the period of 16 '98 -- '88 to 2003. Subsequent issue, not only did -- you 17 cut the class down because of the statute imposed 1998 to 18 2003.

19 The parties then tried to generate a class membership
20 list and because of the changes in the computer programs at 21 Horry Electric, et cetera, we, we finally generated a list.
22 Mr. Fata participated in the process and we viewed there may 23 be errors in the list, but it was the best we could do at 24 the time.

25 Now, since that time you approved a settlement that

1 provided for $2,000 per class member from one fund, and then
2 what they could claim under another fund, remediation fund,
3 12,500. Very few remediation funds claims were made.
4 Approximately, approximately 330 $2,000 claims were, were 5 made. When they came in, the co-op looked at its records
6 and found that there were about 30 or 40 that did not meet
7 the definition of class membership. They fall into two 8 categories, those who have manufactured homes, about 31 of 9 them, and then about 12 who, who never qualified for a Good
10 $ense rate and never gotten a Good $ense rate.

11 The other things occurred since the settlement---

12 THE COURT: Excuse me for interrupting.

13 So that second one that you just mentioned, they never 14 participated in the Good $ense program?

15 MR. JOHNSON: In the Good $ense program.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 All right. Go ahead.

18 MR. JOHNSON: Then we've since then had, had claimants
19 who filed claims that weren't timely filed by the deadline, 20 and so we fall in -- we need guidance from the Court as to 21 what to do with these claimants.

22 The -- your order -- the settlement agreement provided 23 that problems or issues involving the administration of the 24 settlement over it being brought before you pursuant to the 25 motion was -- the order you -- your order you issued, your

1 final order, you retained jurisdiction to deal with issues
2 of claims administration.

3 We have gone to some length trying to identify the 4 persons who are -- have manufactured homes and, in fact,
5 have. We identified them initially on computer records of 6 Horry Electric. We sent them a letter asking -- telling
7 them that we were trying to find out if they had a -- 8 confirmed that they had a manufactured home, and then we had 9 the co-op go and take photographs of the homes in an effort
10 to, to do -- to identify that.

11 We've communicated with Mr. Fata, unable to work out an 12 agreement as to how to handle these, and we asked the Court
13 to determine it. I would tell Your Honor that we, since 14 they don't meet the class definition of class membership, we 15 don't think Mr. Fata represents them, but he'll tell you he 16 feels different.

17 THE COURT: Well, let me ask you this.

18 All right. Let's start first with the late filings.

19 MR. JOHNSON: Yes, sir.

20 THE COURT: When did they have to file a claim?

21 MR. JOHNSON: They had --.

22 MR. FATA: Your Honor, if I may speak?

23 THE COURT: Right.

24 MR. FATA: The accelerated agreement required and the 25 final order required that the claims for the automatic

1 payment fund be postmarked no later than June 16th, 2014.

2 THE COURT: June 16th, 2014?

3 MR. FATA: Yes, sir.

4 THE COURT: So, so, Mr. Johnson, are you talking about
5 people whose postmark was after June 16th, 2014?

6 MR. JOHNSON: Yes, sir.

7 THE COURT: Okay. What's your position on that?

8 If the order said you got to postmark your claim by 9 June 16th, 2014, and they didn't do it --?

10 MR. FATA: Your Honor, we would agree that, at that 11 point, it's not timely and if there's some extenuating
12 circumstances that would brought, be brought forth for a 13 particular claimant, we would address that, but the deadline
14 was June 16th, 2014. That was the postmark deadline.

15 THE COURT: All right. Now, what about the ones that 16 applied for the Good $ense program, but they were declined
17 and never participated in the Good $ense program?

18 MR. FATA: And, Your Honor, I would like to speak to 19 that and co-counsel may also speak, but, Your Honor, the 20 class list that we operated from from 2013, after the 21 Court's order the class be defined, was developed by Horry
22 Electric. I went and took a 30(b)(6) deposition where Ian
23 Fort, the chief technology guy at Horry Electric, 24 Mr. Johnson was there, Heath Bryant, the deponent, the 25 30(b)(6) representative had four lists that he said he could

1 marry or merge together to develop a list, a comprehensive
2 list, from all those stick built, Good $ense participating
3 homes, and me, and I can hand up the deposition transcript,
4 we went through and that was the best he could do and we 5 said fine.

6 So he came up with this -- it's called Exhibit 4, I'll 7 hand up this transcript, on Page 11.

8 THE COURT: Well, and I understand that, but as I
9 understand it from Mr. Johnson, you got people that did not 10 participate in the program. But yeah, maybe -- that Horry
11 Electric made, made an error, but this class is to grant
12 relief to people who participated in the program and built
13 their home according to this program, and because they did 14 that, they're subject to mold, mildew, whatever the case may 15 be, but that these people over here, they don't have the 16 damages. They're not in the program.

17 MR. FATA: I understand that and so the settlement
18 agreement listed all the class members.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 MR. FATA: And we agreed that that was the class list,
21 and the settlement agreement says we can't change the class
22 unless, or for any terms of the agreement, unless both 23 parties agree. So, for the last two years, everyone on that 24 list that Horry Electric generated has been getting notices
25 you're in the class, you're in the class. So they're our

1 clients.

2 Horry Electric provided that to us. We verified it.

3 THE COURT: Let me ask you this, Mr. Johnson.

4 MR. FATA: So I can -- you know, I can't change it now.

5 THE COURT: I mean the fact of the matter is if we 6 start changing it for the defense, we're gonna have to 7 change it for the plaintiff, and if they find people that's 8 not on that list that were inadvertently excluded, who 9 should have been included, can they come back and add them
10 now?

11 I mean you -- what's good for the goose is good for the 12 gander here.

13 So if you -- you've got a list and you're saying it was 14 generated by Horry Electric, and y'all are saying this is 15 the class, now you're saying we made a mistake, these people
16 shouldn't be on there, I think you're opening the door for 17 the plaintiff to come back and say yeah, you made a mistake
18 cause these people should of been on there.

19 MR. JOHNSON: All right. Your Honor, I'm not aware -- 20 I agree it ought to be good for the goose, good for the 21 gander.

22 THE COURT: Right.

23 MR. JOHNSON: But if there's someone out there that 24 should of been in the class and they're identified, we'll 25 pay them. I mean we'd be obligated to pay them.

1 But if they were left off the list inadvertently
2 through an error, they ought to be put on the list, but we 3 ought not have to pay people who shouldn't have been on the 4 list in the first place, haven't suffered damage---

5 THE COURT: Yeah.

6 But I mean wasn't the time to argue that at the time
7 when you certified the class?

8 I mean that's the reason you have to certify who the 9 class is, is so that you don't have deletions and 10 additions -- I mean put it this way. If they came in and 11 wanted to add 200 people, saying look, Horry Electric just 12 left these 200 people off and they should be in -- added
13 into the class, I mean I think Horry Electric could come in 14 and say -- argue, say, look no, we've already certified the 15 class, this is the class, it's too late to come in now.

16 MR. JOHNSON: I would think if they weren't on the 17 class list to start with, they would have a good claim for 18 being amended to the class because they would have known to 19 have been parties through their class representative and 20 what was going on because they were -- I guess what I'm 21 having difficulty with, Your Honor, is we knew when we came 22 up with the list there may be errors in it and there might 23 be things they were right and wrong. There may be people
24 who were entitled to be on it who were left off of it or 25 people who were not suppose to be put on it, but we did

1 have the -- we didn't know -- we agreed to take the list and 2 work from this.

3 I thought, with counsel understanding that if there
4 were errors we could correct them, and the amount, but --
5 and I didn't say we made it because they were inadvertently
6 put on they benefit to the tune of $2,000. Of course, none
7 of these, for example, manufactured homes, we were sent a 8 letter to all of them asking them to confirm one way or the 9 other. We didn't hear from any of them.

10 We don't -- we haven't -- we've gotten some affidavits
11 from some. We've narrowed the list down to where we think 12 we got the right people paid and the people who weren't 13 class members before you for your determination.

14 THE COURT: Now they're gonna want to come back and dig 15 back into more to see if there's people that have been left
16 out that should be added.

17 MR. JOHNSON: If they'd want to do that---

18 THE COURT: Well, let me ask you.

19 Is there any -- and I don't know. I hadn't done the 20 research.

21 Is there any case law that allows for modification of a 22 case after the case has been settled?

23 MR. WARD: Your Honor, can I -- I'd like to address two 24 points. One directly in response to your question.

25 I've been practicing law for almost 20 years on this.

1 All of what I do is class actions, and there's a reason why,
2 when you have the final order and judgment, that you have to 3 define class, it is to avoid exactly what we're dealing with 4 right now.

5 At some point the list has to close. It just -- if 6 they're errors, they can go either way, but you have a list.
7 If people get notice, people that have due process rights
8 and they've complied, and that's what we have here.

9 So the most recent example of this is, which I'm sure
10 you've followed or at least seen it on the news, the BP Oil 11 spill settlement, one of the largest settlements in the 12 history of American jurisprudence arises out of the Deep
13 Water Horizon oil spill. So it's a complicated settlement
14 no doubt, but let me focus on one part and only one part.

15 They had an economic loss class, and the settlement
16 agreement said if you live within a certain geographic area
17 and you meet certain economic benchmarks, then you have 18 presumed causation and you're able to recover under the 19 settle. So the claims process started and BP said, oh, we 20 had no idea that they're many -- so many people that 21 qualified. We want to go back and lead in a causation
22 requirement.

23 That's been the subject of litigation that's been going
24 on for quite some time, and the Court looked at it and said
25 no, this is a matter of judicial estoppel. You agreed to

1 the settlement, you defined the class, you supported the
2 certification, you got the file order, and you have to live
3 with it.

4 THE COURT: Now is that an appellate decision?

5 MR. WARD: There -- that is an appellate decision, and 6 if you look at -- and I can give you the cite, but just as a
7 general matter, judicial estoppel's an equitable doctrine
8 that prevents a party from asserting a position in a legal 9 proceeding that is contrary to a position previously taken 10 in the same or some earlier pursuit, and then it goes on to 11 say the purposes of the doctrine is to protect the integrity
12 of the judicial process by permitting parties from playing 13 fast and loose with the Courts to suit the exigencies of 14 self-interest.

15 So when the, when the District Court in Louisiana
16 looked at this, they said, indeed, BP not only took the 17 position that causation under the settlement was determined 18 exclusively through Exhibit 4-B, it promoted Exhibit 4-B as 19 providing a benefit to claimants that it was more
20 equivalent, more than reasonable, more than fair objective
21 transparent standardized. Such attributes being claimed
22 were part of the reason the settlement deserved Court
23 approval under Rule 23. The Court accepted BP's previous 24 position when it certified the settlement claim and approved
25 the settlement. Accordingly, the Court holds that BP is

1 traditionally estopped from arguing that Exhibit 4-B is 2 about the exclusive means for determining whether it is an
3 economic loss is "as a result of the Deep Water Horizon
4 incident for purposes of the settlement including the class
5 calculation."

6 This is exactly the same situation and that case is In 7 Re: Oil spill. I've got a Lexis cite at 2013 U.S. District
8 Lexis 187711, Eastern District of Louisiana. So that -- the 9 case goes up on appeal to the circuit. The circuit affirms
10 and then the circuit denies the petition to hear that.

11 THE COURT: Is there any Fourth Circuit decisions in --

12 MR. WARD: I understand---

13 THE COURT: ---in South Carolina cases that deal with 14 the issue?

15 MR. WARD: I don't, I don't know off the top of my 16 head, off the top of my head, but this is one that is, is 17 timely and pertinent. But there's another reason that, if 18 you could allow me to approach, that this is a case where 19 the class list needs to be the class list. What I'm handing 20 you is a, is an analysis of four affidavits that Horry
21 Electric is submitted to this Court in these proceedings and 22 what you'll see is that all the data is unreliable.

23 What we have first is -- I'm not gonna go through all
24 of this because it's, it's very dense. There's, there's a 25 lot of information on here. But what we first started with

1 was an, an affidavit from Mr. Eddie Blackburn, in August of 2 this year, where he says we're excluding 37 people because 3 they own manufactured homes. No other category -- that was 4 it. We're excluding 37 people. They own manufactured
5 homes.

6 Malcolm Deal is on that list. Malcolm Deal has 7 submitted an affidavit to this Court that says he lives in a
8 stick built home and he attaches photographs of his home.

9 That's the kind that shouldn't be on that list. So we,
10 we also got an affidavit from Kelly Wilson that says that,
11 you know, here are the 260 people that we've mailed checks
12 including James Phillips, whose filed an affidavit that says
13 I submitted a claim, I hadn't gotten paid. We talked to 14 Mr. Phillips this morning and he still hadn't gotten paid.

15 So we file all these motions, and low and behold -- and 16 keep in mind that this is two months after the claim
17 deadline. So this is, this is after -- they've had two 18 months to assess what they have and make these decisions.

19 So now we get -- fast forward to yesterday. We get a 20 new affidavit from Mr. Blackburn and now they're only 31
21 people who have manufactured homes. Malcolm Deal is no
22 longer on that list.

23 But we also have these new categories. We've got,
24 according to Mr. Blackburn's affidavit at least, you've got 25 12 class members who purportedly were not in who get sent --

1 and that's where Malcolm Deal got moved to.

2 Then you've got two other people, Mary Cardello and
3 James Phillips, who are struck through in, you know, penned
4 correction on Mr. Blackburn's list, and then you've got nine
5 who supposedly made an untimely appearance.

6 So James Phillips is now, you know, written in on that 7 list, but Mr. Phillips' affidavit says that he filed his 8 claim form on September -- on June the 3rd, two weeks before 9 the deadline.

10 Dana Lewis, who's in the courtroom, is on that list.
11 She has an affidavit that she submitted to the Court that 12 attaches her claim form dated September -- June the 5th, 13 eleven days before the claim deadline. And then you've got 14 Mary Cardello, who's on the list as having both not 15 participating in the incentive program and filed an untimely 16 claim.

17 Now the next thing you see is that now there've been 18 299 class members, but nothing is changed other than the 19 fact that we filed your motion, and 39 more people have 20 gotten paid presumably in direct response to, to what we've 21 done, including one of the class representatives who 22 originally was not paid although he had been deposed and his 23 home had been inspected.

24 we've got a couple more on here who filed affidavits 25 saying they had not been claimed -- had not been paid, the

1 dates are pretty close, but there may be some reason for 2 that we, frankly, hadn't had a chance to follow-up with 3 them.

4 Then you've got Georginia Welsh, who filed an affidavit
5 with this Court saying that she submitted a claim, hadn't
6 gotten paid. She's not anywhere on any of Mr. Blackburn's
7 lists. So we also got, yesterday, a affidavit from Kelly
8 Wilson, who is the insurance representative for Horry
9 Electric. She's got the same 31 that supposedly own a 10 mobile home. She's actually got 14 instead of 12 who were 11 not in the Good Sense program. She's got Cardello and 12 Phillips on her list even though they were struck through on 13 Mr. Blackburn's list.

14 You've got eight people who purportedly made untimely 15 claims even though Mr. Blackburn had nine, and so she's 16 dropped somebody that Mr. -- and so then you've got a brand
17 new category that is not anywhere in Mr., in Mr. Blackburn's 18 affidavit. You've got a brand new category of people who 19 supposedly never filed a claim and that's in direct response
20 to affidavits that we submitted. One of them is Ms. Lewis 21 who's here today. The other one is Georginia Welsh, whose 22 affidavit says that she mailed her claim on or about 23 June 15th.

24 So if you look down at the bottom, and I'll sort of 25 wrap this up, you'll see that just using the seven people

1 that we've submitted affidavits from, you've got James
2 Phillips who's on three lists. He supposedly was paid. He 3 supposedly had an untimely claim and he supposedly was not
4 in the Good Sense program.

5 You got Malcolm Deal, who went from the mobile home
6 list to the not in the Good Sense program. You got Mary
7 Cardello who supposedly filed an untimely claim and I guess
8 is also not in the Good Sense program, and you've got Dana 9 Lewis, who's here today, who supposedly filed an untimely
10 claim, but somehow is also on the we never received a claim
11 list.

12 It's just inherently unreliable. And if you start we 13 got to move this person, move that person, exclude these 14 people, and maybe the plaintiffs get to add people, it's 15 just not the way the process should work. The settlement
16 agreement is what it is and I told them I wasn't gonna say
17 it is what it is, but I'm gonna do it anyway, and it's what 18 ultimately made its way into the final order and judgment, 19 and the process should just follow the terms of the 20 settlement agreement and the order which you issued.

21 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

22 Anything in reply?

23 MR. JOHNSON: Your Honor, briefly.

24 He's referring to the Exxon case where they were trying 25 to change the requirements for class membership. We're not

1 trying to change anything.

2 We think the definition should apply to us or to them,
3 and if he's saying things have never -- you know, it is what
4 it is, well, under the settlement agreement, we specifically
5 agreed that the Court, that the Court would retain 6 jurisdiction to resolve disputes under the process, and I
7 think -- I'm happy if they present us with evidence of what
8 we've said in our last affidavits as incorrect---

9 THE COURT: Well, I mean that's what they've done.
10 The -- they -- he said Dana Lewis never filed a claim and 11 she's saying yes, I did. He's saying Malcolm Deal was in a 12 mobile home, and he's saying no, I'm not, I'm in a stick
13 built home, and here's the pictures that shows the stick 14 built home I live in. I mean that --.

15 MR. JOHNSON: Your Honor, I think if this were a motion 16 for summary judgment these people should not have been in,
17 they had a counter motion for summary judgment and there
18 were disputes, they would have to be determined by an 19 evidentiary hearing.

20 Okay. I'm not saying we need that, but---

21 THE COURT: Well then how do we settle?

22 I mean either we enforce the list or else we're gonna
23 have to have an evidentiary hearing on everybody that Horry
24 Electric says shouldn't be in the class and every member
25 that says yes, I should be in the class.

1 MR. JOHNSON: Your Honor, I believe that, quite 2 frankly, if they'll tell us any, any specifically we'll
3 either agree to an evidentiary hearing on those limited
4 people or we'll trade it out. But the answer shouldn't be 5 for people who aren't on the list to start with to get a 6 windfall in this matter because there were errors made that 7 were good faith errors. I mean nobody's trying to keep 8 somebody from getting---

9 THE COURT: And I understand that, but I mean you got 10 299 class members. We can't have 299 evidentiary hearings
11 to determine whether or not a person isn't a member of a 12 class. That's why they come up with a list.

13 MR. JOHNSON: Your Honor, it seems to me that if -- 14 again, if they show us something that -- you know, if we had 15 an opportunity to meet, go down the list and determine how 16 many we had, and we have a difference on some of them, and 17 we have our numbers -- are ultimate numbers from the 18 affidavits we submitted yesterday are hard, and fast, and 19 correct, and, if anything, Your Honor, I'd ask you, at a 20 minimum, I would ask you to hold -- withhold ruling on that 21 and direct the parties to try and verify the ones who are 22 actually on the list or not and determine the matter after 23 that occurred as opposed to just saying that they have 32
24 evidentiary hearings.

25 THE COURT: Well, you're saying 299 evidentiary

1 hearings.

2 MR. JOHNSON: No. No, sir. I'm saying---

3 THE COURT: Well, you've got people -- there's 299
4 class members to whom checks were mailed and---

5 MR. JOHNSON: No, sir.

6 THE COURT: ---they got people who are saying I never 7 got my check including one of the class representatives who 8 just got their check.

