INDEX OF EXHIBITS

(Court Reporter's Note: No exhibits were marked or received into evidence.)

1 (The following proceedings are reported on
2 September 15, 2015.)

3 THE COURT: This is Clarence Jenkins versus
4 South Carolina Workforce; is that correct?

5 MR. JENKINS: Yes, Your Honor.

6 MR. MATTHEWS: Yes, sir, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: I have four motions here. It
8 looks like -- yes, sir.

9 MR. MATTHEWS: Your Honor, I was just 10 anticipating this, but our motion to dismiss was filed 11 first.

12 MR. JENKINS: Your Honor, I object to that 13 motion because --

14 THE COURT: All right. That's good enough.
15 Go ahead, Mr. Matthews.

16 MR. MATTHEWS: Yes, sir.

17 THE COURT: Let me just try to sort this out.
18 There is a motion to dismiss.

19 MR. MATTHEWS: Yes, sir.

20 THE COURT: That was filed June 23, 2015.
21 Then there is a motion to compel the defendants to 22 answer the complaint filed on July 27th. There is a 23 motion to quash the dismissal on July 2nd. Then there
24 is a motion to leave and motion to amend the complaint
25 in August.

1 We have got three motions from Mr. Jenkins and 2 a motion to dismiss from the Department. It looks like
3 Mr. Jenkins has also filed a memorandum of law in 4 opposition, again, to the request for dismissal.

5 Is that pretty much what we have got here for 6 today?

7 MR. JENKINS: Yes, sir, Your Honor.

8 MR. MATTHEWS: Yes, sir.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Well, there is another
10 memorandum, a memorandum of law, in August. That's what 11 you are calling it.

12 So let's look at the dismissal, and then I 13 will hear from Mr. Jenkins as to why he thinks that is 14 not the thing to do.

15 MR. JENKINS: Yes, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: I would be glad to hear from you,
17 Mr. Matthews.

18 MR. MATTHEWS: Thank you, Your Honor. All of 19 these motions began with the complaint. Mr. Jenkins is 20 proceeding pro se. He has filed a claim apparently 21 against three departmental entities: Department of 22 Employment Workforce, the Budget and Control Board, 23 which is now the Department of Administration, and the 24 Office of the South Carolina Governor.

25 COURT REPORTER: Judge, I'm sorry.

1 I'm having a little bit of trouble hearing
2 you, Mr. Matthews, and you are talking down.

3 MR. MATTHEWS: I will take care of that.

4 COURT REPORTER: Thank you so much. And 5 excuse me.

6 MR. MATTHEWS: The complaint, as filed by 7 Mr. Jenkins, would be or the caption would be the 8 Department of Employment Workforce, which I will call 9 DEW; the Budget and Control Board, which is now the 10 Department of Administration, but for ease of reference,
11 I will just call the Board; and the Office of the South
12 Carolina Governor, which for ease of reference, I will 13 call the Governor's Office.

14 There are three separate causes of action
15 alleged in the complaint. One is for defamation. The 16 other is for abuse of process. The last is a cause of 17 action that references the two-year Statute of 18 Limitations for defamation claims or the third section 19 is simply a reference to the statute on the Statute of 20 Limitations.

21 With regard to the defamation claim, as we 22 read the four corners of the complaint, it appears that 23 even if we do at this point accept his allegations as 24 true, he has pled himself away from defending [sic] the 25 entities because he has pled that the person who did the

1 thing of which he complains, which is placing a bar from 2 applying-designation on his applications, is someone
3 named Ms. Sorenson.

4 He indicates in his complaint that she did so
5 maliciously and outside the scope of her duty. If 6 that's the case, then the acceptance of pleadings as 7 true, the entities are not proper parties under the Tort 8 Claims Act.

9 The statutory provisions there are Subsection
10 60-17 which talks about, of course, if a State employee
11 does this thing, then the Department, as entities, are 12 not proper parties.

13 It's the same thing under 15-78, Section 70.
14 When an employee does something which offends
15 Mr. Jenkins and he thereby complains, the proper party
16 there is the individual, not the Department.

17 As regards to the abuse of process claim, our 18 arguments are rather simple. Abuse of process requires, 19 as one of its element, a willful act and abuse of 20 process that is not proper in the regular conduct of the 21 proceedings. That requires some abuse of process.

22 In his complaint he complains of many things,
23 but none of them are abuses of process. For that reason
24 he has simply brought a cause of action that's improper.
25 He may have complained of other things regarding these

1 defendants, but abuse of process can't be one of them
2 simply because they have not abused the process as that
3 is defined in that cause of action.

4 I will answer any questions that you may have,
5 sir.

6 THE COURT: What statutes did you reference?

7 MR. MATTHEWS: The statutes I cited were 15-70
8 and 60, subsection 17, and 15-78, subsection 70 as 9 regards to the State employee acting outside the scope
10 of duty or in this case for defamation, malice would be 11 required.

12 In regard to -- again, we look to his own
13 complaint as we must at this stage. And in the 14 complaint he, of course, describes Ms. Sorenson as 15 acting as -- paragraphs 37, 38, and 35 -- committing
16 intentional acts by manipulating computer functions
17 performed with malice towards the plaintiff.