9 MR. JOHNSON: All right. Your Honor, what you'll find 10 is we say that 31 people have named -- if they say there's 11 none -- if they show us that -- any of them are incorrect,
12 we'll correct them.

13 THE COURT: So we're gonna open up the list and let 14 them go and everybody who should be added to the list, but 15 was not, Horry Electric is gonna voluntarily add them on?

16 You get somebody that comes if and says look, I'm not 17 on this list, but I participated in the Good $ense program, 18 I've got a stick built home, I wasn't in the class, here's 19 my proof, put me on the list.

20 MR. JOHNSON: Yes, sir, I think it ought to be the same
21 way going whichever way from either side. They ought to be 22 the same, but I don't think that there's a basis for getting 23 people who were inadvertently put on the list a windfall,
24 and I don't think -- I honestly don't think, Your Honor,
25 that we would have any really -- any differences regarding

1 the categories of people that were on our last data. If I'm 2 mistaken, counsel can correct me, but if they represent---

3 THE COURT: Well, when did you give them that list?

4 MR. JOHNSON: Your Honor, I sent, I sent the updated
5 list to them with an affidavit yesterday.

6 THE COURT: Okay. And they hadn't had a chance to 7 follow-up on that if they just got it yesterday. The one 8 that you initially -- they initially got from you they 9 followed up on and found a number of discrepancies.

10 MR. JOHNSON: Yes, sir, and they -- if they sent us an 11 affidavit and they got one from them changing the affidavit
12 --.

13 THE COURT: Right.

14 MR. JOHNSON: -- we had to try -- this is only an 15 effort to try and see the right people get paid and the 16 wrong people don't get paid, and---

17 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Well, I've got a good
18 handle. I'm gonna take it under advisement.

19 Number one, I need to check some case law to see if I 20 can change the definition of the class, or not the 21 definition, but limit the class when the list is already 22 been produced because -- you know, and I, and I don't know.
23 I've got to do the research.

24 Mr. Johnson, I kind of agree with them that that's the 25 reason we certify a class and come up with a list is so that

1 it's -- so that we avoid this argument after the fact. I
2 don't know that, but I'm under -- that's what I've got to 3 satisfy in my own mind first.

4 Okay. All right. So I'll take it under advisement and 5 let y'all know.

6 MR. WARD: Your Honor, one last request.

7 We would request that any issues of the untimeliness of 8 any claims that we haven't been provided documentation of 9 postmarks whose claim was untimely. Because Horry Electric
10 has acted as the claim administrator, which is different
11 than -- most class actions we have an independent claims
12 administrator. A lot of that information hasn't been 13 provided to us. So we can't rely on any assertion on a list
14 that's developed by Mr. Johnson and Kelly Wilson, the claims
15 attorney, acting as the claims administrator, that something 16 was untimely. We have to have proof of that. So I want to 17 bring that issue to the Court's attention.

18 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

19 MR. JOHNSON: Your Honor, I don't have any problem with 20 that, and I think, Your Honor, I ask you to direct the 21 parties to see or come up with the correct list that you're 22 looking -- if, if our list is correct, we got the categories
23 of there -- if they're either some that they disagree, they 24 show me so that we can show you. One is, one is an issue --
25 I have no problem doing -- working with them on the list of

1 people who filed late.

2 THE COURT: Well, I mean the, the -- and I don't know
3 how long it's gonna take me to come up with an answer, but 4 one of two things is gonna happen. Either I'm gonna decide
5 with Mr. Gossom, which means y'all can go do your research
6 and check everybody that participated in the Good $ense, and 7 if they're not on this list, get them added to the class, or 8 I'm going to go with them and say we've got the list, where 9 we are and I don't know.

10 But, you know, I hate to make you do some work, but 11 I've got -- I don't know, I don't know how accurate the list
12 is. I mean I have no idea how accurate this list is, and 13 whether it encompass everybody that participated in the Good
14 $ense program and is entitled to settlement or whether it
15 adds -- I mean yes, it might add 30 something people that 16 shouldn't be on there, but it might exclude 450 people that 17 should be on there. By the same token, it might be pretty 18 accurate. I have no idea.

19 But I'll, I'll do the research and I'll let you know my 20 decision. I don't know how long it will me. I've got to 21 finish up this other case, but I'll try to get on it
22 sometime pretty soon.

23 Okay.

24 MR. JOHNSON: Thank you.

25 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

1 MR. FATA: Thank you.

2 MR. WARD: Thank you.

3 MR. JOHNSON: Your Honor?

4 THE COURT: Yes.

5 MR. JOHNSON: I had served them with a supplemental 6 affidavit of Sara Wilson. I have not gotten the original
7 back from her to file the original, and I'd like permission,
8 as soon as I get it, to make it part of the record.

9 THE COURT: All right. And what does it, what does it
10 say?

11 MR. JOHNSON: It's just -- it just says what I think it
12 says.

13 THE COURT: But I mean how is it different from her
14 September 13th, 2014, affidavit?

15 MR. JOHNSON: It provides what we believe is the 16 updated corrected list of people who are not entitled to 17 payment. I've got a similar affidavit---

18 THE COURT: So she's acknowledging that her
19 September 13th, 2014, affidavit was not correct?

20 MR. JOHNSON: Yes, sir.

21 THE COURT: Okay.

22 MR. WARD: And we, we had -- that's addressed to the,
23 the---

24 THE COURT: Yeah, that's what I'm saying is -- that's 25 what I'm saying.

1 MR. WARD: Correct.

2 THE COURT: She gave an affidavit in September of 2014,
3 but now she's acknowledging that that affidavit was wrong,
4 but saying this one is right?

5 MR. JOHNSON: And all, all I'm asking permission to do
6 is make the original -- file the original affidavit as part 7 of the file.

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 MR. JOHNSON: I've served it.

10 THE COURT: All right. Just, if you want to, just file
11 it or what do you -- do you want to put it as a exhibit or 12 what do you want to do?

13 MR. JOHNSON: Well, I'll just send a letter filing it.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 MR. JOHNSON: They can put it in the file.

16 Thank you.

17 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

18 MR. WARD: Thank you, Your Honor.

vapor barrier on the heated side of the studs. This vapor barrier creates moisture and mold in the coastal county of Horry.

CLASS FACTS

From 1988-2008 Horry Electric's two specified methods to meet its vapor barrier specification in new homes were:

- (a) Method One
 - (i) 4 or 6 mil. Polyethylene vapor barrier installed on the inside surface of the exterior walls and ceilings
 - (ii) properly installed friction fit batts
 - (iii) properly installed house wrap (such as Tyvek) as an air barrier
- (b) Method Two
 - (i) properly installed Kraft or foil-faced insulation
 - (ii) taped and painted gypsum board installed on the inside of the exterior wall
 - (iii) properly installed house wrap (such as Tyvek) as an air barrier

The specifications did not change during the class period, 1988-2003. All new homes enrolled in the program were inspected by Horry Electric and were certified as having met the vapor barrier specifications. More than one thousand new homes were built according to Horry Electric's vapor barrier specification. Horry Electric required the same documentation for each home and used a systematic or classwide approach for approving the new homes and documenting the same.

The Class claims center on the fact that the vapor barrier specification was a design defect, latent defect, and violative of established building codes. Vapor barriers on the heated side of the studs should not have been used in Horry County. The Class Representatives and the Class have and will experience moisture and mold damage due to the defective specifications and the vapor barrier must be removed.

In South Carolina, the Class Action Rule is more expansive than its federal counterpart, Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and it's appropriately used to effectuate class wide resolution of claims. The Court should certify a Class. In Guazia v. South Carolina State Plastering, LLC, 390 S.C. 562, 703 S.E.2d 197, 198 (2010) the Supreme Court again held that class actions are favored in this State, and that we have a more expansive view of class actions than our federal counterparts.

The class is defined as each and every Horry County homeowner of a new Good Cents Program Home that has a vapor barrier, on the inside of its exterior walls and was included by the Defendant in the new Good Cents Program Home upon its construction during years 1988 through 2003. In addition, the Court should appoint the named Plaintiffs as Class Representatives and the undersigned as Class Counsel.

RULE 23 REQUIREMENTS ARE MET

The prerequisites of South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure Rule 23 are met in this action:

- (a) the class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable;
- (b) there are questions of law or fact common to the class;
- (c) the claims or defenses of the representative parties are typical of the claims or defenses of the class;
- (d) the representative parties will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class; and
- (e) . . . the amount in controversy exceeds one hundred dollars for each member of the class.

In ruling on a motion for class certification, the merits of the case are not to be considered by the trial court. Tilley v. Pacesetter Corp., 333 S.C. 33, 508 S.E.2d 16 (1988). Rather, the appropriate inquiry is whether or not the case is suitable for treatment as a class action.

Set forth below is a brief discussion of each element and the support for meeting this procedural threshold.

1. With over 1,000 Class Members, the Class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impractical.

2. There are questions of law or fact common to the Class, including, but not limited to, the design defects inherent with the vapor barrier specifications, when Horry Electric knew of such design defects, and whether Horry Electric was reckless or willful in disregarding industry knowledge concerning its design defects.

3. The claims of the representative parties are typical of the claims of the Class. Each Class Representative has moisture and mold due to the defective vapor barrier design. The Class Representative Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Class and have engaged qualified counsel.

4. The amount in controversy for each Class Member exceeds One Hundred Dollars ($100.00). The cost of removal of the inappropriate materials itself is easily more than $100.00 ($100.00) per home.

REQUESTED RELIEF

The Court should certify the Class to address this classwide defect. All Class members were treated similarly by Horry Electric and are similarly situated. The Good Cents specifications were uniformly applied by Horry Electric. This Motion is based on the depositions, discovery responses, pleadings and all matters to be raised at the hearing.

Consultation with Defendant's counsel would serve no useful purpose.

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff Class Representative requests that this Court enter an Order certifying the class, appoint Class Representative, Class Counsel and for all further Orders to implement the requested relief.

CLERK OF COURT

INTRODUCTION

This action concerns Horry Electric's "Good Cents Program" for new homes ("Program") and defective design specifications and requirements. Horry Electric implemented its Program in 1988 and, for the issues involved in this action, continued with the same specifications and requirements until 2003. Horry Electric licensed the Good Sense Program from Santee Cooper, which was implementing the Program with many electric cooperatives across the state.

The goal of the Program was to reduce peak demand and limit the amount of energy to be produced by Horry Electric and its electric providers, including Santee Cooper and Southern Electric International. Integral to this action is Horry Electric's Program requirement that all homes built under the Program have a vapor barrier installed on the heated side of the exterior walls. The installation of the vapor barrier in this location does cause, and was known at the time of the adoption of the Program to cause condensation, moisture, and mildew in the wall cavities of structures in warm humid climates such as Horry County. In essence, Horry Electric traded off long-term moisture and mold problems in Class Member homes in exchange for the short-term benefit of reducing peak demand so that Horry Electric or its power providers would not have to spend money to build new power plants.

CLASS FACTS

To receive the Good Cents Home approval as being energy efficient, the new home builder was required to follow Horry Electric's design instructions. The Program design instructions did not change. One critical requirement was that a specified vapor barrier be installed on the heated side of the studs. From 1988-2008 Horry Electric's two specified methods to meet its vapor barrier requirement in new homes were:

- (a) Method One
 - (i) 4 or 6 mil. Polyethylene vapor barrier installed on the inside surface of the exterior walls and ceilings
 - (ii) properly installed friction fit batts
 - (iii) properly installed house wrap (such as Tyvek) as an air barrier
- (b) Method Two
 - (i) properly installed Kraft or foil-faced insulation
 - (ii) taped and painted gypsum board installed on the inside of the exterior wall
 - (iii) properly installed house wrap (such as Tyvek) as an air barrier

Through 2003 all homes were required to have one of the two vapor barriers installed on the interior side of the exterior wall. Exhibit A, Horry Electric 30 (b)(6) Dep. p. 19, lines 2-12. The specifications did not change during the class period, 1988-2003. Horry Electric 30 (b)(6)

Dep. p. 18, lines 14-22. All new homes enrolled in the program were inspected by Horry Electric and were certified as having met the vapor barrier specifications. Horry Electric 30 (b)(6) Dep. p. 13, ln. 23- p. 14, ln. 9. More than one thousand new homes were built according to Horry Electric's vapor barrier specification. Horry Electric 30 (b)(6) Dep. p. 13, ln. 23- p. 14, ln. 9. Horry Electric later stated in discovery that the number was 1434. Exhibit B.

Horry Electric required the same documentation for each home and used a systematic or classwide approach for approving the new homes and documenting the same. Horry Electric 30 (b)(6) Dep. p. 48, lines 5-21. Horry Electric would use an inspection form to verify the required vapor barrier was installed. Horry Electric 30 (b)(6) Dep. p. 48, lines 18-21. All homes have the same required Horry Electric documentation. Horry Electric 30 (b)(6) Dep. p. 48, lines 5-12, referencing deposition exhibits 7 through 12.

Although it knew of no building code that required a vapor barrier during 1988 to 2003. Horry Electric required one because Santee Cooper required it. Horry Electric 30 (b)(6) Dep, p. 50, lines 12-23. Horry Electric did not permit homeowners or contractors to deviate from the Good Cents New Home requirement of vapor barriers. Horry Electric 30 (b)(6) Dep, p. 34, lines 17-21.

The Class claims center on the fact that the vapor barrier specification was a design defect, latent defect, and violative of established building codes. Vapor barriers should not have been installed on the heated side of the studs in Horry County. Santee Cooper, who spearheaded and licensed the Good Cents Program, recognized the incompatibility of the vapor barrier on the heated side of the studs in warm humid climates. See Santee Cooper Letter dated October 8, 1986 to Geoff Hartman of South Electric International. "Vapor Barriers-This is a touchy subject in coastal areas. See ASHRAE '85 Fundamentals-21-17. It may be best not to mention."

Request to Admit without response, Exhibit C.¹ Santee Cooper again discussed its concerns on requiring a vapor barrier on the interior of all exterior walls. According to Santee Cooper in its October 22, 1986 letter to Southern Electric International, an article in Energy Design Update stated that vapor barriers may in fact create moisture condensation problems. Request to Admit without response, Exhibit C. Southern Electric International responded that it does not require the use of vapor barriers except to conform to applicable building codes. Request to Admit without response, Exhibit C. Yet, Horry Electric required a vapor barrier for its Good Cents Program. Horry Electric 30 (b)(6) Dep. P. 19, lines 2-12. Horry County, unlike Greenville County, is a warm, humid climate county and is incompatible with the vapor barrier requirement.

The Class Representatives and the Class have and will experience condensation, moisture and mold damage due to the defective specifications and the vapor barrier must be removed. Plaintiffs' expert Larry Elkin explains the design defect and its consequences in his Affidavit, Exhibit D. Requiring, specifying, or recommending a vapor barrier be installed on the heated side of exterior walls in residences in Horry County is a design defect due to Horry County's warm humid climate.

ANALYSIS

In South Carolina, the class action rule is more expansive than its federal counterpart, Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and it is appropriately used to effectuate class wide resolution of claims. The Court should certify a Class. In Guazia v. South Carolina State Plastering, LLC, 390 S.C. 562, 703 S.E.2d 197, 198 (2010) the Supreme Court again held that class actions are favored in this State, and that we have a more expansive view of class actions than our federal counterparts.

¹ Requests to Admit not responded to within 30 days are deemed admitted. Rule 36, SCRPC.

CLASS DEFINITION

The class is defined as each and every Horry County homeowner of a new Good Cents Program Home that has a vapor barrier, on the inside of its exterior walls and was included by the Defendant in the new Good Cents Program Home upon its construction during years 1988 through 2003.

RULE 23 REQUIREMENTS ARE MET

The prerequisites of South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure Rule 23 are met in this action:

- (a) the class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable;
- (b) there are questions of law or fact common to the class;
- (c) the claims or defenses of the representative parties are typical of the claims or defenses of the class;
- (d) the representative parties will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class; and
- (e) . . . the amount in controversy exceeds one hundred dollars for each member of the class.

In ruling on a motion for class certification, the merits of the case are not to be considered by the trial court. Tilley v. Pacesetter Corp., 333 S.C. 33, 508 S.E.2d 16 (1988). Rather, the appropriate inquiry is whether or not the case is suitable for treatment as a class action.

Set forth below is a brief discussion of each element and the support for meeting this procedural threshold.

1. With over 1,000 Class Members, the Class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impractical.

2. There are questions of law or fact common to the Class, including, but not limited to, the design defects inherent with the vapor barrier specifications, the uniform vapor barrier requirements and uniform Horry Electric documentation of each home during 1988-2003, when Horry Electric knew of such design defects, and whether Horry Electric was reckless or willful in disregarding industry knowledge concerning its design defects.

3. The claims of the representative parties are typical of the claims of the Class. Each Class Representative has the violative vapor barrier design. The Class Representative Plaintiffs' homes were built according to the Program's specifications and requirements and accepted into the Good Cents Program and will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Class and have engaged qualified counsel.

4. The amount in controversy for each Class Member exceeds One Hundred Dollars ($100.00). The cost of removal of the inappropriate materials itself is easily more than $100.00 ($100.00) per home.

Plaintiffs now demonstrate to the Court how each of the prerequisites have been met pursuant to Rule 23, SCRPC.

A. Numerosity

The class is so numerous that joinder of all members of the class as Petitioners herein is impracticable. No definite standard exists as to what size class satisfies the requirements of Rule 23(a)(1). Haywood v. Barnes, 109 F.R.D. 568, 576 (E.D.N.C. 1986). However, where the class numbers at least 40, joinder is usually impracticable, and where the class numbers in the hundreds, joinder is clearly impracticable. See, e.g., Swanson v. American Consumer Industries, 415 F.2d 1326, 1333 (7th Cir. 1969) (reversing denial of class certification in a securities case involving 151 class members). Here, the 30 (b)(6) designee of Horry Electric clearly states that more than 1000 new homes with vapor barriers were accepted into the Good Cents Program by Horry Electric from 1988-2003. Horry Electric 30 (b)(6) Depo. p. 13, ln. 23 – p. 14, ln. 4. Horry Electric later supplemented its discovery response on March 28, 2012, stating that 1434 new homes were included in the Good Cents Program. Exhibit B. As a result, the numerosity test has been met and, accordingly, the first prong of Rule 23, SCRCF is met.²

B. Commonality

Common questions of law and fact exist as to all members of the class. The commonality requirement is liberally construed and given permissive application so that common questions have been found to exist in a wide range of contexts. Haywood v. Barnes, 109 F.R.D. 568, 577 (E.D.N.C. 1986). See also McGann v. Mungo, 287 S.C. 561, 568, 340 S.E.2d 54, 157-58 (Ct.App. 1986) holding:

It is important to note that the subsection does not demand all questions of law and fact to be common, only that there be common issues among the class. In fact, a single common issue will suffice if it is important enough. (Emphasis added).

In this case, common issues abound as to all homeowners: the vapor barrier design defect and the improper requirement of a vapor barrier in the warm humid climate of Horry County. Under well-established South Carolina law, a defendant may be liable in negligence and under implied warranty for furnishing plans and specifications, even where no contractual privity exists between the furnisher and the home buyer. Beachwalk Villas v. Martin, 305 S.C. 144, 406 S.E.2d 372 (S.C. 1991); APAC Carolina Inc. v. Town of Allendale, S.C., 41 F.3d 157 (D.S.C. 1994).