18 Again, paragraph 39 describes that
19 Ms. Sorenson has performed such an egregious act on her 20 own without permission, that such an act is criminal.
21 In paragraphs 58 and 59 he alleges that she did so
22 outside the scope of her employment and with malicious
23 intent. As a matter of law, he cannot sue the 24 departments that are at issue.

25 I believe, by correction, that the only

1 defendants that have been served are the entities.
2 There are no individual plaintiffs named in the caption.
3 Although there are some named in the causes of action,
4 to our knowledge none have been served.

5 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Jenkins.

6 MR. JENKINS: Yes, Your Honor. I am here
7 today just basically trying to correct a wrong that was 8 done by the Department of Employment Workforce, South
9 Carolina Budget and Control Board, and the Office of 10 South Carolina Governor.

11 THE COURT: Tell me what they did wrong.

12 MR. JENKINS: What had happened, I was 13 applying for a State position because I have a 14 Bachelor's degree in marketing. I have done the type of 15 work at South Carolina DEW that they do as far as 16 program rep.

17 As a matter of fact, the last position that I 18 held, I was WIA assistant director before. I worked for 19 a college through a program where we did the same job as 20 anybody would do in the Columbia office or Orangeburg
21 office.

22 We assist applicants with job searchment, job
23 placement, resume writing, interviewing skills. We also 24 sign them up for the WIA program as well, and we did
25 12-months follow up with that person.

1 THE COURT: Who were you working for?

2 MR. JENKINS: I was working for Voorhees
3 College. The program was called the Voorhees One-stop
4 Career Center.

5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 MR. JENKINS: And that's the name that all --
7 the former DEW agency was pretty much named a one-stop
8 career center.

9 What had happened, I was applying for State
10 positions. I kept getting rejection letters after 11 rejection letter. Sometimes I would get five within 12 about ten minutes. It kept going on, and I would call
13 DEW to ask them --

14 THE COURT: Where did you apply?

15 MR. JENKINS: I applied online through the 16 State Job Corps. So I was keeping track of my jobs that 17 I would apply for. And at one time I got 14 letters. I 18 got 14 rejection e-mails in the same day, probably 19 within 50 minutes or an hour's time.

20 So I continued to call and try to get the 21 answers. They were lying to me the whole time to be 22 honest with you. I couldn't get a straight answer
23 whatsoever.

24 So what happened, I continued to apply for 25 jobs. As a matter of fact, the senior HR personnel at

1 DEW was called Kerry Paul. She called my house. She
2 said, "You have no need to contact DEW any further. We 3 have no interest in hiring you."

4 She said that a letter would be coming stating
5 that. I said, "Ma'am, I can't believe you are calling
6 my house telling me this." I said, "I don't believe
7 that is legal employment practices."

8 So after she hung up, I went to go see her 9 e-mail. She had done blocked my e-mail account from 10 contacting her by e-mail. Then three days later a 11 letter came to my house stating just as what she said,
12 where they kind of had dressed it up; but it was pretty 13 much the same facts that she presented.

14 So I continued to apply for State jobs. It
15 just so happened that I got an e-mail from Sharlayne
16 Bellamy at South Carolina Judicial Center for a job
17 at --

18 THE COURT: South Carolina what?

19 MR. JENKINS: Judicial Center.

20 THE COURT: Judicial Center?

21 MR. JENKINS: Yes, sir, that I had applied
22 for. She said, "Well, we can no longer consider your 23 application because we have received notification that 24 you have been barred from applying."

25 I was sitting there in shock, and I responded

1 back to her. I said, "What notification? Who did such 2 a thing?" She responded back and she said I contacted
3 the Governor's Office for the State of South Carolina.
4 I have not done so.

5 She sent me an actual link of how the screen
6 printout looks. When my name comes up, it has, "This 7 candidate has been marked and barred from applying for 8 State positions."

9 So then there was an additional e-mail where 10 many people -- she contacted the Budget and Control
11 Board asking them, "How did this happen? Because 12 Mr. Jenkins was kind of surprised, and he was very angry 13 with me."

14 The Budget and Control Board, a person named 15 Terra Ellerby -- I got all this information in these 16 folders here -- Terra Ellerby sent notification to her 17 senior staff asking for information.

18 So there were many people at the Budget and 19 Control Board. There were many people at South Carolina 20 DEW. There were many people at the Office of the 21 Governor who knew this had happened because I had 22 contacted the Governor's Office requesting assistance.

23 I got e-mails where I contacted her office.
24 One of the reasons why South Carolina DEW and the Budget
25 and Control Board, the only reason why they are here

1 today is because they got caught.

2 So that's the only reason why they have owned
3 up to it. If they would have never gotten caught, they 4 would have never owned up to it today. That's why they 5 are here.

6 So when you look at the law -- and the reason
7 why they intended to blackball me and did not notify me
8 because during that same week, I had applied for other 9 jobs with the State of South Carolina, even at DEW; and 10 DEW didn't send me notification saying that they 11 received this error. This was an error for application.

12 I had applied for at least seven other jobs
13 with the State of South Carolina. The Judicial Center
14 was the only one that contacted me with notification.
15 DEW did not. The Budget and Control Board did not.

16 But yet they all -- I sent them notification
17 of what had happened, and everybody said, "Oh, it was a 18 system problem." That's what DEW said, right? But then 19 the Budget and Control Board said that DEW made a change
20 in their system intentionally.