All class members live in the same warm humid climate and suffer from the same design defect. Horry Electric used the same uniform documents and inspections for each class member. The common design defect, uniform documents and warm humid climate all favor class certification. To summarize, the commonality requirement of Rule 23, SCRCF has been satisfied. Furthermore, the nature of this case makes class certification appropriate. See,

² A class action may proceed upon estimates as to the size of the proposed class. In re Alcoholic Beverages Litigation, 95 F.R.D. 321 (E.D.N.Y. 1982); Leist v. Shawano Cty., 91 F.R.D. 64 (D. Wis. 1981); Amswiss Int'l Corp. V. Heublein, Inc., 69 F.R.D. 663 (N.D. Ga. 1975).

Kennedy v. S.C. Retirement System, 24 Employee Benefits Cas. (BNA) 2859 (S.C. 2000), withdrawn on unrelated grounds and superseded by substitute opinion, 345 S.C. 339, 549 S.E.2d 243, rehearing denied, 349 S.C. 339, 534 S.E.2d 322 (2001). In the original Kennedy opinion, the Supreme Court stated:

We believe the current case especially appropriate for class treatment. The number of potential plaintiffs is very large, there is one main issue of law, that issue is identical for each plaintiff, all injuries result from the same misapplication of the statute by the Retirement System, and individual calculation of damages would be simple.

See, also Littlefield v. South Carolina Forestry Commission, 337 S.C. 348, 521 S.E.2d 781 (1999).

As the Supreme Court has previously recognized, this type of case is ideal for class certification because there is one main issue of law, i.e., was the Defendant's vapor barrier requirement a design defect in the warm humid climate of Horry County? Answering this common issue alone justifies class certification. In a recent design defect case involving washing machines and mold, the Sixth Circuit affirmed the class certification of the lower court and stated, "More importantly, the district court reached the conclusion that the issues relating to the alleged design defects and the adequacy of warnings are likely to result in common answers, thus advancing the litigation. Glazer et al v. Whirlpool Corporation, Case no. 10-4188, p. 12, (Sixth Circuite) Decided and Filed May 3, 2012, Exhibit E .

C. Typicality

The tenets of commonality and typicality most often are dealt with as one in terms of class certification. General Telephone Company of the Southwest v. Falcon, 457 U.S. 147, 158 (1982) (The commonality and typicality requirements of Rule 23(a) tend to merge.). The "typicality" requirement of Rule 23(a)(3), SCRPC requires that the claims or defenses of the class be typical. To satisfy the typicality requirement, the named representatives' claims must be similar enough to those of the class to assure that the class' interests are vigorously prosecuted.

7A Charles Alan Wright & Arthur R. Miller, Federal Practice & Procedure, 1764 (2d. Ed. 1986).

Here, the claims and defenses of the representative parties are typical of the claims and defenses of the class. Plaintiffs Vance and Montorio are each in the Good Cents Program.³ Exhibit F, billing and Good Cents records. Defendant documented their homes and inspections. See Exhibit F. Accordingly, a common set of facts applies to all class members in accordance with Littlefield, supra. There is no individual advantage to proceeding separately; in fact, there is a distinct disadvantage as the individual damages of any one class member may be relatively small when compared with potential costs of bringing this action, making the expense and burden of this litigation unjustifiable for individual actions. Further, judicial economy requires that the Court not be required to try each undecided case since to do so would take years.

D. Adequacy of Representation

South Carolina Rule of Civil Procedure 23(a)(4) requires that the named plaintiff fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class. That protection involves two factors: (1) counsel must be qualified, experienced and generally able to conduct the proposed litigation; and (2) plaintiffs' claims must be sufficiently interrelated and not antagonistic to the class claims. Lott v. Westinghouse Savannah River Co., 200 F.R.D. 539 561 (D.S.C. 2000).

Here, there is no argument that Petitioners will not fairly and adequately protect the interest of the class. Petitioners' claims are typical of the class in that Petitioners and all members of the class sustained damages arising out of Defendant's uniform conduct towards the Petitioners and all members of the class as set forth in the Complaint. Petitioners' claims are typical of the class in that Petitioners and the other class members were subjected to the same defective vapor barrier requirement. Moreover, Petitioners have and will continue to fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class. Petitioners' counsel have over a decade of experience in class actions and complex litigation.

³ Ferrell's home was built according to the specifications and requirements of the Program but was not admitted into

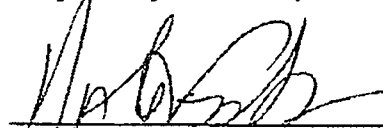

E. Amount in Controversy

The final prong of Rule 23, SCRPC requires that each class member have a claim in excess of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00). Here, according to the testimony of Larry Elkin, each class member will suffer at least $100 of damages due to the removal of the vapor barrier. Exhibit D, par. 17. As a result, the final prong of Rule 23, SCRPC has been met.

REQUESTED RELIEF

All Class members were treated similarly by Horry Electric and are similarly situated in Horry County. The Good Cents specifications and requirements were uniformly applied and documented by Horry Electric. The Court should certify the Class to address this classwide vapor barrier defective design.

SETTLEMENT CONSIDERATION

2. The Class has asserted a claim against HEC for breach of warranty, negligence/gross negligence and breach of contract/covenant of good faith and fair dealing. This claim is related to property damage arising out of the Good Cents program for new homes which required a vapor barrier on the inside of the exterior walls. The Class Counsel and Class Representatives maintain that the vapor barrier has caused property damage. The Good Cents program which HEC offered to its members was a program which South Carolina Public Service Authority and Southern Electric International, Inc. developed and licensed. The evidence established that South Carolina Public Service Authority and Southern Electric International, Inc. had knowledge that the vapor barrier requirement could cause mold and mildew problems in the homes prior to the program being licensed of HEC, as indicated in its two 1986 letters to Southern Electric. The evidence has also indicated that the South Carolina Public Service Authority did not provide those two letters or that information to HEC, before HEC offered the Good Cents program to the Class Members. HEC offered the Good Cents program for new homes to its members that the South Carolina Public Service Authority offered to it. HEC contends it learned of the knowledge the South Carolina Public Service Authority had about the vapor barrier causing mold and mildew problems through discovery in this action.

3. Class Counsel and Defendant shall present this Settlement Agreement to the Court as soon as practicable and shall take all appropriate steps to obtain an Order (a) finding the settlement sufficiently fair, reasonable, and adequate; and (b) scheduling a final hearing on the fairness of the proposed settlement.

4. In consideration for dismissal of the Litigation with prejudice under the terms of this Settlement Agreement, Defendant's insurance carrier, Federated, will pay the claim from the two settlement funds. Class members may participate in one fund, but not both, by selecting a fund preference on the Claim Form that is postmarked no later than ninety (90) days from the issuance of Class Notice.

- a) The Automatic Payment Fund: Defendant and Federated shall establish a fund of $2,400,000. In no event will Defendant and/or Federated be required to increase the amount to be funded. Class members may claim an automatic payment of $2,000 by submission of a Claim Form and declaration under penalties of perjury of current home ownership. If the Automatic Payment Fund is insufficient to pay all qualifying Class members at $2000 per claim, then the payments shall be made with a pro rata reduction. Defendant shall make payments to the Class members selecting the Automatic Payment fund within the later of 60 days after the Effective Date of Settlement or 60 days after the Claim Period, whichever is later, provided, however, no payments are due until HEC has all Automatic Payment claim forms necessary to determine the amount due on each Automatic Payment claim. .

- b) The Remediation Fund: Defendant shall establish a fund of $3,600,000. In no event will HEC or Federated be required to increase the amount to be funded. Class members may claim reimbursement for Reimbursable Remediation Expenses by removing the vapor barrier from the home and by submission of a Claim Form and Documented proof. The Documented proof shall be due no later than 180 days from the Effective Date of Settlement and each claim shall be capped at $12,000. Class members who elect the Remediation Fund shall be mailed a Notice advising them of the Effective Date of Settlement and the 180 day deadline to submit documentation for reimbursement. If the Remediation Fund is insufficient to pay all qualifying Class members their actual Reimbursable Remediation Expenses at an amount up to $12,000 per claim, then the payments shall be made with a pro rata reduction. If less than 250 Class Members select the Remediation Fund preference on the Claim Form, then Defendant shall make payment within thirty days of Defendant's receipt of the Class member's Documented Reimbursable Remediation Expenses. Otherwise, Defendant shall make payment within the later of thirty days of the expiration of the period to submit Documented Reimbursable Remediation Expenses or thirty days after the last decision by the arbitrator of all claim submitted in arbitration, whichever is later, provided, however, no Remediation payments are due until HEC has all Remediation claim forms necessary to determine the amount due on each Remediation claim. .

- c) Within thirty (30) days of its receipt of a Class Member's documentation for reimbursement and if the claim is to be denied in whole or in part, Defendant shall send to the Class Member in writing an explanation of the reasons for any denial of the claim, in whole or in part. In the event of any disputes regarding Reimbursable Remediation Expenses, the Parties shall meet and confer and use their best efforts to resolve the claim for the Class member. If the parties cannot reach agreement, the dispute shall be resolved by final, binding arbitration. The Class Member shall have fifteen (15) days from the receipt of Defendant's partial or complete denial of the claim to request Arbitration in writing by stating "I hereby request arbitration." Such request must be mailed to Class Counsel and Defendant's Counsel. The arbitrator shall be a South Carolina licensed attorney practicing in Horry County as agreed upon by Class Counsel and Defendant. Unless the arbitrator requests additional matters, the arbitration shall be limited to a paper review only of the Class member's claim submission and Defendant's response. The Arbitrator shall render a decision within 45 days of the Class member's request for arbitration. Defendant is responsible for the arbitrator's fees.

- d) As compensation for services as class representatives, and subject to approval by the Court, Defendant agrees to pay $5000 to Class Representative Vance and Class

Representative Montorio. Such payment shall be made pro rata from the two funds within ten days of the Effective Date of Settlement such payment shall be paid prior to payment of any claim.

- e) Any amounts not claimed in the funds by Class Members shall, at the expiration of all claim periods, be retained by Federated.

EFFECT OF SETTLEMENT

5. This Settlement Agreement is for settlement purposes only, and neither the fact of, nor any provision contained in, this Settlement Agreement nor any action taken hereunder shall constitute or be construed or cited in any context or manner whatever as any admission of the validity of any claim or any fact alleged by Plaintiff in the Litigation or of any wrongdoing, fault, violation of law, or liability of any kind on the part of Defendant or any admission by Defendant of any claim or allegation made in any action or proceeding against Defendant. This Settlement Agreement shall not be offered or be admissible in evidence against Defendant or cited or referred to in any action or proceeding, except in any action or proceeding brought by or against the named Plaintiff, the Class, or Defendant to enforce its terms, or by Defendant in defense of any claim brought by the Class or by Defendant in any action against any other joint tortfeasor or any other person or entity which is or may be liable to Defendant by way of indemnification or otherwise.

NOTICE

6. Notice of this settlement shall be provided to Class members. The Parties will request that the Court determine that the proposed procedures for notice set forth below constitute the best practicable notice to the Class.

7. Defendant shall be responsible for preparing, printing, and mailing to all Class members the Class Notice, as directed and approved by the Court in its Preliminary Approval Order.

Defendant shall discharge this responsibility by mailing the Court-approved Class Notice to all Class members, which shall provide instructions and information concerning the settlement and their right to receive a share of the funds, as well as their objection rights and opt-out rights within ten (10) business days after the Court has entered the Preliminary Approval Order. Any Class Notice returned to the Defendant as non-delivered before the deadline for opting-out of the settlement shall be sent to the forwarding address affixed thereto. The Parties will update addresses based on any forwarding address received and/or requests to do so received from Class members. Other than as set forth in Par. 4(b) regarding the Remediation Fund, Defendant shall have no further or other responsibility for preparing, printing or mailing the Class Notice to the Class Members. It shall be the responsibility of Class Counsel or their designees to respond to all inquiries from Class members as appropriate, with the exception of correspondence and other communications with the Defendant as necessary for administration and payment of settlement funds.

REQUESTS FOR EXCLUSION

8. Any Class member shall be allowed to make a Request for Exclusion from the settlement by mailing or delivering such Request for Exclusion to Class Counsel and Defendant's Counsel at the addresses set out in the Class Notice. Any Request for Exclusion must be in writing and postmarked or delivered no later than the date specified in the Court's Preliminary Approval Order. The Request for Exclusion shall state (i) the Class member's full name and current address, and (ii) in express and clear terms the Class member's desire to be excluded from the settlement and from the Class. Failure to comply with these requirements and to timely submit the Request for Exclusion shall result in the Class member being bound by the terms of the Settlement.
9. Any Class Member who submits a timely Request for Exclusion may not file an objection to the Settlement and shall be deemed to have waived any rights or benefits under this Settlement Agreement.

10. The Parties shall jointly report the names of all individuals who have submitted a Request for Exclusion to the Court no less than ten (10) days prior to the final fairness hearing.

11. For up to five (5) days following the Request for Exclusion deadline, Defendant has the option to terminate the Settlement Agreement if more than ten percent (10%) of the Class Members timely opt out of the action. If Defendant elects to terminate, it must file a Notice of Intent to Terminate within five (5) days following the opt out deadline

OBJECTIONS

12. Subject to Court approval, any Class member who intends to object to the fairness of any aspect of the proposed settlement must mail any such objection to the Court postmarked no later than fifteen (15) days prior to the date of the final fairness hearing and must serve any objections to the settlement, in writing, upon counsel no later than fifteen (15) days prior to the date of the final fairness hearing. Objectors to the settlement must set forth their full name and current address and must state in writing all specific objections and the reasons in support thereof, and include any and all supporting papers, including proof of a home address designated for the Good Cents Program and, if applicable, the objector's statement of intent to appear at the final fairness hearing. If the objector intends to appear through counsel, the objector's counsel shall append to the statement of intent to appear a list of all prior objections previously filed by such counsel in state and federal courts.

13. Any Class member who does not properly file and serve timely written objections to the settlement and notice of his or her intent to appear at the final fairness hearing shall not be permitted to object to the settlement at the final fairness hearing, and shall be foreclosed from seeking review of the settlement by appeal or otherwise.

FINAL JUDGMENT

14. Following final approval by the Court to this Settlement Agreement and the settlement contemplated hereby, the parties shall seek entry of a Final Order and Judgment dismissing the action with prejudice and without further costs.

15. If (i) the preliminary or final approval of this Settlement Agreement and the settlement described herein is not obtained or is reversed on appeal or (ii) the effective date of settlement as defined herein does not occur for any reason or (iii) entry of the Final Order and Judgment is finally reversed or (iv) the judgment is substantially modified by the Court, or on appeal, and either Plaintiff or Defendant so elects, this Settlement Agreement shall be null and void, shall have no further force and effect with respect to any party in the Litigation

RELEASE AND DISCHARGE

16. Upon the effective date of settlement, HEC and Federated, their present or former officers, directors, employees, agents, heirs, executors, administrators, successors, reorganized successors, assigns, subsidiaries, affiliates, parents, divisions, and predecessors, shall forever be released and discharged from any and all claims by the Class members and their heirs, successors and assigns against Defendant which arise out of or are in any way related to vapor barriers installed under the Good Cents Program. This release and discharge discharges common liability of any joint tortfeasors and will be binding on any subsequent purchasers of any homes of a Class Member.

COSTS AND ATTORNEYS' FEES

17. At least twenty-five (25) days prior to the Final Fairness Hearing, Class Counsel shall file a Motion for Attorneys' Fees and Expenses in an amount not to exceed $990,000.00 to be paid pro rata from the Automatic Payment Fund and the Remediation Fund.

Defendant shall not object or assist or encourage any objection to Class Counsels' request for attorneys' fees and expenses to be paid out of the total settlement fund of Six Million Dollars ($6,000,000) Counsel's fees and costs shall be made prior to any payment of any claim. These amounts will compensate Class Counsel for more than three years of contentious litigation work already performed in this case and all of the work remaining to be performed in this case, including but not limited to documenting the settlement, securing Court approval of the settlement, making sure that the settlement is fairly administered and implemented, and obtaining dismissal of the Litigation. Within ten business days after the Effective Date of Settlement, Defendant shall deduct approved fees and costs from the Automatic Payment Fund and the Remediation Fund and pay those amounts to Class Counsel.

COSTS OF ADMINISTRATION

18. Defendant shall bear all costs associated with administration of the settlement. The Parties agree to cooperate in the settlement administration process. Defendant shall provide to Class Counsel a copy of any correspondence it receives from Class members concerning settlement administration.

BEST EFFORTS

19. The Parties will use their best efforts to effectuate this Settlement Agreement and secure its approval by the Court and shall confer and consult with each other as appropriate to implement such best efforts. The Parties shall not encourage Class members to exclude themselves from the settlement or object to any portion of this Settlement Agreement.

MISCELLANEOUS

20. This Settlement Agreement and its attachments shall constitute the entire Settlement Agreement of the parties and shall not be subject to any change, modification, amendment, or addition without the express written consent of counsel on behalf of all parties to this Settlement Agreement.

21. This Settlement Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their representatives, heirs, successors, and assigns.

22. Time is of the essence.

23. This Settlement Agreement, and all terms and provisions thereof, shall be construed under and governed exclusively by the laws of the State of South Carolina, without application of any choice of law principles.

24. In the event any one or more of the provisions contained in this Settlement Agreement shall for any reason be held to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable in any respect, such invalidity, illegality, or unenforceability shall not affect any other provision if Defendant and Plaintiff's Counsel, on behalf of the parties, mutually elect to proceed as if such invalid, illegal, or unenforceable provision had never been included in this Settlement Agreement.

25. The Court shall retain continuing and exclusive jurisdiction over the parties hereto, including all members of the Class, and over the enforcement of the settlement and the benefits to the Class hereunder. Any disputes or controversies arising with respect to the interpretation, enforcement, or implementation of the settlement must be made by motion to the Court except the Remediation Reimbursement claim disputes to be arbitrated as set forth above.

26. This Settlement Agreement may be executed in counterparts by the parties hereto, and a facsimile signature shall be deemed an original signature for purposes of this Settlement Agreement.

27. None of the Parties, or their respective counsel, will be deemed the drafter of this Settlement Agreement for purposes of construing the provisions thereof. The language in all parts of this Settlement Agreement will be interpreted according to its fair meaning, and will not be interpreted for or against any of the parties as the drafter thereof.

28. All agreements made and orders entered during the course of the Litigation relating to the confidentiality of information will survive this Settlement Agreement.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

You are NOT being sued. You MUST submit a claim to be eligible for payment.

This notice informs you of a proposed settlement of certain class action claims against Horry Electric Cooperative ("Horry Electric") concerning Horry Electric's Good Cents Program and the vapor barrier specifications. This notice advises you of your rights with respect to the settlement, including the possible right to make a claim for payment, as well as your right to opt out of the settlement or object to the settlement. This notice is being sent to you because you have been identified as a member of a class of persons who may be entitled to the benefits provided by the Settlement Agreement.

This Notice affects your legal rights – Please read this Notice carefully.