21 So you've got two agencies, both of them
22 saying something that is totally different. DEW says it
23 was a system error. The Budget and Control Board said
24 that DEW did it and know they did it.

25 So when you look at the laws that governs the

1 State of South Carolina, as far as the defamation
2 process, my character has been slandered. It has been
3 slandered because I have been unable to attain State
4 employment.

5 It's not because I did anything wrong, not
6 because I'm unfit, it's all because an employee,
7 Adrienne Sorenson, did something, marked me as a
8 candidate being barred.

9 It was within the scope of her position
10 because she was on the job when she did it. She may 11 have been a midlevel employee. She may have acted or 12 manipulated on the system, but I'm pretty sure she had 13 her supervisor's approval.

14 Because I have other documentation in the 15 folder as well that everything that Adrienne Sorenson
16 did, it referred me back to Kerry Paul, who was her 17 director at the time. So there's many documentation.

18 As far as the defamation, I have been for two 19 years defending a lawsuit against someone for slander, 20 marked for barred from applying took place in July of 21 2013. I filed my complaint here in Richland County on 22 May 21, 2015.

23 So that's within the two years time period.
24 So that qualifies that. When you think about the reason 25 why my complaint is civil and not criminal because

1 Adrienne Sorenson, the State of South Carolina, was 2 notified.

3 I contact the Office of Inspector General. I
4 contacted the South Carolina Attorney General's Office.
5 I filed it with this documentation, and not one of those 6 agencies sought to make charges against Ms. Sorenson or 7 to held her accountable.

8 I want it made that relationship to show that 9 what she did according to the rules in the State of 10 South Carolina, it was criminal, but I'm not trying to 11 criminalize Adrienne Sorenson here today.

12 I am trying to bring a civil complaint against 13 all those who was involved, and that includes the South
14 Carolina Department of Employment Workforce, South
15 Carolina Budget and Control Board, and the Office of 16 South Carolina Governor.

17 Now, when you think about South Carolina Code
18 of Law 1-13-30, Section (M), which says a covered entity
19 means an employer, employment agency, labor
20 organization, or joint management committee. All those 21 fall in that category.

22 When you go down to Section 1-13-80 it says:
23 (A) It is an unlawful employment practice for the 24 employer to fail or refuse to hire, bar, discharge from 25 employment or otherwise discriminate against an

1 individual with respect to the individual's compensation
2 based on race, religion, color, sex, age, national 3 origin, or disability.

4 Section 2 of that same law, 1-13-80: To 5 limit, segregate, or classify employees or applicants
6 for employment in a way which would deprive or tend to 7 deprive an individual of employment opportunities or 8 otherwise adversely affect the individual's status as an
9 employee because of the individual's race, color,
10 religion, sex, age, national origin, or disability.

11 That is exactly what happened to me. I was 12 classified and therefore by being classified, it took 13 away in effect my employment opportunity. That's what 14 they have done. They have completely destroyed my 15 character.

16 Furthermore, when this all happened, I had a 17 written documentation that shows where the Budget and 18 Control Board had gotten up a list of all agencies that 19 I applied for and sent them notification asking them to 20 ignore the bar from applying. It's too late then. I am
21 damaged goods.

22 I am damaged goods. My character has been 23 damaged. I have always been told, a good name is more 24 than money because a good name carries you places where 25 other people and money can't do sometimes. In this case

1 my name has been destroyed, and those who knew about it
2 need to be held accountable.

3 Let me go a little bit further. Section
4 15-3-550 refers to slander, two years. An action for 5 libel, slander, or false imprisonment; and (2) an action
6 upon a statute for a forfeiture. Within two years you
7 can apply a slander libel lawsuit.

8 There is something else I would like to make
9 mention of as well if I could. Section 1-13-30, letter
10 (f): An employment agency means any person regularly 11 undertaking to procure employees for an employer or to 12 procure for employees opportunities to work for an 13 employer and includes an agent of such a person.

14 That's what DEW did. That's what their job
15 was. Their job was to assist me with job opportunity.
16 And by you marking me as barred from applying then there 17 is not a chance in hell -- no disrespect -- that I would 18 get a job.

19 If the State of South Carolina saw me okay to 20 work for them, there ain't no way that they would have 21 referred me out to private employees. Because you can't 22 have your cake and ice cream.

23 You can't say I can't work there and then say 24 I'm good on another end. That is not going happen. We 25 don't live in that society. We don't have a very

1 forgiving spirit.

2 Another argument I would like to make, this is
3 a declaration of policy. It says the General Assembly
4 declare the practice of discriminating against any 5 individual because of race, religion, color, sex, age,
6 national origin, or disability is a matter of State
7 concern and declares that discrimination is unlawful and 8 in conflict with the ideals of South Carolina and the 9 nation, as this discrimination interferes with 10 opportunities of the individual to receive employment
11 and to develop according to the individual's own ability 12 and is degrading to human dignity.

13 That's what happened to me because I would be 14 unable to attain employment. I've had to live on the 15 sympathy of family members. I applied for food stamps.
16 As a matter of fact, I am still getting food stamps
17 because of the way the system has barred me.

18 That's why I said I am damaged goods, not
19 because I did anything at DEW, not because I violated 20 anybody, not because I'm harassing. All I wanted was an 21 opportunity to work.

22 And DEW, somehow or another, they saw me and 23 treated me that way; and I can't think of why because I
24 don't even know any of those people there. I have done
25 nothing to them.