READ THIS FIRST

WHY DID I RECEIVE THIS NOTICE? You were sent this notice because you are in the Class certified by the Court, and you previously were mailed a Class Action Notice in January 2013. You may be entitled to receive benefits under a settlement of legal claims relating to the vapor barrier required by Horry Electric's Good Cents Program for New Homes.

DO I HAVE TO DO ANYTHING? If the court approves the settlement and it becomes effective, you will be entitled to file a claim form together with proper supporting documentation showing your entitlement to a payment under the Automatic Payment Fund or the Remediation Fund. You may object to the proposed settlement during the Objection Period if you wish, and you may exclude yourself from the class, in which case you will have the right to file any claim you may have against Horry Electric on your own at your own expense.

WHAT IF MY ADDRESS HAS CHANGED? To assure correct delivery, if your address is different from the one on this envelope, or if you are moving, please notify Class Counsel at 843-238-2676 or by email at nfata@fatalaw.com.

The Basis of the Claims Against Horry Electric. This matter is before the Court because the Class Representatives have alleged that the Horry Electric Good Cents Program's vapor barrier requirement for the interior side of the exterior walls was inappropriate and a design defect, which caused property damage to the homes. The Plaintiffs have asserted claims for breach of warranty, gross negligence, breach of contract, and breach of the covenant of good faith and fair dealing. The Defendant has denied the allegations and has asserted several defenses. The parties engaged in discovery and multiple mediations of the claims, resulting in the proposed settlement here.

Reasons for Settlement. The settlement is between the Class on the one hand and the Defendant on the other, and it includes a release and dismissal with prejudice of the claims of the Class against the Defendant. Class Counsel view this settlement's benefits as advantageous to the Class in light of risks to recovery if litigation continues. The Defendant, while denying that it is liable to anyone and denying that it has committed any wrongdoing, wishes to avoid further lengthy, costly, and time-consuming litigation, to obtain total and final settlement of the Class claims, and to extinguish any liability of the Defendant with respect to the Class claims, as well as the common liability of any joint tortfeasors.

Who is In the Class and What is the Settlement. The "Class" consists of all persons whose homes were enrolled in the Horry Electric Good Cents Program for New Homes who were mailed a Notice of Class Action in January 2013. Under the settlement, you are entitled to file the Claim Form, which is included in this Notice, for either an automatic payment of Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00) OR a reimbursement claim of up to Twelve Thousand Dollars ($12,000.00) if you remove the vapor barrier, subject to the terms of the Settlement Agreement.

You have received this Notice because you were previously determined to be a member of the Class.

Binding Effect. In completing the settlement approval process, Plaintiffs and the Defendant will petition the Court for a Final Order dismissing this Action as to the Class Members with prejudice, and any person in the Class who does not request exclusion from ("opt out of") the settlement will be bound by it.

Attorneys' Fees and Costs. Class Counsel will petition the Court for a class representative incentive award for plaintiffs Tammy Vance and David Montorio of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) each for their work on behalf of the Class and for an award of attorneys' fees and costs of Nine Hundred Ninety Thousand Dollars ($990,000.00) out of the Six Million Dollar ($6,000,000.00) settlement fund as more fully described in the Settlement Agreement.

Obtaining Benefits Under the Settlement. If you are a Class Member as reflected in Defendant's records, you will be entitled to elect between the Automatic Payment Fund or The Remediation Fund by timely submitting the enclosed Claim Form. If the proposed settlement is finally approved, settlement benefits will be administered in accordance with the Settlement Agreement.

Exclusion Requests - "Opting Out." You have the right to request exclusion from ("opt out of") this settlement by advising Class Counsel and Defendant's Counsel in writing at the addresses given below. If you elect to opt out, then you will not receive a payment or receive any other benefits of the settlement. If you elect to opt out, you must mail a request for exclusion on or before _____, 2014 (a date certain forty five (45) days after the first mailing of this Notice to Class Members). Opt-out requests received after such date shall be of no force or effect. If you elect to opt out, you must fill out, sign, and date the enclosed Opt-Out Form and mail it to Class Counsel and Defendant's Counsel on or before _____, 2014.

Objections. If you are a member of the Class, you have the right to object in writing to any part of the proposed settlement. To object, you must both file with the Court and mail to Class Counsel and Defendant's Counsel, no later than _____ (a date certain fifteen (15) days prior to the final fairness hearing, or such other date as the Court may order), a written objection referring specifically to the Vance vs. Horry Electric Class Action pending before the Court of Common Pleas for Horry County, Civil Action No. 2011-CP-26-1266, that includes: (a) your full name and address sufficient to identify your membership in the Class; (b) a notice of intention to appear; (c) the specific grounds for the objection, as well as all documents or writings that you desire the Court to consider; and (d) identification of any previously filed objections in state or federal courts by the Class member and any attorney representing the Class Member. Except for good cause shown, an objector who has not timely filed and served written objections with the requisite information will not be allowed to be heard at the hearing. Any person who fails to appear at the hearing will be deemed to have waived any such objections. To file the objection with the Court, you must mail or personally deliver the original of the written objection by the date specified in this Paragraph to:

Horry County Government & Justice Center
Conway, South Carolina, 29526*

PLEASE DO NOT CALL THE COURT.

Release. The proposed settlement is intended to resolve and terminate all claims that were raised by or on behalf of the Class members concerning the vapor barrier required by Horry Electric's specifications. The proposed settlement, if finally approved by the Court, will result in the release by each Class member of all such claims, as more specifically provided in the Settlement Agreement. The claims against the Defendant alleged in the Complaint will be dismissed with prejudice as to all Class members.

CASE NO. 2011-CP-26-1266

MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFFS' MOTION FOR FINAL APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT AND IN SUPPORT OF
AN AWARD OF ATTORNEYS' FEES AND EXPENSES

FILED
2014 MAY -2
MELANIE HUGGINS
CLERK OF COURT

Plaintiffs, by and through their counsel, submit the following memorandum in support of their motion for entry of an Order granting final approval of the class action settlement and for an award of attorneys' fees and expenses.

I. STATUS OF THE SETTLEMENT

The Court previously certified the Class by Order dated August 28, 2012, which was subsequently modified. On March 3, 2014, the Plaintiffs, through counsel, appeared before the Court, submitted the class action Settlement Agreement and related documents for the Court's thorough review, and requested that the Court preliminarily approve the Settlement Agreement, the forms of notice, and the plan for administering the settlement. This Court then preliminarily approved the settlement, including the proposed notice and the opt-out and claim documents.

To implement the settlement's notice obligations, Defendant timely mailed the notice via United States mail to all Class members at their last known address, and Class Counsel posted the settlement documents at the website www.rpwb.com. Defendant mailed approximately 1080 individual notices. As of the date of the filing of this memorandum, only three requests for exclusion from the settlement have been received from Class members. No objections to the settlement have been raised to date. The parties now request that this Court grant final approval of this settlement. In support of their motion, Plaintiffs incorporate the Affidavits of David Montorio, Nate Fata, Chris Tuck, and Gene Connell.

II. THIS COURT SHOULD GRANT FINAL APPROVAL FOR A REASONABLE SETTLEMENT THAT FACES SUBSTANTIAL RISKS IF LITIGATION CONTINUES.

Rule 23, SCRCP, affords the Court discretion to approve a class action settlement and to direct reasonable notice to the class. The South Carolina Supreme Court and other courts in this State have found federal precedent applying Fed. R. Civ. P. 23 instructive, see, e.g., Salmonsens v. CGD, Inc., 377 S.C. 442, 454, 661 S.E.2d 81, 88 (2008), keeping in mind that Rule 23, SCRCP, is less restrictive than the federal rule. “[W]e are cognizant that our appellate decisions have relied on federal precedent with respect to class action cases, but have also noted the significant differences between the two rules.” Id. at 454-55, 661 S.E.2d at 88 (citing Littlefield v. South Carolina Forestry Commn., 337 S.C. 348, 354, 523 S.E.2d 781, 784 (1999) (“Rule 23, SCRCP, endorses a more expansive view of class action availability than its federal counterpart.”)); see also McGann v. Mungo, 287 S.C. 561, 570, 340 S.E.2d 154, 159 (Ct. App. 1986) (relying on federal precedent to interpret new Rule 23, SCRCP); Chestnut v. AVX Corp., No. 2007-CP-26-7459, 2011 WL 11684474 at *3 (S.C. Ct. Comm. Pleas Aug. 30, 2011) (“It is well settled in South Carolina that the Class Action Rule (SCRCP 23) is more expansive than its federal counterpart”). Accordingly, where appropriate, this memorandum addresses instructive federal precedent.

This Court has already satisfied the first step of the settlement approval process by reviewing the settlement for obvious deficiencies at the preliminary approval stage. See Horton

v. Merrill, Pierce, Fenner & Smith, Inc., 855 F. Supp. 825, 827 (E.D.N.C. 1994); In re Mid Atlantic Toyota Antitrust Litig., 564 F. Supp. 1379, 1384 (D. Md. 1983); MANUAL FOR COMPLEX LITIGATION (Fourth) §§ 21.632, 21.634 (2004). On Plaintiffs' motion for final approval, the Court is now asked to consider whether the proposed settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. Jiffy Lube, 927 F.2d at 158-59 (setting forth fairness and adequacy factors to be considered for approval of class settlement).

A. This Settlement Was Reached As the Result of Arm's Length Negotiations.

The three years of contentious litigation and obvious arms-length settlement negotiations that produced the settlement precludes any finding of collusion. See, e.g., MANUAL, supra, § 21.61 ("Extended litigation between or among adversaries might bolster confidence that the settlement negotiations were at arms' length."). Class Counsel engaged in protracted negotiations and mediations over many months where the outcome was uncertain. It was only on the eve of trial that the parties reached a settlement.

Next, Class Counsel were fully and sufficiently informed to vigorously advocate on behalf of the Class. In addition to the formal discovery that the parties undertook, Class Counsel conducted extensive factual investigation and legal analysis to obtain sufficient information to weigh the benefits of the settlement against the risks of continued litigation. It is on the basis of their investigation that Class Counsel, who have substantial experience prosecuting class actions and negotiating class settlements, recommend approval of the proposed settlement as in the best interests of the Class. See Isby v. Bayh, 75 F.3d 1191, 1200 (7th Cir. 1996) (noting that the court is "entitled to give consideration to the opinion of competent counsel that the settlement [is] fair, reasonable, and adequate"); see also Weinberger v. Kendrick, 698 F.2d 61, 74 (2d Cir. 1982)

(noting that absent fraud, collusion or the like, courts should be hesitant about substituting their own judgment for that of counsel).

B. The Proposed Settlement Satisfies the Adequacy Factors.

Following preliminary approval, courts routinely apply adequacy factors at the final fairness hearing. These adequacy factors include: (i) the relative strength of the plaintiffs' case on the merits; (ii) the existence of any difficulties of proof or strong defenses the plaintiffs are likely to encounter if the case goes to trial; (iii) the anticipated duration and expense of additional litigation; (iv) the solvency of the defendants and the likelihood of recovery of a litigated judgment; and (v) the degree of opposition to the settlement. Jiffy Lube, 927 F.2d at 159; Flinn v. FMC Corp., 528 F.2d at 1169, 1173-74 (4th Cir. 1975).

First, the strength of Plaintiffs' case, balanced against the assured compensation under the settlement, weighs in favor of the adequacy of the settlement. Plaintiffs' ability to prevail on the merits of this litigation, like all contested matters, is uncertain. Even if successful at trial, Defendant has highlighted numerous issues for which it would seek appellate review, including the propriety of class certification. Thus, if this settlement is not finally approved, this matter will proceed to trial and possible appeal at great expense and delay with no certainty as to the eventual outcome.

Second, Defendant's ability to pay a substantial judgment, as a non-profit cooperative, is a legitimate concern. Moreover, the parties are defendants in an action seeking a declaration that Defendant's insurance does not provide coverage for the claims asserted in this matter, so one alternative to settlement (in addition to losing at trial or on appeal) is obtaining a judgment that cannot be satisfied.

Third, opposition to the settlement has been exceedingly small. As mentioned above, only three requests for exclusion from the proposed settlement were received after notice was mailed directly to approximately 1080 Class members, an opt-out percentage of less than 0.3 %.

C. The Court Should Approve $5,000 Incentive Awards to the Class Representatives.

The Class representatives have ably assisted Class Counsel in the investigation and litigation of this action, and they have given their depositions and had their homes inspected by Defendant. Defendant has agreed not to oppose incentive awards of $5,000 each for representatives David Montorio and Tammy Vance, and Class Counsel recommend that such awards be approved by the Court in recognition of their service and cooperation in bringing these claims for the benefit of the Class.

III. CLASS COUNSEL ARE ENTITLED TO AN AWARD OF ATTORNEYS' FEES AND REIMBURSEMENT OF COSTS.

For more than three years, Class Counsel prosecuted claims against Defendant that led to a $6 million¹ settlement on allegations that Defendant's Good Cents Program's vapor barrier requirement for the interior side of the exterior walls was inappropriate and a design defect. This settlement, along with the time expended and expenses incurred in pursuit of the Class claims, demonstrate the scope of Class Counsel's contributions. Through the date of filing of this memorandum, Class Counsel have incurred out-of-pocket expenses in the amount of $40,473.80 and have worked tirelessly with no guarantee of compensation. In recognition of Class Counsel's work and efforts in producing the settlement, the parties agreed in the Settlement Agreement that Defendant would not oppose a fee request of up to $990,000, inclusive of costs and expenses. See Settlement Agreement at 12.

¹ Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, Defendant has established an Automatic Payment Fund of $2.4 million and a Remediation Fund of $3.6 million for a total of $6 million.

For the reasons set forth herein, Class Counsel request that this Court order the payment of reasonable attorneys' fees to Class Counsel, to be paid pro rata from the Automatic Payment Fund and the Remediation Fund, in the amount of $949,526.20,² which is less than 16% of the value of the total fund created for the Class. Class Counsel also request that this Court order the reimbursement of costs and expenses incurred in the amount of $40,473.80 to be paid pro rata from the Automatic Payment Fund and the Remediation Fund.

A. The Requested Award of Attorneys' Fees and Costs Is Supported by South Carolina Law.

An award of attorneys' fees and reimbursement of costs is warranted in this case under the South Carolina common law, which holds that attorneys' fees may be awarded from a common fund created by counsel. Petition of Crum Johnson v. Williams, 196 S.C. 528, 531, 14 S.E.2d 21, 23 (1941) ("[A] court exercising equitable jurisdiction may make an allowance of a reasonable fee out of the common fund . . . for an attorney representing a party who, at his own expense, has maintained a suit for the recovery . . . of a common fund . . . in which others are entitled to share."); First Union Nat'l Bank of S.C. v. Soden, 333 S.C. 554, 511 S.E.2d 372 (Ct. App. 1998); Laymen v. State, 376 S.C. 434, 452, 658 S.E.2d 320, 329 (2008). "The justification for awarding attorneys' fees in this manner is based on the principle that 'one who preserves or protects a common fund works for others as well as for himself, and the others so benefited should bear their just share of the expenses.'" Laymen, 376 S.C. at 452, 658 S.E.2d at 329 (2008) (quoting Petition of Crum Johnson v. Williams, 196 S.C. 528, 531, 14 S.E.2d 21, 23 (1941)).³

² $990,000 (total fee and expenses) - $40,473.80 (expenses) = $949,526.20 (fee).

Before attorneys' fees can be charged to a fund in which others are entitled to share, the following elements must be met: (1) the attorney must preserve or protect a common fund; (2) the attorney's services must have aided in creating . . . the fund, and the services must prove fruitful to the general class; and (3) there must be a "principle of representation or agency as in a class suit, that is, . . . there must be a contract of employment, either expressly made or superinduced by the law upon the facts." First Union Nat'l Bank, 333 S.C. at 573-74, 511 S.E.2d at 382 (emphasis added) (citations omitted). Class Counsel have met each of these elements.

First, Class Counsel have created a common fund represented by the monies paid by Defendant in accordance with the terms of the Settlement Agreement. Second, Class Counsel's services clearly aided in creating the fund, and their services have proved fruitful to the Class, because each qualifying Class member will derive a benefit from the settlement. Third, this is a class action and the Class representatives and Class Counsel, by virtue of Rule 23 and by order of this Court, have been appointed representatives of the Class. Moreover, the contingency fee agreements between the named Plaintiffs and Class Counsel provide for the payment of an attorneys' fee of one-third of any recovery in this case. Accordingly, based upon the common law of this State, Class Counsel are entitled to a reasonable award of attorneys' fees.

In Jackson v. Speed, 326 S.C. 289, 308, 486, S.E.2d 750, 760 (1997), the South Carolina Supreme Court set forth factors to be considered when deciding the amount of attorneys' fees to be awarded. While these factors were not issued in the context of a class action, when applied to this case they demonstrate that the amount of attorneys' fees and costs requested is reasonable.

class actions that establish common-funds for the benefit of the class."); Edmonds v. United States, 658 F. Supp. 1126, 1129 (D.S.C. 1987) (percentage of the fund method employed to determine a reasonable fee).

i. The nature, extent, and difficulty of the case. The case involved numerous complex factual and legal issues. The breadth and scope of fact and expert discovery, coupled with the complex legal issues, demonstrates that the requested fee is justified by the nature, extent, and difficulty of the case.

ii. The time necessarily devoted to the case. Class Counsel expended significant time on the litigation and settlement of this case over a period of three years and will continue to expend significant time while the settlement is implemented.

iii. Professional standing of counsel. Class Counsel are experienced in civil litigation and have particular expertise in class actions. Further, Class Counsel enjoy excellent reputations in the legal community. Finally, Class Counsel have consistently demonstrated their competence, preparedness, tenacity, skill, and perseverance to the Court over the course of this litigation.

iv. Contingency of compensation. As previously noted, the contingency fee agreements between the named Plaintiffs and Class Counsel provide for a contingency fee of one-third of the recovery, if any. The Court is well aware of the risk inherent in contingency fee litigation, where neither recovery for the plaintiff nor compensation for the attorneys who undertake the risk is guaranteed. Additionally, Class Counsel advanced expenses with no assurance of reimbursement.

v. Beneficial results obtained. Class Counsel have secured a real, valuable benefit for the Class totaling $6 million (including the award of attorneys' fees and costs), and all Class members will receive a cash payment.

vi. Customary legal fees for similar services. The attorneys' fee request is consistent with the fees customarily awarded in similar cases. "When awarding attorneys' fees to be paid from a common fund, courts often use the common fund itself as a measure of the litigation's 'success.'" Laymen, 376 S.C. at 453, 658 S.E.2d at 330 (2008). Consequently, courts customarily base the award of attorneys' fees on a percentage of the common fund created. Id. The South Carolina Supreme Court has acknowledged that this percentage-of-the-recovery approach "may be appropriate under circumstances in which a court is given jurisdiction over a common fund from which it must allocate attorneys' fees among a benefited group of litigants." Id. at 453-54, 658 S.E.2d at 330; see also Ex parte Condon, 354 S.C. 634, 636-37, 583 S.E.2d 430, 431 (2003) (approving a circuit court's award of attorneys' fees based on a percentage-of-the-recovery approach where the parties' agreement stipulating that the circuit court would calculate and award attorneys' fees clearly contemplated an award based on a percentage of the common fund recovered).