1 As a matter of fact, they went to the point of
2 making a false accusation that I was harassing them.
3 Well yet, not one agency has made them prove that 4 accusation.

5 I have asked them: Show me the records where 6 I have harassed you. I have not made threats to you. I
7 have not called you at home. I have not asked you for 8 your home address or your phone number. I have not made 9 threats toward your spouse or your children.

10 But that's what they accused me of. They 11 went so far as they bring me a letter that they were 12 fixing to call the local law enforcement to file charges
13 on me. This is a charge of harassment on your record.
14 That would have been a mark on me that I would have 15 forever.

16 That's unfair to me. That's why I was asking
17 that their request to have dismissal would be another 18 black mark on me because they are not worthy of being 19 dismissed because what they did was awful. It was 20 shameful in the State of South Carolina to do that to 21 your own citizens.

22 So I am just asking for a opportunity to prove 23 my case and let it be heard. I am trying to right a 24 wrong. When I filed the complaint to the United States
25 Department of EEOC, they referred me to South Carolina

1 Human Affairs.

2 Sharon Dorn, an investigator at the Human
3 Affairs, she determined through her investigation based
4 on who she contacted at the Budget and Control Board,
5 barred from applying is an intentional act.

6 It was not a system error. It was not
7 something that just happened. It was intentionally
8 applied. And when you look -- and the reason why you
9 know how it was intentionally applied, when they made a
10 mark in the system to be barred from applying for jobs
11 in the State of South Carolina, it's upwards of 2018.
12 That's five years, five and a half years.

13 That is intentional. That is not a system
14 error. I am asking this Court: Please do not allow 15 South Carolina DEW and South Carolina Budget and Control
16 Board, and the Office of the Governor to get away with 17 this. I have a right to clear my name. I need to clear 18 my name. I need justice. That's all I have to say at 19 this stage. Thank you, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Mr. Matthews.

21 MR. MATTHEWS: Thank you, Your Honor. Well,
22 it's certainly true that Mr. Jenkins is not beneath 23 justice and neither are the defendants. The statutes to 24 which he is referring 1, Section 13 have to do with the 25 State Human Affairs law.

1 If Mr. Jenkins wished to sue any of these 2 defendants under that law, he presumably had that
3 opportunity. When the State Human Affairs Commission
4 concludes an investigation, it actually sends out to the 5 complainant a notice of right to sue, which is a
6 jurisdictional requirement to come before this Court.

7 I have looked at his complaint and see no
8 claim under the State Human Affairs law. No notice was 9 amended to the complaint. So I really don't know
10 whether he is correct or not; but presuming he is, he is 11 estopped from bringing that claim. Presumably the 12 statute has run.

13 For all the passion and grievance -- and I am 14 sure he does feel aggrieved as many plaintiffs do -- the 15 fact of the matter is that doesn't deprive the 16 defendants in this case from the defenses that our law 17 provides.

18 That include the defenses under the State Tort 19 Claims Act which we properly pled. There is certainly 20 nothing that prevents this Court from dismissing this 21 case because we think against the defendants who have 22 been served, he simply has not stated a claim.

23 I know Mr. Jenkins feels passionate about what 24 has been done, but that doesn't deprive and that doesn't
25 permit him to sue these entities for issues that fall

1 under the pleadings in his own complaint that forbid him
2 to do.

3 THE COURT: All right. Anything else,
4 Mr. Jenkins?

5 MR. JENKINS: Yes, sir.

6 THE COURT: All right.

7 MR. JENKINS: 41-27-20, a declaration of State
8 policy. I am just going to list it for the Court.
9 Economic insecurity due to unemployment is a serious
10 menace to health, morals, and welfare of the people of 11 this State.

12 By South Carolina Department of Employment
13 Workforce, their primary job is to help job applicants
14 become employed, find suitable employment. And by them
15 being that agency and by them going to the point where 16 they barred me from applying for jobs I was well
17 qualified for, they have went against the best policy
18 that the State Assembly of South Carolina has made and 19 has on the books.

20 They violated that policy. They did not be 21 the agency to be in the business of helping somebody, 22 and they barred me from attaining employment. According 23 to this policy, I have become a menace to society. It 24 affects my welfare and my morals, which that is a fact.
25 That is definitely a fact.

1 One more thing. The Human Affairs Commission,
2 Your Honor, when I tell you my back has been against the
3 wall, been against a giant, I have been fighting a
4 giant; and I'm not afraid of the giant.

5 The South Carolina Human Affairs, with all the 6 information that they had, they didn't have the backbone
7 to declare a decision in my favor. With all the 8 information that they had, they had an article in the 9 paper where the former Director, Mr. Abraham Turner, who 10 stated that during this time as the director, most of 11 the employment I have in the form of training is the 12 type of work that they did at DEW.

13 I am qualified. I worked as -- I started off
14 as a job developer, a resource specialist, WIA
15 coordinator, intake coordinator, WIA case manager. I 16 became the WIA systems director. I was nominated for 17 regional employee of the year at one year because of my 18 work performance.

19 Then they had this thing where individuals
20 come into the office and see how you are doing. One of 21 the comments that was made about me is that all other 22 State employees in the State of South Carolina need to 23 model their work practice after me. That was one of the 24 compliments that I got because I did my job and I did it 25 well.

1 Then, furthermore, to go into that, as far as 2 job skills, each month I produced the highest level of 3 people who become employed because of the time that I
4 spend with them doing applications, working with them to 5 make sure in my job that they were out there so there is 6 enough to go around.

7 Again though, I am not separating Adrienne
8 Sorenson from all the governmental entities. She was 9 their employee. She did her job. What she did, she did 10 at the time she was asked for.

11 And based on all other communications, written 12 communications, where Adrienne Sorenson sent me a 13 rejection letter saying that, "You have been denied from 14 applying for this position," it always went back to 15 Kerry Paul.

16 So by Adrienne Sorenson being a mid-level
17 employee, I do not believe that she did this on her own
18 accord. And if she did, shame on her and shame on her 19 supervisor at DEW for not having to do that, but I don't 20 think she did that.

21 And then there is one other point I want to 22 make. When I actually applied and notified all of them,
23 you know the first time I heard from the Governor's 24 Office?

25 I tried for at least a year and a half, two

1 years, to get to go in to meet with Governor Hailey at 2 her office at my expense of meeting with her where she
3 was going to the county office, not one time.

4 All her staff did was put up roadblocks,
5 roadblocks. She is not available. She is not here.
6 But the one time that I heard from Governor Hailey's
7 office is when I sent her a copy of barred from 8 applying.

9 That's when a representative of her office
10 called me and left me a message about what is it you
11 want to do with me? At that point nothing could be done 12 then.

13 Then, furthermore, in a written communication
14 in these folders right here where barred from applying
15 was notified to them, that's the only time they owned up 16 to it.

17 They never contacted me, Your Honor, not one 18 time. They would have never owned up to it, and I
19 wouldn't be here today if it wasn't for the inadvertent
20 error of Sharlayne Bellamy contacting me and letting me
21 know that you are being barred from this position.

22 Other than that they would still be hiding in 23 the dark, hiding their hand. They would still be lying 24 to me. There is good communication in the folder where 25 senior staff at Budget and Control Board, at DEW, was

1 having conversations about who should we contact here?

2 If we respond, how should we respond?

3 They also wanted to know, have EEOC asked me
4 anything. This is all in the folder. And declare what 5 DEW did and what the Budget and Control Board did and 6 what the Office of South Carolina's Office did is a 7 shame in the State of South Carolina. I should have 8 that right because as I stated here, my name has been 9 attacked and my name has been scorned. So I am suing 10 for that.

11 Section 41-27-240, it talks about employment
12 office. It says: Employment office means a free public
13 employment office operated by this State or other office
14 maintained for the purpose of serving applicants or 15 claimants or maintained as a part of a state-controlled 16 system of public employment offices.

17 That is Section 41-27-240. Here again, when 18 they barred me from applying, they violated that very 19 law that has been established by the General Assembly of 20 South Carolina. That's a violation.

21 The reason why you know South Carolina DEW and 22 South Carolina Budget and Control Board all was aware of 23 this is because Section (B) under that same law states:
24 The department must work in conjunction with the State
25 Budget and Control Board to coordinate its computer

1 system with computer systems of other state agencies so
2 that the department may more efficiently match
3 unemployed persons with available jobs.

4 That was their job, to match people with 5 available jobs. So they had a system working in 6 conjunction with one another to match people to 7 available jobs, but yet on that same system, I was 8 completely destroyed. I was violated by that.

9 Section (B) under 15-78-330 says "Claim" means
10 any written demand against the State of South Carolina
11 or a political subdivision for money only, on account of 12 loss, caused by the tort of any employee of the State or 13 a political subdivision while acting within the scope of 14 his official duty.

15 THE COURT: Mr. Jenkins, I think I understand.

16 MR. JENKINS: Yes, sir.

17 THE COURT: Let me say that these motions in 18 front of me, you've got a motion to compel the 19 defendants to answer the complaint. Do you understand 20 that?

21 MR. JENKINS: Yes, sir.

22 THE COURT: Well, under our civil procedure,
23 they don't have to. A defendant does not have to answer
24 the complaint until they've had -- if they want to file
25 a motion to dismiss, they can have it heard before they

1 file an answer. So I have got to deny your motion.
2 That's what the rules say and the rules provide for
3 that.

4 MR. JENKINS: Okay.

5 THE COURT: So I can't compel them to answer
6 the complaint.

7 MR. JENKINS: Yes, sir.

8 THE COURT: Now, you also ask that I hold them
9 to -- that I deny their motion to dismiss, and I'm going
10 to take that one, and I'm going to think about it.

11 MR. JENKINS: Thank you.

12 THE COURT: And then you filed a motion to 13 quash the dismissal of defendant's request. I cannot 14 grant either under the rules. The other motion that you 15 filed is a motion for leave to amend the complaint.
16 What are you talking about? You want to amend the 17 complaint?

18 MR. JENKINS: Yes, sir. Yes, Your Honor. The 19 reason why I made that motion, one, I became aware that 20 at one time the South Carolina Budget and Control Board
21 used to be the chief operating agency for all other 22 State agencies in the State of South Carolina.

23 But due to a new act that was passed by the 24 General Assembly back in 2014, they have South Carolina
25 Administration. It has become the chief operating

1 agency, and the Budget and Control Board has been
2 separated in subdivisions.