The attorneys' fees requested here are only 16% of the total common fund. This percentage is well within the range of reasonableness for attorneys' fees in class actions. See Fairey v. Exxon Corp., No. 94-CP-38-118, Order filed October 9, 2003 (First Judicial Circuit) (J. Goodstein) (approving attorneys' fees and costs representing 40% of recovery); Alba Conte & Herbert Newberg, NEWBERG ON CLASS ACTIONS § 14:6 (4th ed. 2002) ("Empirical studies show that . . . fee awards in class actions average around one-third of the recovery.").

B. The Requested Award of Attorneys' Fees and Costs Is Also Supported by the Barber Factors.

The more-stringent factors utilized to determine attorneys' fees in federal class actions are set forth in Barber v. Furniture Distributors, Inc., 577 F.2d 216 (4th Cir. 1978). The application of these factors also demonstrates that the requested attorneys' fees are reasonable.

1. Time and labor required.

Class Counsel have prosecuted this action for more than three years, incurring over $40,000 in out-of-pocket expenses and contributing a significant amount of time and effort. Additional time and effort will be expended in the administration of the settlement.

2. Novelty and difficulty of the questions involved.

This litigation involved complex and novel issues that have been skillfully handled by Class Counsel. The claims were zealously contested from the inception of the case through class certification and merits discovery. It was not until the eve of trial that the parties reached the class-wide resolution embodied in the Settlement Agreement.

3. The skill that is required to perform the legal services properly.

The prosecution of a class action design defect case requires skilled counsel. Few law firms have the experience and resources to pursue such litigation. Given the stakes in this litigation, the complex factual and legal issues involved, and the results obtained for the Class, it is evident that Class Counsel handled this case with an exceptional level of skill.

4. The attorneys' opportunity costs in pressing the litigation.

Class Counsel have expended significant time litigating this case on a contingency fee basis over the past three years. Naturally, the unpaid time spent on this case precluded paid time from being spent on other cases. Moreover, Class Counsel have incurred over $40,000 in costs and expenses that could not be invested in other cases.

5. Customary fee.

As discussed more fully below, courts have routinely awarded attorneys' fees of at least 25% of the common fund. Class Counsel have agreed to limit their request to approximately 16% of the common fund, even though there is ample justification for a much higher percentage.

6. The contingent nature of the matter/the attorneys' expectations at the outset of the litigation.

Class Counsel understood from the outset of this litigation that there would be no attorneys' fee if there was no recovery. Class Counsel worked for years with no payment and at great risk of ultimately receiving no payment at all. Moreover, Class Counsel put at risk their investment of over $40,000 in out-of-pocket expenses.

7. The time limitations imposed by the client or circumstances.

This class action necessitated extensive efforts in briefing, discovery, and protracted settlement negotiations. Class Counsel have obtained a favorable result for the Class in a reasonable period of time despite the difficulty imposed by novel issues and complex negotiations.

8. The amount in controversy and the amount obtained.

There were numerous obstacles to recovery in this case, including class certification and other complex legal issues. Despite these obstacles, Class Counsel obtained a settlement with a minimum award of $2,000 per person up to a maximum award of $12,000 per person. Class Counsel undertook significant obligations and responsibilities in this litigation and produced a result that provides tangible relief to the Class. Without these efforts, it is unlikely that the Class could have obtained any relief whatsoever.

9. The experience, reputation, and ability of counsel.

Class Counsel consist of firms with expertise in complex litigation and with a history of success in difficult, high stakes cases. Richardson, Patrick, Westbrook & Brickman, LLC has an extensive background in class actions and other complex litigation in jurisdictions nationwide. Nate Fata, P.A. also has extensive experience in class actions. Class Counsel submit that their reputation and experience in litigating complex cases assisted the Class in achieving the settlement.

10. The undesirability of the case.

Prior to and during the pendency of this action, no other law firms filed individual or competing class actions against Defendant alleging that Defendant's Good Cents Program's vapor barrier requirement for the interior side of the exterior walls was inappropriate and a design defect. This fact alone makes the undesirability of the case apparent.

11. Nature and length of the professional relationship between attorney and the client.

The Class representatives have ably assisted Class Counsel in the pursuit of the litigation, and there is no indication that the Class representatives are dissatisfied with the representation received from Class Counsel.

12. Attorneys' fees awarded in similar cases.

As discussed more fully below, courts in similar cases have routinely awarded attorneys' fees of at least 25% of the common fund. Class Counsel have agreed to limit their request to approximately 16% of the common fund, even though there is ample justification for a much higher percentage.

C. The Percentage of the Fund, Regardless of Claims Rate or Reverter, Is the Preferred Approach for the Award of Attorneys' Fees to Class Counsel.

The United States Supreme Court has long recognized "that a litigant or a lawyer who recovers a common-fund for the benefit of persons other than himself or his client is entitled to a reasonable attorneys' fee from the fund as a whole." Boeing Co. v. Van Gemert, 444 U.S. 472, 478 (1980). In Boeing, the defendant challenged a common-fund fee award where attorneys' fees were to be awarded from the entire fund, including the unclaimed portion of the judgment fund. Id. at 477. The defendant argued that the district court could only award attorneys' fees from the portion of the fund actually claimed by class members. Id. The Court rejected the defendant's logic, finding in pertinent part:

[T]he [common fund] criteria are satisfied when each member of a certified class has an undisputed and mathematically ascertainable claim to part of a lump-sum judgment recovered on his behalf. Once the class representatives have established the defendant's liability and the total amount of damages, members of the class can obtain their share of the recovery simply by proving their individual claims against the judgment fund. This benefit devolves with certainty upon the identifiable persons whom the court has certified as members of the class.

Id. at 479; see also Skelton v. General Motors Corp., 860 F.2d 250, 254 n.1 (7th Cir. 1988) (a settlement agreement reverter clause failed to distinguish a class settlement from a typical common-fund case because, "[i]n all common-fund cases, the defendant has at least 'a colorable claim' to any unclaimed monies"). Therefore, the existence of a reverter to Defendant of unclaimed funds in this settlement does not preclude an award of attorneys' fees based on a percentage of the total fund. See In Re: Cendant Corp. Prides Litig., 243 F.3d 722, 734 (3d Cir. 2001) ("Though this is not a traditional common-fund case, because the unclaimed portion of the settlement fund is returned to [the defendant] and because the plaintiffs who recover may not be affected by the attorneys' fees award (depending on the number of plaintiffs who recover rights from the funds), use of the percentage-of-recovery method is appropriate in this case.").

D. This Court Should Find Class Counsel's Request for 16% of the Fund to Be Reasonable.

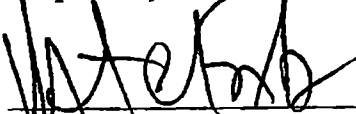

Class Counsel request a fee of less than 16% of the fund. Courts often award 25% to 30% of the fund, and several courts have established benchmarks, subject to upward or downward adjustment, starting at 25%. MANUAL FOR COMPLEX LITIGATION (Fourth) § 14.121; see also Shaw v. Toshiba Am., Info. Sys., Inc., 91 F. Supp. 2d 942, 972 (E.D. Tex. 2000) ("based on the opinions of other courts and the available studies of class action attorneys' fees awards (such as the NERA Study), this Court concludes that attorneys' fees in the range of twenty-five percent (25%) to thirty-three and thirty-four one hundredths percent (33.34%) have been routinely awarded in class actions."); In re: The Mills Corp. Sec. Litig., 265 F.R.D. 246, 264 (E.D. Va. 2009) (survey showing common fund fee awards in the Fourth Circuit and elsewhere ranged from 18% to 30%, inclusive of mega-fund recoveries that typically result in lower percentage awards). Thus, Class Counsel's requested percentage of the fund is below the range of awards typically granted in common benefit class actions.

V. CONCLUSION

For the reasons set forth herein, Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court enter an Order granting final approval of the settlement, approving Class representative incentive awards of $5000, and awarding reasonable attorneys' fees and expense reimbursement in the amount of $990,000. Defendant does not oppose these requests.

Respectfully submitted,

4. In 2013, my firm was associated by Class Counsel Nate Fata on this case. James L. Ward, Jr., another member at this firm, and I were appointed as additional Class Counsel. Katie McElveen, an associate, also worked significant hours on the case. Paralegals assisted as necessary.

5. I am familiar with the nature of the claims and understand the risks in the litigation if settlement is not finally approved.

6. This action has been vigorously defended by opposing counsel from the onset.

7. This settlement is fair and reasonable because it provides substantial relief to the Class.

8. Under the settlement, a Common Fund of Six Million Dollars ($6,000,000) is established. The Common Fund will provide an automatic payment of Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000) to each Class Member or a reimbursement of up to Twelve Thousand Dollars ($12,000) to any Class Member who removes the vapor barrier in the home. The automatic payment fund is Two Million Four Hundred Thousand Dollars ($2,400,000). The reimbursement fund is Three Million Six Hundred Thousand Dollars ($3,600,000). The Class Member can select which payment option he or she desires.

9. The settlement is a fair, fully adequate, and highly desirable resolution of the pending litigation.

10. The complexity, risk, and likely expense of continuing litigation makes approval of the pending settlement highly desirable. The present case has been aggressively litigated. The risks to the Class in continued litigation include substantial delay, an adverse jury decision, appellate review, and the lack of assets and/or insurance proceeds to fund payments to the Class.

11. The settlement was negotiated in numerous formal mediations and subsequent telephone mediations. An experienced attorney, Willard D. Hanna, Jr., mediated the settlement.

12. The Court should approve the settlement as fair, adequate, and reasonable.

13. Class Counsel is requesting an award of attorneys' fees and costs of Nine Hundred Ninety Thousand Dollars ($990,000). The costs to date total Forty Thousand Four Hundred Seventy-Three Dollars and Eighty Cents ($40,473.80).

14. This case has been difficult and time consuming.

15. I have spent significant time on the case, as have other attorneys at my firm.

16. This case had been fully prepared and was ready for trial at the time settlement was reached.

17. The Class litigated issues in a parallel insurance coverage case, Federated Rural Electric Insurance Exchange vs. Horry Electric Cooperative, et al., Civil Action No. 2013-CP-26-3985, which seeks declaratory relief on coverage issues.

18. In this instance, Class Counsel has obtained a highly beneficial result: a Six Million Dollars ($6,000,000) settlement fund.

19. In my experience, it is highly unusual to see a fee request lower than twenty-five percent (25%) of the common fund.

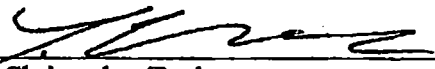

20. The requested fees and costs of Nine Hundred Ninety Nine Thousand Dollars ($990,000) out of Six Million Dollars ($6,000,000) represent less than seventeen percent (17%) of the Fund and are reasonable.

21. To date, no Class Member has objected to the settlement.

22. I respectfully request that the Court award the attorneys' fees and costs of Nine Hundred Ninety Thousand Dollars ($990,000) in accordance with the Settlement Agreement.

CLERK OF COURT

PERSONALLY appeared before me the undersigned, who upon being duly sworn deposes and states the following:

1. I am the sole principal of Nate Fata, P.A. I am licensed to practice law in the United States District Court for South Carolina, the United States Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals, the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, the South Carolina Supreme Court, and the Illinois Supreme Court. I received my law degree from DePaul University in 1993 and began practicing with a medium-size firm in Chicago and was with that firm for a little more than two years.

2. In 1995 I established my practice in South Carolina and have practiced almost exclusively in the area of civil litigation, with an emphasis on consumer litigation.

3. I have tried cases in South Carolina state court and Illinois state court, United States District Court for South Carolina, and the United States Bankruptcy Court in the Northern District of Illinois.

4. Since 1997, I have been a member of the National Association of Consumer Advocates.

5. I have served as a Director on the Board of Directors for the South Carolina Legal Services Corporation.

6. I am and have been a member of the South Carolina Association for Justice, American Association of Justice, South Carolina Bar Association, Horry County Bar Association, and Georgetown County Bar Association.

7. Since 1996, I have handled class actions and have been designated as class counsel by several courts, including the following:

- a. In Re: Heilig Meyers Master Trust Consumer Account Class Litigation, 4:01-4032-25; nationwide settlement class of more than 960,000 consumers whose accounts were mishandled by the Heilig Meyers Master Trust.
- b. Bone v. AT&T, C.A. No. 4:96-3527-12; nationwide settlement class of residential consumers of independent local exchange carriers who were solicited and switched to AT&T for optional long distance calling plans that were not available through independent local exchange carriers.
- c. Gregory v. TranSouth, Case No. 98-CP-26-1581; statewide settlement class of consumers who were charged collateral protection insurance with excessive coverages.
- d. Hammond v. Horry County School District; Case No. 97-CP-26-2563; settlement class of local residents subjected to drainage/flood problems.
- e. Angus v. City of Myrtle Beach, Case No. 99-CP-26-4559; the case was tried to verdict and appealed. The South Carolina Supreme Court reversed the trial court, ultimately resulting in a settlement to the taxpayer class who were overtaxed in 1999-2000.
- f. Moyd v. Insteel Wire Products, Inc., Case No. 04-CP-22-997; settlement class redressing Insteel's failure to pay accrued vacation time to its employees.
- g. Carolyn Kendall v. The Relationship Company, Case No. 05-CP-21-2038; statewide settlement class providing contract benefits to class.

- h. Edwards v. SunCom, Case No. 02-CP-26-3539; statewide settlement class providing cash refunds to more than 6,000 South Carolinians in connection with early termination fees.
- i. Robinson v. Marion Regional Healthcare System, Case No. 2007-CP-33-121. Reimbursement class for patients whose health insurance claims were improperly processed.

8. In 2011 I was retained by David Montorio and Tammy Vance concerning the vapor barrier issue addressed in this case.

9. I was retained on a one-third contingency basis under a written fee agreement.

10. During the investigation and prosecution of this case, I have become intimately familiar with the nature of the claims.

11. This action has been vigorously defended by opposing counsel from the onset.

12. This settlement is fair and reasonable because it provides substantial relief to the class.

13. Under the Settlement, a Common Fund of Six Million Dollars ($6,000,000) is established. The Common Fund will provide an automatic payment of Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000) to each homeowner or a reimbursement of up to Twelve Thousand Dollars ($12,000) to any Class Member who removes the vapor barrier in the home. The automatic payment fund is Two Million Four Hundred Thousand Dollars ($2,400,000). The reimbursement fund is Three Million Six Hundred Thousand Dollars ($3,600,000). The Class Member can select which payment option he desires.

14. The present settlement is a fair, fully adequate and highly desirable resolution of the pending litigation.

15. The complexity and likely expense of continuing litigation makes approval of the pending settlement highly desirable. The present case has been aggressively litigated. One main purpose for settlement is to avoid continuation of such procedural hostilities and the associated exhaustion of the resources of both the judiciary and the parties, which can under the settlement be dedicated to more productive pursuits.

16. Continued litigation will decrease the likelihood of providing meaningful recovery to all class members. Accordingly, the factor of avoiding delay in realizing benefit for the affected class members, like the avoidance of unnecessary litigation costs, also militates in favor of the proposed settlement at this juncture.

17. The settlement was negotiated in four (4) formal mediations and subsequent telephone mediations spanning fourteen months. An experienced, complex litigation attorney, Willard D. Hanna, Jr., mediated the settlement.

18. The Court should approve the settlement as fair and reasonable.

19. Class Counsel is requesting an award of attorney's fees and costs of Nine Hundred Ninety Thousand Dollars ($990,000). The costs total Forty Thousand Four Hundred Seventy Three Dollars and Eighty Cents ($40,473.80).

20. This case has been difficult and time consuming.

21. Over the course of three and one-half years, I have spent significant time on the case.

22. The Court file reflects that over one hundred (100) pleadings have been filed in this case, of which Class Counsel authored at least fifty (50). Over one hundred ten (110) discovery items have been prepared and served of which Class Counsel authored at least fifty seven (57).

23. Twenty (20) depositions were taken. Plaintiffs retained three (3) experts. In addition, the Class litigated issues in a parallel insurance coverage case, Federated Rural Electric Insurance Exchange vs. Horry Electric Cooperative, et al., Civil Action No. 2013-CP-26-3985, which sought declaratory relief on coverage issues.

24. I have litigated class cases in the past and been appointed as class counsel on nearly a dozen cases.

25. In this instance, Class Counsel has obtained a highly beneficial result: a Six Million Dollar ($6,000,000) settlement fund.

26. The one-third contingency fee that is set forth in the fee agreement is customary in these type of cases. The case was extremely risky with the prospect of very long litigation and the possibility of no recovery.

27. Legal fees of one-third are typical for common fund cases such as this.

28. The requested fees and costs of Nine Hundred Ninety Nine Thousand Dollars ($990,000) out of Six Million Dollars ($6,000,000) represent less than seventeen percent (17%) of the Fund and is reasonable.

29. From time to time, this matter would consume my entire practice such that I would not work on any other matters for the entire day.

30. I am a sole practitioner. The sacrifices made to move this case along have been significant.

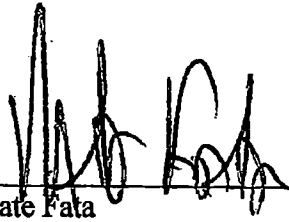

31. More than one thousand (1,000) mail notices were sent to class members. To date, less than five (5) class members have opted out of the settlement.

32. To date, no class member has objected to the settlement.

33. I respectfully request that the Court award the attorney's fees and costs requested of Nine Hundred Ninety Thousand Dollars ($990,000) in accordance with the Settlement Agreement.

AFFIDAVIT OF
GENE M. CONNELL, JR.
IN SUPPORT OF

FILED
HORRY COUNTY
2014 MAY -2 AM 11:43
MELANIE HUGGINS-WARD
CLERK OF COURT

PERSONALLY APPEARED BEFORE ME, Gene M. Connell, Jr., who first being duly sworn, deposes and states as follows:

I. PURPOSE OF AFFIDAVIT

Counsel has prepared this Affidavit as an expert witness in support of attorney's fees and costs award in the above-captioned matter.

II. BACKGROUND OF EXPERT WITNESS

1. My name is Gene M. Connell, Jr. I am a member of the firm of Kelaher, Connell & Connor, P.C. I am licensed to practice law in the United States District Court for South Carolina, the United States Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals, the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, the United States Court of Claims, the United States Supreme Court, and the South Carolina Supreme Court. I graduated from the University of South Carolina Law School in 1983 and served as Law Clerk to the Honorable Ralph King Anderson, Jr. before I began a private practice in Surfside Beach, South Carolina. I practice almost exclusively in the area of complex civil litigation, with special emphasis on consumer class actions and class actions in general. In my career, I have tried several hundred jury cases, have argued countless motions, have filed and argued appeals before State Circuit Courts, Federal Courts, Federal Courts of Appeal, the South Carolina Court of Appeals, the South Carolina Supreme Court, and the United States Court of Federal Claims.

2. I have also had the opportunity to be involved in three separate cases which were filed in The United States Supreme Court. I participated in the preparation of the brief and argument before the United States Supreme Court in Harper v. Virginia Department of Taxation, 509 U.S. Sup. Ct. 86 (1993), a class action regarding taxation of retirement benefits by the State of South Carolina and Virginia on federal retirees. I have been a mediator in over 250 cases filed in State and Federal Court. I have been appointed by the Circuit Court to be the Special Referee approximately 40 times. I have been an Arbitrator in approximately 50 cases filed in State and Federal Court, including complex civil cases such as construction litigation, real estate litigation declaratory judgments, insurance claims, and product liability claims.