3 THE COURT: Right.

4 MR. JENKINS: So, therefore, I'm not sure
5 whether the Budget and Control Board still has the 6 liability insurance that they had when they were the 7 chief operating agency. That was a point of trying to 8 include and make sure that everybody is included.

9 THE COURT: Well, do you still want to amend
10 your complaint?

11 MR. JENKINS: Yes, sir. The reason why is 12 Adrienne Sorenson, which is named as a party to the 13 complaint as a person that barred my from applying, I
14 misspelled her name. I spelled the last name with an E
15 and it should be with an O. So as long as to make sure 16 the proper party is applied, I asked that --

17 THE COURT: They haven't raised that issue.
18 The defendants haven't said anything about that.

19 MR. JENKINS: Okay.

20 THE COURT: And I don't know that your other 21 reason, because the Budget and Control Board changed its 22 name and probably the function, the function has been 23 resolved in the other departments of the Governor's 24 office.

25 MR. JENKINS: Yes, sir.

1 THE COURT: How about that?

2 MR. JENKINS: Yes, Your Honor.

3 MR. MATTHEWS: Your Honor, with respect we 4 urge you to rule first --

5 THE COURT: I understand that.

6 MR. MATTHEWS: -- on the motion to dismiss.

7 THE COURT: I know. I want you to answer that
8 question.

9 MR. MATTHEWS: Did you need me to answer a
10 question?

11 THE COURT: I just asked you.

12 MR. MATTHEWS: Please, again, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: I said, how do you respond to his 14 motion to --

15 MR. MATTHEWS: With leave to amend?

16 THE COURT: To amend.

17 MR. MATTHEWS: My first answer is this.
18 Because none of the individual defendants getting 19 served, he is simply wanting to change the name of one 20 of the defendants because they have not made an 21 appearance because they have not --

22 THE COURT: Which one are you talking about?
23 Who has he not served?

24 MR. MATTHEWS: He has not served any of the 25 defendants.

1 THE COURT: You mean he has not served the
2 individual?

3 MR. MATTHEWS: Correct.

4 THE COURT: He hasn't served any of the 5 individual defendants?

6 MR. MATTHEWS: There are no individuals who he 7 has listed in his complaint --

8 THE COURT: Who did he serve?

9 MR. MATTHEWS: To my knowledge he served the 10 Department of Employment Workforce, the Budget and 11 Control Board, and the Office of the Governor.

12 THE COURT: So he served these defendants?

13 MR. MATTHEWS: Yes, sir.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 MR. MATTHEWS: To the extent that you -- well,
16 the Budget and Control Board now is, as you are aware,
17 its functions have been split up between a number of 18 agencies, including the Department of Administration.
19 From his complaint frankly, I don't know who within 20 that, who he is trying to sue; therefore --

21 THE COURT: I think he is trying to sue the 22 Department of Administration.

23 MR. MATTHEWS: Well, if that's the case, Your 24 Honor, then if you are of a mind to grant his motion,
25 then you certainly have the power to do that. My only

1 issue with the entire motion to amend though, ordinarily 2 when there is a motion and you are contemplating whether
3 to grant a motion to amend, there is an actual proposed 4 amended complaint to look at.

5 THE COURT: I know that.

6 MR. MATTHEWS: And none is here. So I don't 7 know exactly what it is.

8 THE COURT: He told you those two things.

9 MR. MATTHEWS: Then my response then is this.
10 It doesn't matter because the complaint still does not
11 state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

12 THE COURT: Okay. That's what I wanted your 13 opinion on. The fact that he spelled somebody's name 14 wrong...

15 MR. MATTHEWS: Is of no...

16 THE COURT: It's not jurisdictional.

17 MR. MATTHEWS: Yes, sir.

18 THE COURT: Do you understand what he's 19 telling me? The complaint that you have is all right in 20 terms of the people that you have named.

21 MR. JENKINS: Yes, sir.

22 THE COURT: And the fact that you spelled
23 somebody's name wrong is not important.

24 MR. JENKINS: Okay.

25 THE COURT: What Mr. Matthews is saying is

1 that even given that fact, that there's nothing wrong
2 with the complaint, it still doesn't give you a cause of 3 action against those three entities. That's his 4 position.

5 MR. JENKINS: Yes, sir.

6 THE COURT: I'm not saying I agree with it.

7 MR. JENKINS: Yes, sir.

8 THE COURT: I'm just saying that's his
9 position.

10 MR. JENKINS: Yes, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Okay. I will deny the motion to 12 amend the complaint. At this point in the process, I
13 usually ask the lawyers -- and I'm going to ask you too
14 even if you don't have a lawyer --

15 MR. JENKINS: Yes, sir.

16 THE COURT: -- to send me a proposed order,
17 what you think I ought to rule.

18 MR. JENKINS: Okay.

19 THE COURT: Do you understand?

20 MR. JENKINS: Yes, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: How long do you need to do that?

22 MR. JENKINS: I would suggest maybe two weeks
23 at the most.

24 THE COURT: Two weeks. That would be fine.

25 MR. JENKINS: Okay. Thank you, your Honor.

1 THE COURT: I know Mr. Matthews doesn't need
2 two weeks because he has got all these secretaries and 3 lawyers and everything else working for him.

4 MR. JENKINS: Yes, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: But I will give you as much time
6 as you need.