3. I have also been involved in Class Actions in both State and Federal Court. I was principal trial attorney in the case of Bass v. State of South Carolina. 307 S.C. 13; 414 S.E.2d 110, vacated 113 S.Ct. 3025, 509 U.S. 916, 125 L.Ed. 2d 6714 (1994); Civil Action No. 89-CP-26-1136; a case involving 64,000 Federal retirees who brought an action against the South Carolina Department of Revenue for return of state taxes which had been collected on Federal pensions. This case went to the South Carolina Supreme Court on two occasions and the United States Supreme Court on two occasions. Eventually, a class action settlement was reached in 1994 in which approximately $89 million was refunded to Federal retirees throughout South Carolina. I have been told this is the largest class action settlement ever against the State of South Carolina. The fee in Bass was 19.5% of the total amount of the settlement.

4. I have also been involved in other class actions, including the following:
- (a) Bronnie Bowen v. United States Capital Corporation, 295 S.C. 201, 367 S.E.2d 474 (1985). This case involved purchasers of condominiums who did not receive interest on their presale deposits. It was certified by the Circuit Court after an appeal to the South Carolina Court of Appeals and later settled.
 - (b) *Mariners Point Homeowners Association v. UDC-Universal Development L.P. d/b/a UDC Homes Limited Partnership, v. Jon Guerrv Taylor. P.C. A companion case was also certified as a class action by the Circuit Court.
 - (c) The Palace Homeowners' Association, Inc. v. Kathy James. Jeff Hand Phyllis Taylor; Civil Action No. 95-CP-26-1195; a class action involving all the homeowners at the Palace regarding improper telephone charges, construction defects, and the like. The class was settled and was certified at settlement by the Circuit Court. (The relief obtained was injunctive.)
 - (d) Timothy L. Phillips and Andrea L. Phillips v. Grand Strand Water and Sewer Authority; Civil Action No. 95-CP-26-1805; a class action brought by the Plaintiffs against Grand Strand Water and Sewer Authority for collection of improper water and sewer fees which was certified by the Circuit Court.
 - (e) AT&T Optional Calling Plan Class Litigation: Bone, Schurman, Medley, et al. v. Horry Telephone Coop., Inc., AT&T Corp., AT&T Communications, Inc. AT&T Communications of the Southern States, Inc., and West Telemarketing Outbound Corporation; Civil Action Nos. 4:96-3527-12, 4:97-2635-12 and 4:99-2712-12. A nationwide federal class action in which a settlement was reached wherein the Defendants agreed to pay up to $40 Million for deceptive trade practices and unreasonable billing practices in monetary and non-monetary benefits.
 - (f) Darian Gregory, et al. v. TranSouth Financial Corp., et al.; Civil Action No. 98-CP-26-1581; a state court class action certified over illegal/unlawful charges made to debtors on their accounts.

- (h) I have also been involved in several unsuccessful class actions including: Davis v. Nationsbank, 326 S.C. 83, 484 S.E.2d 471 (S.C. 1997) appealed to the South Carolina Supreme Court and lost on the merits; Sloan v. City of Conway, 347 S.C. 324, 555 S.E.2d 684 (2001), also appealed to the South Carolina Supreme Court and lost on the merits.
- (i) I also was involved as principal counsel in the case of William T. Fletcher, et al. v. Barefoot RV Resort, Inc., et al.; Civil Action No. 2005-CP-26-2632; a class action involving approximately 350 individuals who had campsites at the Barefoot RV Resort Park. Those individuals had long-term leases and were told they had to leave the park. A class was brought and certified.
- (j) James Arnold, et al. v. South Carolina Police Officers Retirement System, et al.; Civil Action No. 2005-CP-22-756. This matter involved police officers throughout the state who sued the State of South Carolina for retirement benefits on their pensions. The South Carolina Supreme Court reversed the trial court May 23, 2011 and found for the State in a 3-2 decision.
- (k) Judith A. Parker, et al. v. CFI Sales & Marketing, Ltd, et al., Civil Action No. 2007-CP-26-5478, a class action certified by the Circuit court regarding failure to pay wages to former employers. It was settled.

- (m) I have also recently settled a case entitled Jeffrey Barber, et al. v. BCG Properties, LLC, et al.; Civil Action No. 2005-CP-26-6015. This case involves a class action certified for individuals who have made deposits on condominiums at a failed resort located in North Myrtle Beach, South Carolina.
- (n) I also settled the case of John Clarke, et al. v. Elbi of America, Inc., et al.; Civil Action No. 4:09-cv-02141 in the United States District Court, Florence Division, Florence, South Carolina, a putative class action for rupture of defective expansion tanks in various condominium units throughout the southeast. The parties settled the claim and the circuit court approved the settlement.

5. I have been qualified and testified as an expert in regard to attorneys' fees in several class action cases:

- (a) I testified in Pickens County, South Carolina in November, 1999 in the case of In Re: South Carolina Workers' Compensation Insurance Litigation. The State of South Carolina ex relatione, T. Travis Medlock Attorney General vs. National Council on Compensation Insurance, Inc.: National Workers' Compensation Reinsurance Pool: Employers Insurance of Wausau. a Mutual Company: Fidelity and Casualty Company of New York: Granite State Insurance Company: Hartford Underwriters Insurance Company: Insurance Company of North America: Liberty Mutual Insurance Company: Travelers Insurance Company: and United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company: Case No. 94-CP-23-2428. In that case, a class action settlement was approved by the Court of approximately $24.5 million dollars. The case involved excessive rate changes by insurance companies which were refunded to South Carolina businesses. The Circuit Court approved a fee of 25% of the common fund for class counsel.
- (b) I was also an expert witness and testified in the case of C. Bruce Littlejohn, on behalf of himself and all other similarly situated v. State of South Carolina, et al.; Case No. 00-CP-40-2666, wherein I was the principal expert on attorneys' fees.
- (c) I have also been an expert on attorneys' fees in another case before The Honorable Terry Wooten entitled: In Re: Heilig-Meyers Master Trust Consumer Account Class Litigation: Dawn Vandeußen, individually and as class representative on behalf of all those similarly situated v. Heilig-Meyers Master Trust, First Union National Bank, as Trustee OSI Portfolio Services, Inc. and NCO Financial systems, Inc. Civil Action No. 4:01-4082-25 and William Haigler, individually and as class representative on behalf of all those similarly situated v. Heilig-Meyers Master Trust, First Union National Bank, as Trustee and Cascade Treasury Services, Inc.; Civil Action No. 4:01-2295-25.
- (d) I have also provided expert testimony in the case of Franklin E. Clark, et al v. Experian Information Solutions, Civil Action No. 8:00-CV-1217-24; Franklin E. Clark, et al v. Equifax, Inc., et al., Civil Action No.8:00-CV-1218-24; and Franklin E. Clark, et al v. Trans Union Corp., et al.; Civil Action No 8-00-CV-1219-24 in the United States District Court, District of South Carolina, Anderson Division; a class action where the United States District Court approved attorney's fees in a case involving credit reports of people nationwide.

- (e) I have most recently provided expert testimony in the case of Layman v. The State of South Carolina, 368 S.C. 631, 630 S.E.2d 265 (2006), a published decision of the South Carolina Supreme Court regarding attorney's fees.

6. I am also currently working on the following class actions:

(a) Clint A. Chestnut, et al v. AVX Corporation; Civil Action No. 4:07-CV-04152. This class action involves environmental contamination within a ten-city block area of Myrtle Beach and was certified by the Circuit Court.

(b) William F. Tomz, et al. v. Capital Investment Funding, LLC, et al.; Civil Action No. 2008-CP-26-1059. This case involves a certified class action brought to recover monies loaned by the Plaintiff class to Capital Investment Funding, as investors.

III. THE VANCE CASE

A. Time expended by counsel.

I have had an opportunity to review the Vance case which is before this court. I have had numerous conversations over the past three years with Plaintiff's counsel regarding this case and the subject of this case. I suspect that Plaintiff's counsel has spent over 1,000 hours in the prosecution of this matter. I base this on a review of the Affidavit of Plaintiff's counsel, Nate Fata, a review of the pleadings, a review of the Affidavit in Support of Plaintiff's Motion for Attorney's Fees, the settlement agreement and the class representative affidavit.

It is obvious this case required extensive research of the law. The files of Plaintiff's counsel are numerous and reveal briefs and drafts of briefs which have been written over the past three years. The files also reveal many hours writing the complaint, the class certification briefs, the motions to compel and the briefs to this court.

B. Professional standing of counsel.

As has been stated above, counsel for the Plaintiff in this case has extensive involvement with this class action, has taken this case and prosecuted it successfully over three years, has costs and extensive time and has been involved in litigation similar to this over the past ten years. Further, counsel for Plaintiff has substantial class action experience which is detailed in his Affidavit which I have reviewed.

C. Success in litigation.

As has been explained above, counsel has successfully prosecuted this case. Counsel has prevailed on all causes of action by settling this case and thus attorney's fees are clearly appropriate. In this case, it has taken over three years from the date the lawsuit was filed until the date each of the class members is to receive their payment. During each step, class counsel expended his own funds for costs, participated in discovery, had countless hearings, supervised the sending of one thousand notices, talked to numerous class members, and successfully obtained relief from the Defendant. All of this, in my opinion, has taken over 1,000 hours of class counsel's time from the date Vance first walked into his office until the date that the notices are to be mailed. Accordingly, I request that this Court grant counsel's attorney's fee of 17% which is very reasonable based on a review of the files.

D. Amount requested.

I have reviewed extensively the attorney's fee Affidavit of Nate Fata. It appears that a settlement fund of $6,000,000.00 was created by class counsel. It also appears that class counsel has achieved an excellent result for the Plaintiff class. Each member of the Plaintiff class will receive at their option a minimum of $2,000.00. Those class members have been identified. Further, the class members can get greater benefits by filing a claim form if they so desire which includes the removal of the vapor barrier in their home (up to $12,000.00 per class member). The claims process is easy and consumer oriented. The attorney's fee affidavit for Nate Fata requests attorney's fees of $990,000.00 including costs of $40,473.80. This is an extremely reasonable fee request in light of the amount of work done by Nate Fata and co-counsel. The file reveals voluminous pleadings including extensive research on the unusual issues in this case.

All of this supports class counsel's request for an attorney's fee as stated above and indeed would support a greater attorney's fee than what is requested.

It is my opinion to a reasonable degree of certainty as an individual who has been qualified as an expert witness in the field of class actions and class action attorney's fee awards that the court should grant the class action attorney's fee request and approve this settlement. I find the results to be excellent and I without reservation request the court approve this most reasonable attorney's fee and cost request.

E. Conclusion.

Finally, I believe the settlement proposal is very reasonable and that class counsel received outstanding results. Also, the attorney's fee award complies with applicable state law and South Carolina Supreme Court precedent including those factors listed in Littlejohn v. State of South Carolina, 583 S.E. 2d 430 (2003). Based on the excellent results obtained, I recommend the settlement as fair and just and request the Court approve the attorney's fee award of $990,000.00 including costs of $40,473.80.

FURTHER THE AFFLIANT SAYETH NOT.

Dear ____: Please be advised that Horry Electric Cooperative checked to make sure all of the homes of the class members met the definition to participate in the class action settlement where you made a claim for settlement proceeds. To be a member in the class, the cooperative member had to be a homeowner of a new good cents program home that has a vapor barrier on the inside of the exterior walls and was included by Horry Electric Cooperative in the new Good Cents program.

You received prior notices in this litigation because you were initially identified in Horry Electric records as a class member. Our investigation for claims processing, however, has identified a small number of claimants who may have been inadvertently included in the class.

In your situation, our review revealed that your home is a manufactured home and does not fall within the class who would be entitled to make a claim of $2,000.00. If you disagree with this assessment, please contact Nate Fata at P.O. Box 16620, Surfside Beach, SC 29587, telephone 843-238-2676, within 30 days of this letter.

If Horry Electric does not receive additional information that would verify your ability to recover in this settlement, the Court will be asked to disqualify you from participation. You will receive notice of that hearing so that you have an opportunity to attend and state any disagreement with Horry Electric's findings.

of manufactured homes by some class members. Horry also provided an affidavit from Kelley A. Wilson¹, the insurance company representative for Horry, who has added to the confusion of settlement administration by providing a list of paid claimants, using Horry's narrowed criteria, but under circumstances where Plaintiffs cannot affirmatively link all names to Horry's original claimant list.

For the reasons set forth below, the Court should require Horry to compensate the class members as directed in the Settlement Agreement and the Final Approval Order. As part and parcel of the Order, the Court should also sanction Horry for its delay by awarding interest to class members and requiring the payment of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs to class counsel for efforts required to collect class member payments.

ARGUMENT

- I. The Court should prevent Horry's unilateral non-payment to categories of claimants because Horry twice approved the manner and direction of notice to the class, and such representations were relied upon by the class.

It is undisputed in this action that the class membership list was generated and approved by Horry. The class list was provided by Horry at the time of class certification and, upon settlement of the previously authorized litigation class, the parties utilized that same list of Good Cents homeowners for notice. The Settlement Agreement of the parties, dated February 28, 2014, specifically defined the "Class" as "each person on the HEC list attached hereto as Exhibit A, but excluding those persons who previously opted out of the Class as indicated on Exhibit B." See Settlement Agreement at p. 3. Horry thus had at least two opportunities to gather, review, and agree to the composition of class membership prior to the submission of the settlement for preliminary and final approval. Those class members receiving notice then relied on their inclusion in the class for the resolution of any claims they wished to press against Horry, and those same class members relied upon the representations of the parties that they were entitled to participate in the settlement proceeds following entry of the Final Approval Order. This Court, in fact, specifically found that "Notice to the Class including, but not limited to, the forms of notice and methods of identifying and notifying members of the Class, has been given in an adequate and sufficient manner, constituting the best notice practicable, satisfying and complying in all respects with S.C.R.C.P. 23 and due process." See Final Approval Order at p. 2.

Horry's ex post facto unilateral pronouncement that it now wishes to narrow the scope of paid claimants constitutes a direct violation of the Settlement Agreement and the Final Approval Order issued here. Because this Court retains "jurisdiction over all matters relating to the administration and consummation of the Agreement,"² the Court should find that Horry either waived its objection to class membership or it should be estopped from asserting such objections at this late stage.

II. In the alternative, this Court should not assess the merits of Horry's motion in light of the incomplete information provided by Horry to class counsel.

The improvident nature of Horry's request is reflected in the raw data. Class counsel attempted to reconcile the Horry claimant list, marked here as Exhibit A, with the paid list of claimants, reflected as Exhibit B. Class counsel coded claimants who appear on both Exhibit A and Exhibit B with a green shade. Those claimants who are reported to live in a mobile home, which under Horry's revised criteria would not prompt a payment, are shaded in red on Exhibit A. Some claimants have multiple entries listed on Exhibit A, thus creating confusion as to whether there are multiple claims for additional properties for such claimants, and those people have been shaded in beige.³ The remaining individuals, shaded white or gray, constitute people who have not received payment for a variety of reasons, including: (a) Horry could not verify the names; (b) Horry could not verify property ownership through county land records; or (c) Horry is awaiting a later claim for remediation.

Additional confusion arises when comparing the names listed on Exhibit B (meaning those claimants who have received a check) to Exhibit A, where certain claimants do not appear in an obvious form. Stated simply, any paid claimant on Exhibit B should appear on Exhibit A because Exhibit A contains the full universe of claimants. If names of claimants have changed for reporting purposes by class members for check receipt, such information is not noted by Horry. Nor are any other reasons noted. Plaintiffs identify the following individuals who appear on Exhibit B as paid claimants but are omitted from Exhibit A: Livingston Dennis, Barbara Willard, Gary Garofalo, John Stephen McSweeney, John & Ranessa Norton, Verona Merino, Rudolph Rogers, Jeanita Christian, Michael Tersigni, Robert Taylor, Robert Richard Rush, Carlyle Austin SR Buckner, Debra L. Thompson, Lanny H. White, James Morris, Timothy Patton, Haydee Ortiz, Sandra Alfieri, Susan Emily Nehal, Pamela Moore, Mary Beth Willoughby, Josephine Churchill Jenkins, Linda Harrelson-Holmes, Allen Vincent Stanley, Jerome James Lucido, Jimmie & Margaret Taylor, James Cordell Hucks, James T. Phillips, Robin S. Holland, and Robert Michael Maguire.⁴

In sum, Horry's identification methods create confusion where none should be present. Horry twice agreed on the composition of the class and this Court itself approved the class list. Those identified class members received notice and an opportunity to make a claim. Horry's sua sponte narrowing of that list is chaotic and confusing and fails to establish (a) the reasons for the inaccuracies in Horry's twice-approved list⁵ and (b) the rationale and proof of exclusion for each unpaid claimant.

One example perfectly illustrates this point. A named class representative in this action, David Montorio, has been identified by Horry as an individual who cannot receive payment. Horry has deposed Mr. Montorio, participated in mediations with him, and should have a complete mastery of his property ownership. Horry conceded in the Settlement Agreement that Mr. Montorio could serve as a proper representative for the class. Yet even now it refuses to release a check to him for unknown reasons. Mr. Montorio's exclusion highlights the nonsensical and unreliable quality to Horry's administrative work.

III. This Court should enter an Order to remedy Horry's settlement administration abuses.

Class counsel recommends that this Court adopt the following steps to enforce the Final Approval Order and ensure effective administration of the Settlement Agreement:

1. Horry should immediately transmit payment to all non-remediation claimants listed on Exhibit A, including an interest calculation, and it should provide such proof of payment to class counsel;
2. Horry should be required to reconcile all names listed in Exhibits A and B so that class counsel can ensure all claimants have been paid;
3. In the event the Court finds that certain class members should not receive payment, the Court should require an enhanced showing by Horry sufficient to set forth (for each

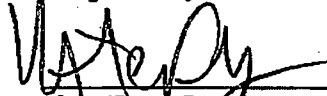

⁵ As a practical matter the class list was approved five times when combining Horry approval and Court approval. One occurred prior to notice of the litigation class when the class list was approved by Horry; the second occurred when the Court approved the form of notice for the litigation class; the third occurred when Horry reaffirmed the class list at settlement; the fourth occurred upon entry of preliminary approval; and the fifth occurred at final approval.

- affected claimant) the proof necessary to exclude that person from recovery;
4. Because Horry has repeatedly taken the position that the class list is accurate (at least until payment processing), this Court should require Horry to submit to a corporate designee deposition and written discovery related to its class membership findings prior to any class member exclusion;
 5. In the event the Court finds that any claimants should be excluded, the Court should require Horry to undertake a remedial notice to be approved by the Court that will provide such class members with an opportunity to be heard and object to exclusion;
 6. Any remedial notice should inform class members that if they are deemed excluded, such class members are not bound to the class release and they may pursue individual claims; and
 7. The Court should order Horry to pay, upon completion of the administrative review, all reasonable fees and expenses incurred by class counsel for the enforcement of Horry's settlement obligations.

CONCLUSION

Based on the above arguments, the record, and all additional matters to be raised at any hearing, the Court should grant this Motion so that this settlement can be concluded.

Respectfully submitted,

County land records, the inability to verify class membership through Good Cents lists, and the ownership of manufactured homes by some class members. Horry also provided an affidavit from Kelley A. Wilson,¹ the insurance company representative for Horry, who has added to the confusion of settlement administration by providing a list of paid claimants, using Horry's narrowed criteria, but under circumstances where Plaintiffs cannot affirmatively link all names to Horry's original claimant list.

For the reasons set forth below, the Court should deny Horry's Motion and require Horry to compensate the class members as directed in the Settlement Agreement and the Final Approval Order. As part and parcel of the Order, the Court should also sanction Horry for its delay by awarding interest to class members and requiring the payment of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs to class counsel for efforts required to collect class member payments.

ARGUMENT

I. The Court should prevent Horry's unilateral non-payment to categories of claimants because Horry twice approved the manner and direction of notice to the class, and such representations were relied upon by the class.

It is undisputed in this action that the class membership list was generated and approved by Horry. The class list was provided by Horry at the time of class certification and, upon settlement of the previously authorized litigation class, the parties utilized that same list of Good Cents homeowners to provide notice of the class settlement. The Settlement Agreement of the parties, dated February 28, 2014, specifically defined the "Class" as "each person on the HEC list attached hereto as Exhibit A, but excluding those persons who previously opted out of the Class as indicated on Exhibit B." See Settlement Agreement at 3. Horry thus had at least two opportunities to gather, review, and agree to the composition of class membership prior to the submission of the settlement for preliminary and final approval. Those class members receiving notice then relied on their inclusion in the class for the resolution of any claims they wished to press against Horry, and those same class members relied upon the representations of the parties that they were entitled to participate in the settlement proceeds following entry of the Final Approval Order. This Court, in fact, specifically found that “Notice to the Class including, but not limited to, the forms of notice and methods of identifying and notifying members of the Class, has been given in an adequate and sufficient manner, constituting the best notice practicable, satisfying and complying in all respects with S.C.R.C.P. 23 and due process.” See Final Approval Order at 2.

Horry’s ex post facto unilateral pronouncement that it now wishes to narrow the scope of paid claimants constitutes a direct violation of the Settlement Agreement and the Final Approval Order issued here. Because this Court retains “jurisdiction over all matters relating to the administration and consummation of the Agreement,”² the Court should find that Horry either waived its objection to class membership or it should be estopped from asserting such objections at this late stage.

II. In the alternative, this Court should not assess the merits of Horry’s motion in light of the incomplete information provided by Horry to class counsel.

The improvident nature of Horry’s request is reflected in the raw data. Class counsel attempted to reconcile the Horry claimant list, marked here as Exhibit A, with the paid list of claimants, reflected as Exhibit B. Class counsel coded claimants who appear on both Exhibit A and Exhibit B with a green shade. Those claimants who are reported to live in a mobile home, which under Horry’s revised criteria would not prompt a payment, are shaded in red on Exhibit A. Some claimants have multiple entries listed on Exhibit A, thus creating confusion as to whether there are multiple claims for additional properties for such claimants, and those people have been shaded in beige.³ The remaining individuals, shaded white or gray, constitute people who have not received payment for a variety of reasons, including: (a) Horry could not verify the names; (b) Horry could not verify property ownership through county land records; or (c) Horry is awaiting a later claim for remediation.

Additional confusion arises when comparing the names listed on Exhibit B (meaning those claimants who have received a check) to Exhibit A, where certain claimants do not appear in an obvious form. Stated simply, any paid claimant on Exhibit B should appear on Exhibit A because Exhibit A contains the full universe of claimants. If names of claimants have changed for reporting purposes by class members for check receipt, such information is not noted by Horry. Nor are any other reasons noted. Plaintiffs identify the following individuals who appear on Exhibit B as paid claimants but are omitted from Exhibit A: Livingston Dennis, Barbara Willard, Gary Garofalo, John Stephen McSweeney, John & Ranessa Norton, Verona Merino, Rudolph Rogers, Jeanita Christian, Michael Tersigni, Robert Taylor, Robert Richard Rush, Carlyle Austin SR Buckner, Debra L. Thompson, Lanny H. White, James Morris, Timothy Patton, Haydee Ortiz, Sandra Alfieri, Susan Emily Nehal, Pamela Moore, Mary Beth Willoughby, Josephine Churchill Jenkins, Linda Harrelson-Holmes, Allen Vincent Stanley, Jerome James Lucido, Jimmie & Margaret Taylor, James Cordell Hucks, James T. Phillips, Robin S. Holland, and Robert Michael Maguire.⁴

In sum, Horry's identification methods create confusion where none should be present. Horry twice agreed on the composition of the class and this Court itself approved the class list. Those identified class members received notice and an opportunity to make a claim. Horry's sua sponte narrowing of that list is chaotic and confusing and fails to establish (a) the reasons for the inaccuracies in Horry's twice-approved list⁵ and (b) the rationale and proof of exclusion for each unpaid claimant.

³ The name of Richard Alfeiri appears twice but is not shaded beige because his name is not listed on the Exhibit B for paid claimants.

One example perfectly illustrates this point. A named class representative in this action, David Montorio, has been identified by Horry as an individual who cannot receive payment. Horry has deposed Mr. Montorio, participated in mediations with him, and should have a complete mastery of his property ownership. Horry conceded in the Settlement Agreement that Mr. Montorio could serve as a proper representative for the class. Yet even now it refuses to release a check to him for unknown reasons. Mr. Montorio's exclusion highlights the nonsensical and unreliable quality of Horry's administrative work.

III. This Court should enter an Order to remedy Horry's settlement administration abuses.

Class counsel recommends that this Court adopt the following steps to enforce the Final Approval Order and ensure effective administration of the Settlement Agreement:

1. Horry should immediately transmit payment to all non-remediation claimants listed on Exhibit A, including an interest calculation, and it should provide such proof of payment to class counsel;
2. Horry should be required to reconcile all names listed in Exhibits A and B so that class counsel can ensure all claimants have been paid;
3. In the event the Court finds that certain class members should not receive payment, the Court should require an enhanced showing by Horry sufficient to set forth (for each affected claimant) the proof necessary to exclude that person from recovery;

4. Because Horry has repeatedly taken the position that the class list is accurate (at least until payment processing), this Court should require Horry to submit to a corporate designee deposition and written discovery related to its class membership findings prior to any class member exclusion;
5. In the event the Court finds that any claimants should be excluded, the Court should require Horry to undertake a remedial notice to be approved by the Court that will provide such class members with an opportunity to be heard and object to exclusion;
6. Any remedial notice should inform class members that if they are deemed excluded, such class members are not bound to the class release and they may pursue individual claims; and
7. The Court should order Horry to pay, upon completion of the administrative review, all reasonable fees and expenses incurred by class counsel for the enforcement of Horry's settlement obligations.

CONCLUSION

Based on the above arguments, the record, and all additional matters to be raised at any hearing, the Court should deny Defendant's Motion and grant the relief sought herein by Plaintiffs and the class so that this settlement can be concluded.

Respectfully submitted,

FIFTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
CASE NO: 2011-CP-26-1266

PLAINTIFF CLASS' NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION TO STRIKE AFFIDAVIT OF KELLEY WILSON AND EDDY BLACKBURN

TO HORRY ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE AND ITS COUNSEL POPE JOHNSON, ESQ:

YOU WILL PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that the undersigned Class Counsel for Plaintiff Class will move before the presiding Judge, ten (10) days after service hereof or as soon as counsel may be heard, for an Order striking the Affidavits of Kelley Wilson and Eddy Blackburn submitted in support of Horry Electric's Motion dated August 15, 2014.

This class action was settled by Order of the Court on May 30, 2014. Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, which was adopted and incorporated into the Order, class members were identified by Horry Electric. Horry Electric prepared the list of class members which was included as an exhibit to the Settlement Agreement. Thereafter, notice was sent to the class members advising them of the settlement options. One of the two settlement options was that class members could choose an automatic payment in the amount of $2,000.00 by completing a simple claim form. Horry Electric was to administer the settlement.

The insurance carrier for Horry Electric, Federated Insurance Company, through Kelley Wilson, its attorney, has made unilateral decisions to deny payment of claims to persons Horry

Electric included as class members. These claim denials do not comply with the Settlement Agreement or the Court's Order. In an attempt to justify the denial of valid claims, Wilson signed an Affidavit not based on personal knowledge but based on hearsay and speculation. The Court should strike her Affidavit.

Similarly, Eddy Blackburn signed an Affidavit without personal knowledge. He does not aver that he has personal knowledge that each home on a list is a manufactured home. He has not testified that he saw each home. Blackburn was involved with the generation of the class list, and now he says it's not accurate. The Court should strike Blackburn's Affidavit.

This Motion is based on the record, the pleadings and any other matters to be raised at the hearing.

The undersigned certifies that he cannot resolve the instant motion with opposing counsel and any further consultation would be futile.

WHEREFORE, the undersigned prays that the Court enter an Order striking the attached Affidavit of Kelley Wilson and the Affidavit of Eddy Blackburn.

Respectfully submitted,

TO: THE PLAINTIFFS and their attorneys

YOU WILL PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that the defendant hereby moves the Court pursuant to Rule 59(e), SCRCP, to reconsider, alter and/or amend its Order dated February 3, 2015 and, upon reconsideration, set a hearing to determine whether those persons listed on Exhibits B, C and D of Kelley Wilson's supplemental affidavit dated November 12, 2014 are entitled to be declared to be class members who are entitled to $2,000 per claimant.

The Court's Order stated the following:

"4. HEC proposes that the court hold an evidentiary hearing for each individual whose continued identification as a class member is in dispute, with the individual bearing the burden of proving that he/she should be included as a class member; and

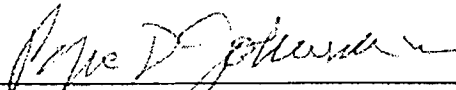

5. the relief sought by HEC defeats the intended purpose of class certification in class actions."

Upon information and belief, the Court has misapprehended the defendant's position. The defendant's position has been and is that a single hearing be held for the purpose of determining whether the claimants listed on Exhibits B, C and D of Kelley Wilson's supplemental affidavit dated November 12, 2014 to the extent not previously been paid, own a Good Cents new home with a vapor barrier on the inside of the exterior of the home and filed a timely claim. The claimants, as plaintiffs, should have the burden of proof. Upon information and belief, the vast majority of claimants have manufactured homes and cannot and should not qualify as class members and receive a windfall. Upon information and belief, the claims could be addressed in a hearing lasting 1 to 2 hours. Furthermore, even if the Court stood by its ruling, conducting a hearing would make a complete record in the event of an appeal and would thereby promote judicial economy.

Attached is a copy of the Order dated February 3, 2015. The defendant is filing a motion to pay the disputed funds into Court pursuant to Rule 67, SCRPC.

 MELANIE ROBERTSON-WARD
 CLERK OF COURT

This is a class action which has been settled. The settlement was approved by an Order dated May 30, 2014. This Court, in its Order, retained jurisdiction "over all matters relating to the administration and consummation of the Agreement".

On or about August 15, 2014, Horry Electric Cooperative ("HEC") filed a motion for an order confirming that the persons identified as having a manufactured home on the list attached as Exhibit A to the Affidavit of Eddy Blackburn (some 30+ persons) do not meet the definition to qualify as a class member and are not entitled to be paid any amount whatsoever in the class action settlement in the above-referenced action. HEC submitted the affidavits and supplemental affidavits of Eddy Blackburn and Kelley Wilson in support of its motion. On or about September 24, 2014, the class representatives filed a Motion to Enforce Final Order and Payments to Class Members. The plaintiffs submitted the affidavits of David Montorio, Dayna Lewis, Roberta Lipman, Malcolm K. Dill, James T. Phillips, Suzy Bussel, and Giorgina M. Welsh. The plaintiffs, in their motion, moved to compel payment to the persons ^{previously approved as class members} ~~with manufactured homes~~ asserting that they should be paid (MHC) because they were on the list that HEC provided and approved. The plaintiffs sought additional relief.

-1- / MHC

The action came before the undersigned on November 13, 2014 for a hearing on these motions. For the reasons set forth below, I find that HEC's motion should be denied and the plaintiffs' motion should be granted as set forth herein.

Upon considering the arguments of counsel, the affidavits and the record in this case, I find the following facts and conclusions of law:

1. the list of class members was generated primarily by HEC's identification of people who participated in the "Good Cents Program" during the construction of their homes in the time period set by the court;
2. the class action settlement approved by the court allows those identified as class members to participate in the settlement;
3. subsequent to the court's approval of the class action settlement, HEC claims that it erroneously identified certain individuals as class members and that those individuals are not entitled to recovery under the settlement because they do not meet the definition of class members, said allegations being disputed by the plaintiffs;
4. HEC proposes that the court hold an evidentiary hearing for each individual whose continued identification as a class member is in dispute, with the individual bearing the burden of proving that he/she should be included as a class member; and
5. the relief sought by HEC defeats the intended purpose of class certification in class actions.

As a result of the above findings, the defendant's motion is denied and the plaintiffs' motion

-2- / MKC

is granted. HEC shall pay the claims of those persons identified as class members under the Settlement Agreement dated February 28, 2014 and previously approved by the Court, according to the terms of said Settlement Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, it is hereby

ORDERED that the defendant's Motion to Exclude is DENIED; it is further

ORDERED that the plaintiffs' Motion to Enforce Final Order and Payment to Class Members is GRANTED; it is further

ORDERED that the defendant shall pay all claimants identified as class members under the Settlement Agreement dated February 28, 2014, according to the terms of said Settlement Agreement previously approved by the Court.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

You are NOT being sued. You MUST submit a claim to be eligible for payment.

This notice informs you of a proposed settlement of certain class action claims against Horry Electric Cooperative ("Horry Electric") concerning Horry Electric's Good Cents Program and the vapor barrier specifications. This notice advises you of your rights with respect to the settlement, including the possible right to make a claim for payment, as well as your right to opt out of the settlement or object to the settlement. This notice is being sent to you because you have been identified as a member of a class of persons who may be entitled to the benefits provided by the Settlement Agreement.

This Notice affects your legal rights – Please read this Notice carefully.

READ THIS FIRST

WHY DID I RECEIVE THIS NOTICE? You were sent this notice because you are in the Class certified by the Court, and you previously were mailed a Class Action Notice in January 2013. You may be entitled to receive benefits under a settlement of legal claims relating to the vapor barrier required by Horry Electric's Good Cents Program for New Homes.

DO I HAVE TO DO ANYTHING? If the court approves the settlement and it becomes effective, you will be entitled to file a claim form together with proper supporting documentation showing your entitlement to a payment under the Automatic Payment Fund or the Remediation Fund. You may object to the proposed settlement during the Objection Period if you wish, and you may exclude yourself from the class, in which case you will have the right to file any claim you may have against Horry Electric on your own at your own expense.

WHAT IF MY ADDRESS HAS CHANGED? To assure correct delivery, if your address is different from the one on this envelope, or if you are moving, please notify Class Counsel at 843-238-2676 or by email at nfata@fatalaw.com.

The Basis of the Claims Against Horry Electric. This matter is before the Court because the Class Representatives have alleged that the Horry Electric Good Cents Program's vapor barrier requirement for the interior side of the exterior walls was inappropriate and a design defect, which caused property damage to the homes. The Plaintiffs have asserted claims for breach of warranty, gross negligence, breach of contract, and breach of the covenant of good faith and fair dealing. The Defendant has denied the allegations and has asserted several defenses. The parties engaged in discovery and multiple mediations of the claims, resulting in the proposed settlement here.

Reasons for Settlement. The settlement is between the Class on the one hand and the Defendant on the other, and it includes a release and dismissal with prejudice of the claims of the Class against the Defendant. Class Counsel view this settlement's benefits as advantageous to the Class in light of risks to recovery if litigation continues. The Defendant, while denying that it is liable to anyone and denying that it has committed any wrongdoing, wishes to avoid further lengthy, costly, and time-consuming litigation, to obtain total and final settlement of the Class claims, and to extinguish any liability of the Defendant with respect to the Class claims, as well as the common liability of any joint tortfeasors.

Who is In the Class and What is the Settlement. The "Class" consists of all persons whose homes were enrolled in the Horry Electric Good Cents Program for New Homes who were mailed a Notice of Class Action in January 2013. Under the settlement, you are entitled to file the Claim Form, which is included in this Notice, for either an automatic payment of Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00) OR a reimbursement claim of up to Twelve Thousand Dollars ($12,000.00) if you remove the vapor barrier, subject to the terms of the Settlement Agreement.

You have received this Notice because you were previously determined to be a member of the Class.

Binding Effect. In completing the settlement approval process, Plaintiffs and the Defendant will petition the Court for a Final Order dismissing this Action as to the Class Members with prejudice, and any person in the Class who does not request exclusion from ("opt out of") the settlement will be bound by it.

Attorneys' Fees and Costs. Class Counsel will petition the Court for a class representative incentive award for plaintiffs Tammy Vance and David Montorio of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) each for their work on behalf of the Class and for an award of attorneys' fees and costs of Nine Hundred Ninety Thousand Dollars ($990,000.00) out of the Six Million Dollar ($6,000,000.00) settlement fund as more fully described in the Settlement Agreement.

Obtaining Benefits Under the Settlement. If you are a Class Member as reflected in Defendant's records, you will be entitled to elect between the Automatic Payment Fund or The Remediation Fund by timely submitting the enclosed Claim Form. If the proposed settlement is finally approved, settlement benefits will be administered in accordance with the Settlement Agreement.

Exclusion Requests - "Opting Out." You have the right to request exclusion from ("opt out of") this settlement by advising Class Counsel and Defendant's Counsel in writing at the addresses given below. If you elect to opt out, then you will not receive a payment or receive any other benefits of the settlement. If you elect to opt out, you must mail a request for exclusion on or before May 1, 2014. Opt-out requests received after such date shall be of no force or effect. If you elect to opt out, you must fill out, sign, and date the enclosed Opt-Out Form and mail it to Class Counsel and Defendant's Counsel on or before May 1, 2014.

Objections. If you are a member of the Class, you have the right to object in writing to any part of the proposed settlement. To object, you must both file with the Court and mail to Class Counsel and Defendant's Counsel, no later than May 15, 2014, a written objection referring specifically to the Vance vs. Horry Electric Class Action pending before the Court of Common Pleas for Horry County, Civil Action No. 2011-CP-26-1266, that includes: (a) your full name and address sufficient to identify your membership in the Class; (b) a notice of intention to appear; (c) the specific grounds for the objection, as well as all documents or writings that you desire the Court to consider; and (d) identification of any previously filed objections in state or federal courts by the Class member and any attorney representing the Class Member. Except for good cause shown, an objector who has not timely filed and served written objections with the requisite information will not be allowed to be heard at the hearing. Any person who fails to appear at the hearing will be deemed to have waived any such objections. To file the objection with the Court, you must mail or personally deliver the original of the written objection by the date specified in this Paragraph to:

*Horry County Clerk of Court
Horry County Government & Justice Center
Conway, South Carolina, 29526*

PLEASE DO NOT CALL THE COURT.

Release. The proposed settlement is intended to resolve and terminate all claims that were raised by or on behalf of the Class members concerning the vapor barrier required by Horry Electric's specifications. The proposed settlement, if finally approved by the Court, will result in the release by each Class member of all such claims, as more specifically provided in the Settlement Agreement. The claims against the Defendant alleged in the Complaint will be dismissed with prejudice as to all Class members.