7 MR. JENKINS: Thank you, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Do you think two weeks is enough?

9 MR. JENKINS: Let's shoot for three. That way
10 I can be certain. I really do appreciate that.

11 THE COURT: Let me see here. Today is the 12 15th. I'll give you 15 days.

13 MR. JENKINS: Okay.

14 THE COURT: You've got to have in by the end
15 of the month, September 30th; okay?

16 MR. JENKINS: Okay. Thank you, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Now, you don't use e-mail, do you?

18 MR. JENKINS: I do, yes, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Do you want to send it to me on 20 the e-mail or do you want to send it to me on paper?
21 What is the easiest for you?

22 MR. JENKINS: E-mail.

23 THE COURT: All right. I will give you the 24 e-mail address where you are going to send it.

25 MR. JENKINS: Okay.

1 THE COURT: Here you go. We are adjourned for 2 the day. My clerk has the address for you.

C/A No.: 2015-CP-40-03112

ORDER GRANTING DEFENDANTS' MOTION TO DISMISS

2015 OCT 12 AM 11:36
 ANNETTE W. MORTON
 C.C.P. & G.S.

RICHLAND COUNTY
 FILED

This matter came before this Court on September 15, 2015, on the Motion to Dismiss filed by Defendants South Carolina Department of Employment & Workforce (“SCDEW”), South Carolina Budget & Control Board (“SCBC&B” or the “Board”) and the Office of the Governor of South Carolina (hereinafter collectively the “Defendants”) under Rule 12(b)(6), SCRCP. The Court also heard several motions filed by pro se Plaintiff, which were alternatively denied or dismissed as moot.

Having considered the memoranda provided by each side and the arguments of the parties, I hereby GRANT the Defendants’ Motion to Dismiss and DISMISS this case with prejudice as the three named Defendants.¹

STANDARD OF REVIEW

In considering a Motion to Dismiss pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6), SCRCP, the trial court must base its ruling solely on allegations set forth in the complaint. Doe v. Marion, 373 S.C. 390, 395, 645 S.E.2d 245, 247 (2007). The question is whether, in the light most favorable to the plaintiff, and with every doubt resolved in his behalf, the complaint states any valid claim for relief. Plyler v. Burns, 373 S.C. 637, 645, 647 S.E.2d 188, 192 (2007). In this case, the Complaint does not state a claim for which relief can be granted. For that reason, the lawsuit must be dismissed.

¹ Although the Complaint references certain individuals, none have been served as individual parties to this case.

PLAINTIFF'S ALLEGATIONS

Plaintiff is a former employee of SCDEW. (Plaintiff's Complaint, ¶ 7). He alleges that the Defendants "secretly blackballed [his] job application seeking employment with [the] State of South Carolina." (Plaintiff's Complaint, ¶ 6). He specifically claims that his applications for employment were rejected because a SCDEW employee named Adrienne Sorensen entered a "Barred from Applying" code to his applications. (Plaintiff's Complaint, ¶ 32). According to the Complaint, SCDEW and the Board identified the code as a system error occurring in July and August 2013. (Plaintiff's Complaint, ¶¶ 37-38).

Plaintiff purports to bring three (3) causes of action against the Defendants:

- Plaintiff attempts to allege a "Defamation" claim against the Defendants related to the "Barred for Applying" code allegedly entered into the State's computer system. Plaintiff variously described this as a "well formed plan" and that the Defendants' individual employees committed "intentional acts by manipulating computer functions performed with malice towards Plaintiff." (Plaintiff's Complaint, ¶¶ 37-38, 55). More specifically, Plaintiff argues that "it is reasonable to believe" that a single SCDEW employee, Adrienne Sorensen, "performed such an egregious act on her own without permission," and that such an act was "criminal." (Plaintiff's Complaint, ¶ 39). Plaintiff also alleges that she did so "outside the scope of her employment" and "with malicious intent." (Plaintiff's Complaint, ¶¶ 58-59).
- Plaintiff also attempts to allege an "Abuse of Process" claim² based on the same allegations. (Plaintiff's Complaint, ¶55).
- Plaintiff's final cause of action is stated under S.C. Code Ann. § 15-3-550 with the statute referencing a two-year statute of limitations for defamation claims. Because the statute does not describe an independent cause of action, Plaintiff's "Third Cause of Action" does not state a claim. (Plaintiff's Complaint, ¶¶ 56-59).

² Plaintiff's Second Cause of Action also includes a reference to a "Violation of S.C. Code Computer." This is not a legally cognizable claim.

OPINION

I. PLAINTIFF'S DEFAMATION CLAIM FAILS UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA TORT CLAIMS ACT.

Under South Carolina law, each of the Defendants is an entity covered by the South Carolina Tort Claims Act ("SCTCA"). S.C. Code Ann. § 15-78-10 et seq. The SCTCA explicitly provides that these entities are immune from suit where an employee acts outside the scope of his or her duty, or with an intent to harm, or with malice. S.C. Code Ann. §§ 15-78-60(17), 15-78-70.