Conway, SC 29528

I understand I may only elect either the Automatic Payment Fund benefit OR the Remediation Fund benefit and NOT BOTH.

Please see next page for an explanation of each Fund.

AUTOMATIC PAYMENT FUND EXPLANATION

Class members may claim an automatic payment of $2,000 by timely submitting the properly completed Claim Form. If the Automatic Payment Fund is insufficient to pay all qualifying Class members at $2000 per claim, then the payments shall be made with a pro rata reduction. Payments to the Class members electing the Automatic Payment Fund shall be made within the later of 60 days after the Effective Date of the Settlement or 60 days after the Claims Period.

REMEDATION FUND EXPLANATION

Class members may claim reimbursement for Reimbursable Remediation Expenses bsubmission of a Claims Form and Documented proof. The Documented proof shall be submitted to Eddy Blackburn, Marketing Analyst/Key Accounts, Horry Electric Cooperative, Inc., P.O. Box 119, Conway, SC 29528 no later than 180 days from the Effective Date of Settlement, and the claim shall not exceed $12,000. If the Remediation Fund is insufficient to pay all qualifying Class members their actual Reimbursable Remediation Expenses at an amount up to $12,000 per claim, then the payments shall be made with a pro rata reduction.

Documented Proof, with respect to remediation expenses eligible for reimbursement, means costs incurred by a Class member for removing the vapor barrier. Some examples of common documentation are copies of cancelled checks, credit or debit card receipts, receipts for materials used for repairs, credit card statements, affidavits, declarations and/or repair invoices or repair orders, which documents, singly or cumulatively, show Reimbursable Remediation Expenses. In addition, photographs of the remediated exterior wall space without the vapor barrier shall be included as proof that the vapor barrier was removed.

Payments to Class members electing the Remediation Fund shall be made within 30 days of Defendant's receipt of the Class Member's Documented Reimbursable Remediation Expenses. If more than 250 Class members select the Remediation Fund, the Defendant shall make payment within the later of thirty days of the expiration of the period to submit Documented Reimbursement Remediation Expenses or thirty days after the last decision by the arbitrator of all claims submitted in arbitration.

Reimbursable Remediation Expenses means Documented expenses incurred by a Class member for repairs associated with the vapor barrier removal, including, without limitation, moisture accumulation, mold growth, remediation of mold and mildew, repainting or sheetrocking of walls, re-insulating of walls, moving of furniture, storage of personal items and furniture during remediation, and any relocation expenses incurred during the remediation.

You should not undertake any remediation until after the Effective Date of Settlement, as defined in the Settlement Agreement.

* The fee is based on the real property's value. Value means the realty's fair market value. In arm's length real property transactions, this value is the sales price to be paid in money or money's worth (e.g. stocks, personal property, other realty, forgiveness of debt, mortgages assumed or placed on the realty as a result of the transaction). However, a deduction is allowed from this value for the amount of any lien or encumbrance existing on land, tenement, or realty before the transfer and remaining on it after the transfer.

WITNESS the execution hereof this 8th day of June, 2000.

SUPPLEMENTAL

vs.)

Horry Electric Cooperative,) Defendant.)

_____)

PERSONALLY APPEARED BEFORE ME, Kelley Wilson, who being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am Kelley A. Wilson. I am employed by Federated Rural Electric Insurance Exchange, the liability carrier for Horry Electric Cooperative. I have been responsible for issuing checks to the class members who have submitted timely claim forms. I make this affidavit based upon personal information.

2. Checks for $2,000.00 each were mailed to the class members listed on Exhibit A with mailing dates as noted on Exhibit A.

3. Checks have not been mailed to Automatic Fund claimants who have manufactured homes or whose name did not appear on the Good Cents Certification List that was used to identify potential class members and/or who did not receive the Good Cents rates.

4. Attached as Exhibit B are the claimants identified as having manufactured homes. The persons on Exhibit B have not been sent checks.

5. Attached as Exhibit C are persons who submitted claim forms but are not on the class membership list and/or never received the Good Cents rate. No payments have been made to them.

6. Attached as Exhibit D is a list of claimants whose claims have been denied as untimely filed.

7. Attached as Exhibit E is a list of persons who never submitted a claim form.

8. I have responded promptly when it has been brought to my attention that a claimant who is due a payment has not been paid. For example, I did not pay David Montorio a $2,000.00 check initially since he was paid $5,000.00. I understood that the $2,000.00 payment was included in the $5,000.00. However, when I received a copy of his affidavit and learned that he was due an additional payment of $2,000.00, I paid it promptly.

9. Based upon my work on the payment processing in this case, I believe that Horry Electric accurately identified the claims that have been paid or have not been paid.

AFFIDAVIT OF EDDY BLACKBURN

HARRIS-HARRIS

PERSONALLY APPEARED BEFORE ME, Eddy Blackburn, who being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am Eddy Blackburn. I am employed with Horry Electric Cooperative, Inc. My title is Marketing Analyst/Key Accounts. Claim forms have been submitted to me. I make this affidavit based upon personal information except as otherwise shown below.

2. By way of background, I participated in the effort to identify the class membership in this case. Because of the passage of time and changes in computer programs, identifying the class membership was a difficult task. As I recall, I and other employees of Horry Electric Cooperative met with Nate Fata and our attorney to work on the identification of the class. Ultimately, we identified and agreed on the class membership list with the understanding that it may not be completely accurate but was based upon the best available information that could be obtained. Errors in the class membership list have been identified in the claims payment process. Other issues have arisen in the claims payment process and the court is asked to determine the issues that have arisen in the claims payment process. Horry Electric asks that the Court provide guidance as to how the issues should be resolved.

3. In the claims payment process, persons who did not meet the definition for class membership were identified. The Horry Electric computer maintained records showed that a number of persons were not entitled to payment of their claims because they had manufactured homes, not new stick built homes. Those persons are identified on Exhibit A. I sent a letter, which is attached as Exhibit B, to the persons who, according to the Horry Electric records, had manufactured homes, to determine and confirm whether these persons in fact had manufactured homes. I did not receive a response from any of the persons. I also supervised having Horry Electric employees visit the home of each such person. This confirmed that the computer maintained records were accurate and that the persons in fact had manufactured homes.

4. Attached as Exhibit A are the claimants identified as having manufactured homes. The persons on Exhibit A have not been sent checks.

5. Attached as Exhibit C are persons who submitted claim forms but are not on the class membership list and/or never received the Good Cents rate. No payments have been made to them.

6. Attached as Exhibit D are persons whose claims were not timely filed. No payments have been made to them.

7. Checks for $2,000.00 each and checks for remediation claimants were mailed to the class members listed on Exhibit E with mailing dates as noted on Exhibit E. Exhibit E has been prepared and maintained by Kelley Wilson of Federated Rural Electric Insurance Exchange and has now been received by Horry Electric Cooperative and made a business record of Horry Electric Cooperative.

8. Based upon my work on the payment processing in this case, I believe that Horry Electric accurately identified the claims that have been paid or have not been paid.

9. I have cooperated fully in administering the settlement. I have received calls from the plaintiffs' attorney, Mr. Fata, and have exchanged information with him and I have responded to any questions or concerns that he has expressed to me. The settlement agreement in this case, in paragraph 25, provides for any disputes or controversies arising with respect to the interpretation, enforcement and implementation of settlement must be made by motion to the court except the Remediation reimbursement claim disputes to be arbitrated as set forth in the agreement. Horry Electric asks that the court provide guidance as to whether any unpaid claims should be paid as part of the settlement.

Dear ____: Please be advised that Horry Electric Cooperative checked to make sure all of the homes of the class members met the definition to participate in the class action settlement where you made a claim for settlement proceeds. To be a member in the class, the cooperative member had to be a homeowner of a new good cents program home that has a vapor barrier on the inside of the exterior walls and was included by Horry Electric Cooperative in the new Good Cents program.

You received prior notices in this litigation because you were initially identified in Horry Electric records as a class member. Our investigation for claims processing, however, has identified a small number of claimants who may have been inadvertently included in the class.

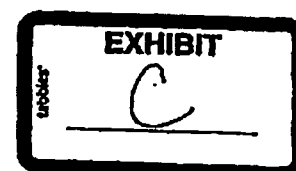

In your situation, our review revealed that your home is a manufactured home and does not fall within the class who would be entitled to make a claim of $2,000.00. If you disagree with this assessment, please contact Nate Fata at P.O. Box 16620, Surfside Beach, SC 29587, telephone 843-238-2676, within 30 days of this letter.

If Horry Electric does not receive additional information that would verify your ability to recover in this settlement, the Court will be asked to disqualify you from participation. You will receive notice of that hearing so that you have an opportunity to attend and state any disagreement with Horry Electric's findings.

HORRY COUNTY

FILED
CLERK OF COURT

This is a class action which has been settled. The settlement was approved by an Order dated May 30, 2014. This Court, in its Order, retained jurisdiction "over all matters relating to the administration and consummation of the Agreement".

On or about August 15, 2014, Horry Electric Cooperative ("HEC") filed a motion for an order confirming that the persons identified as having a manufactured home on the list attached as Exhibit A to the Affidavit of Eddy Blackburn (some 30+ persons) do not meet the definition to qualify as a class member and are not entitled to be paid any amount whatsoever in the class action settlement in the above-referenced action. HEC submitted the affidavits and supplemental affidavits of Eddy Blackburn and Kelley Wilson in support of its motion. On or about September 24, 2014, the class representatives filed a Motion to Enforce Final Order and Payments to Class Members. The plaintiffs submitted the affidavits of David Montorio, Dayna Lewis, Roberta Lipman, Malcolm K. Dill, James T. Phillips, Suzy Bussel, and Giorgina M. Welsh. The plaintiffs, in their motion, moved to compel payment to the persons ^{previously approved as class members} ~~with manufactured homes~~ asserting that they should be paid (BHC) because they were on the list that HEC provided and approved. The plaintiffs sought additional relief.

-1- /BHC

The action came before the undersigned on November 13, 2014 for a hearing on these motions. For the reasons set forth below, I find that HEC's motion should be denied and the plaintiffs' motion should be granted as set forth herein.

Upon considering the arguments of counsel, the affidavits and the record in this case, I find the following facts and conclusions of law:

1. the list of class members was generated primarily by HEC's identification of people who participated in the "Good Cents Program" during the construction of their homes in the time period set by the court;
2. the class action settlement approved by the court allows those identified as class members to participate in the settlement;
3. subsequent to the court's approval of the class action settlement, HEC claims that it erroneously identified certain individuals as class members and that those individuals are not entitled to recovery under the settlement because they do not meet the definition of class members, said allegations being disputed by the plaintiffs;
4. HEC proposes that the court hold an evidentiary hearing for each individual whose continued identification as a class member is in dispute, with the individual bearing the burden of proving that he/she should be included as a class member; and
5. the relief sought by HEC defeats the intended purpose of class certification in class actions.

As a result of the above findings, the defendant's motion is denied and the plaintiffs' motion

-2- / mtc

is granted. HEC shall pay the claims of those persons identified as class members under the Settlement Agreement dated February 28, 2014 and previously approved by the Court, according to the terms of said Settlement Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, it is hereby

ORDERED that the defendant's Motion to Exclude is DENIED; it is further

ORDERED that the plaintiffs' Motion to Enforce Final Order and Payment to Class Members is GRANTED; it is further

ORDERED that the defendant shall pay all claimants identified as class members under the Settlement Agreement dated February 28, 2014, according to the terms of said Settlement Agreement previously approved by the Court.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.

WHEREAS, HEC denies the material allegations in the Complaint and denies any wrongdoing of any kind and Federated is HEC's liability carrier which has insurance coverage applicable to the claim of the Class,

WHEREAS, on August 28, 2012 and modified thereafter, the Court certified a class action pursuant to S.C.R.C.P. 23;

WHEREAS, Class Counsel, on behalf of the Class, believe that settlement at this time as provided in this Settlement Agreement will be in the best interests of the Class as defined herein;

WHEREAS, Class Counsel and Class Representatives agree that the settlement as set forth herein which requires the establishment of two funds totaling $6,000,000, is a fair, reasonable, and adequate resolution of the Litigation and HEC and Federated are willing to buy their peace and to settle the claim of the Class;

WHEREAS, the Parties desire to compromise and settle in the Litigation all issues and claim which have been brought, or which could have been brought, by or on behalf of persons who are included in the Class;

WHEREAS, the Parties desire and intend to seek preliminary approval of the settlement of the Litigation as set forth in this Settlement Agreement and, upon preliminary approval, the Parties intend thereafter to seek a Final Order and Judgment from the Court dismissing the claim of all members of the Class with prejudice;

NOW, THEREFORE, it is agreed that in consideration of the promises and mutual covenants set forth in this Settlement Agreement and the entry by the Court of a Final Order and Judgment dismissing with prejudice the claim asserted in this Litigation by all members of the Class and approving the terms and conditions of the settlement as set forth in this Settlement Agreement, as required by applicable law, the Litigation shall be settled and compromised under the terms and conditions contained herein.

SETTLEMENT CONSIDERATION

2. The Class has asserted a claim against HEC for breach of warranty, negligence/gross negligence and breach of contract/covenant of good faith and fair dealing. This claim is related to property damage arising out of the Good Cents program for new homes which required a vapor barrier on the inside of the exterior walls. The Class Counsel and Class Representatives maintain that the vapor barrier has caused property damage. The Good Cents program which HEC offered to its members was a program which South Carolina Public Service Authority and Southern Electric International, Inc. developed and licensed. The evidence established that South Carolina Public Service Authority and Southern Electric International, Inc. had knowledge that the vapor barrier requirement could cause mold and mildew problems in the homes prior to the program being licensed of HEC, as indicated in its two 1986 letters to Southern Electric. The evidence has also indicated that the South Carolina Public Service Authority did not provide those two letters or that information to HEC, before HEC offered the Good Cents program to the Class Members. HEC offered the Good Cents program for new homes to its members that the South Carolina Public Service Authority offered to it. HEC contends it learned of the knowledge the South Carolina Public Service Authority had about the vapor barrier causing mold and mildew problems through discovery in this action.

3. Class Counsel and Defendant shall present this Settlement Agreement to the Court as soon as practicable and shall take all appropriate steps to obtain an Order (a) finding the settlement sufficiently fair, reasonable, and adequate; and (b) scheduling a final hearing on the fairness of the proposed settlement.

4. In consideration for dismissal of the Litigation with prejudice under the terms of this Settlement Agreement, Defendant's insurance carrier, Federated, will pay the claim from the two settlement funds. Class members may participate in one fund, but not both, by selecting a fund preference on the Claim Form that is postmarked no later than ninety (90) days from the issuance of Class Notice.

a) The Automatic Payment Fund: Defendant and Federated shall establish a fund of $2,400,000. In no event will Defendant and/or Federated be required to increase the amount to be funded. Class members may claim an automatic payment of $2,000 by submission of a Claim Form and declaration under penalties of perjury of current home ownership. If the Automatic Payment Fund is insufficient to pay all qualifying Class members at $2000 per claim, then the payments shall be made with a pro rata reduction. Defendant shall make payments to the Class members selecting the Automatic Payment fund within the later of 60 days after the Effective Date of Settlement or 60 days after the Claim Period, whichever is later, provided, however, no payments are due until HEC has all Automatic Payment claim forms necessary to determine the amount due on each Automatic Payment claim. .

- b) The Remediation Fund: Defendant shall establish a fund of $3,600,000. In no event will HEC or Federated be required to increase the amount to be funded. Class members may claim reimbursement for Reimbursable Remediation Expenses by removing the vapor barrier from the home and by submission of a Claim Form and Documented proof. The Documented proof shall be due no later than 180 days from the Effective Date of Settlement and each claim shall be capped at $12,000. Class members who elect the Remediation Fund shall be mailed a Notice advising them of the Effective Date of Settlement and the 180 day deadline to submit documentation for reimbursement. If the Remediation Fund is insufficient to pay all qualifying Class members their actual Reimbursable Remediation Expenses at an amount up to $12,000 per claim, then the payments shall be made with a pro rata reduction. If less than 250 Class Members select the Remediation Fund preference on the Claim Form, then Defendant shall make payment within thirty days of Defendant's receipt of the Class member's Documented Reimbursable Remediation Expenses. Otherwise, Defendant shall make payment within the later of thirty days of the expiration of the period to submit Documented Reimbursable Remediation Expenses or thirty days after the last decision by the arbitrator of all claim submitted in arbitration, whichever is later, provided, however, no Remediation payments are due until HEC has all Remediation claim forms necessary to determine the amount due on each Remediation claim. .

- c) Within thirty (30) days of its receipt of a Class Member's documentation for reimbursement and if the claim is to be denied in whole or in part, Defendant shall send to the Class Member in writing an explanation of the reasons for any denial of the claim, in whole or in part. In the event of any disputes regarding Reimbursable Remediation Expenses, the Parties shall meet and confer and use their best efforts to resolve the claim for the Class member. If the parties cannot reach agreement, the dispute shall be resolved by final, binding arbitration. The Class Member shall have fifteen (15) days from the receipt of Defendant's partial or complete denial of the claim to request Arbitration in writing by stating "I hereby request arbitration." Such request must be mailed to Class Counsel and Defendant's Counsel. The arbitrator shall be a South Carolina licensed attorney practicing in Horry County as agreed upon by Class Counsel and Defendant. Unless the arbitrator requests additional matters, the arbitration shall be limited to a paper review only of the Class member's claim submission and Defendant's response. The Arbitrator shall render a decision within 45 days of the Class member's request for arbitration. Defendant is responsible for the arbitrator's fees.

- d) As compensation for services as class representatives, and subject to approval by the Court, Defendant agrees to pay $5000 to Class Representative Vance and Class

Representative Montorio. Such payment shall be made pro rata from the two funds within ten days of the Effective Date of Settlement such payment shall be paid prior to payment of any claim.

- e) Any amounts not claimed in the funds by Class Members shall, at the expiration of all claim periods, be retained by Federated.

RE: Ferrell, et al. v. Horry Electric Cooperative
Case No. 2011-CP-26-1266

Dear Attorneys:

I ask that Mr. Fata or Mr. Ward prepare an order granting the plaintiffs' Motion to Enforce Final Order and Payment to Class Members in the above referenced class action. The order should also deny the defendant's motion to exclude previously identified class members. Please include in the order that:

1. the list of class members was generated primarily by the defendant's identification of people who participated in the "Good Cents Program" during the construction of their homes in the time period set by the court;
2. the class action settlement approved by the court allows those identified as class members to participate in the settlement;

3. subsequent to the court's approval of the class action settlement, the defendant claims that it erroneously identified certain individuals as class members and that those individuals are not entitled to recovery under the settlement because they do not meet the definition of class members, said allegations being disputed by the plaintiffs;
 4. the defendant proposes that the court hold an evidentiary hearing for each individual whose continued identification as a class member is in dispute, with the individual bearing the burden of proving that he/she should be included as a class member;
 5. the relief sought by the defendant defeats the intended purpose of class certification in class actions.

The proposed order may also include for my consideration additional findings and legal conclusions to support this decision.

Please forward the proposed order to opposing counsel for review prior to submitting it to me for signature.

I thank you in advance for your prompt attention to this matter and with kindest regards, I remain