According to Plaintiff's own pleadings, the act for which he seeks redress – being "blackballed" because Adrienne Sorensen tagged Plaintiff's applications for employment with a "Barred for Applying" code – was done "outside the scope of her employment" and "with malicious intent." (Plaintiff's Complaint, ¶¶ 58-59). For that reason, the Plaintiff's own allegations bar recovery from these three specific Defendants under these provisions of the SCTCA. See Moore by Moore v. Berkeley County School Dist., 326 S.C. 584, 586-587, 486 S.E.2d 9, 11 (S.C. App. 1997) (governmental entity immune from suit for employee's intentional torts, or acts outside the scope of his duty, under S.C. Code Ann. § 15-78-60(17)); McCall v. Williams, 52 F.Supp.2d 611, 615 (D.S.C. 1999) (governmental entity not proper party for intentional torts under Tort Claims Act).

II. PLAINTIFF HAS FAILED TO STATE A PRIMA FACIE CLAIM FOR ABUSE OF PROCESS AGAINST THE DEFENDANTS, AND FOR THAT REASON, IT MUST BE DISMISSED.

The South Carolina Supreme Court has defined abuse of process as "employment of legal process for some purpose other than which it was intended by law to effect – the improper use of a regularly scheduled process." Huggins v. Winn-Dixie Greenville, Inc., 249 S.C. 206, 153 S.E.2d 693, 695 (1967). It is distinguished from malicious prosecution by saying it "involves the malicious misuse or perversion of the process, after its issuance, for an end not lawfully warranted by it.” Johnson v. Painter, 279 S.C. 390, 307 S.E.2d 860 (1983). The elements, as articulated in Huggins, are (1) an ulterior purpose and (2) a willful act in the use of the process not proper in the regular conduct of the proceeding.

The second element, a “willful act,” has been described as “[s]ome definite act or threat not authorized by the process or aimed at an object not legitimate in the use of the process[.]” Hainer v. Am. Med. Int’l, Inc., 328 S.C. 128, 136, 492 S.E.2d 103, 107 (1997). The “willful act” element consists of three components: (1) “a ‘willful’ or overt act”; (2) “in the use of the process”; (3) “that is improper because it is either (a) unauthorized or (b) aimed at an illegitimate collateral objective.” Food Lion, Inc. v. United Food & Commercial Worker’s Int’l Union, 351 S.C. 65, 715 567 S.E.2d 251, 254 (S.C. App. 2002) (citations omitted).

Here, the Complaint contains no allegation that any of the Defendants used or authorized civil or criminal “process” with regard to Plaintiff. Lacking this element, Plaintiff’s abuse of process claim fails and must be dismissed with prejudice.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons detailed above, Plaintiff has failed to state any justiciable claim against South Carolina Department of Employment & Workforce, the South Carolina Budget & Control Board, or the Office of the Governor of South Carolina.

This lawsuit is therefore DISMISSED with prejudice, with each side bearing its own costs and fees.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.

38. SCDEW and SCBCB sent letters stating a system error in July, 2013 to August, 2013 when they had evidence that it was not according to their own investigation showed that verification was provided to them July 26, 2013.

39. It is reasonable to believe that Adrienne Sorensen is a mid-level employee in SCDEW Human Resource Office therefore to performed such an egregious act on her own without permission is criminal not prosecuted by the State Of South Carolina.

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS
 FOR THE FIFTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT

C/A No.: 2015-CP-40-03112

MOTION TO DISMISS
 OF DEFENDANTS

NOW COME the Defendants South Carolina Department of Employment & Workforce (“SCDEW”), South Carolina Budget & Control Board (“SCBC&B” or the “Board”) and the Office of the Governor of South Carolina (hereinafter collectively the “Defendants”), by and through counsel, and file this Motion to Dismiss under Rule 12(b)(6), SCRCPP, seeking dismissal of each of Plaintiff’s claims with prejudice. In support of this Motion, the Defendants state as follows:

PLAINTIFF’S ALLEGATIONS

Plaintiff is a pro se litigant and alleges that he is a former employee of SCDEW. (Plaintiff’s Complaint, ¶ 7). He alleges that the Defendants “secretly blackballed [his] job application seeking employment with [the] State of South Carolina.” (Plaintiff’s Complaint, ¶ 6). He specifically claims that his applications for employment were rejected because a SCDEW employee named Adrienne Sorensen entered a “Barred from Applying” code to his applications. (Plaintiff’s Complaint, ¶ 32). According to the Complaint, SCDEW and the Board identified the code as a system error occurring in July and August 2013. (Plaintiff’s Complaint, ¶¶ 37-38).

Plaintiff purports to bring three (3) causes of action against the Defendants:

- Plaintiff attempts to allege a “Defamation” claim against the Defendants related to the “Barred for Applying” code allegedly entered into the State’s computer system. Plaintiff variously described this as a “well formed plan” and that the Defendants’ individual employees committed “intentional acts by manipulating computer functions performed with malice towards Plaintiff.” (Plaintiff’s Complaint, ¶¶ 37-38, 55). More specifically, Plaintiff argues that “it is reasonable to believe” that a single SCDEW employee, Adrienne Sorensen, “performed such an egregious act on her own without permission,” and that such an act was “criminal.” (Plaintiff’s Complaint, ¶ 39). Plaintiff also alleges that she did so “outside the scope of her employment” and “with malicious intent.” (Plaintiff’s Complaint, ¶¶ 58-59).
- Plaintiff also attempts to allege an “Abuse of Process” claim¹ based on the same allegations. (Plaintiff’s Complaint, ¶55).
- Plaintiff’s final cause of action is stated under S.C. Code Ann. § 15-3-550 with the statute referencing a two-year statute of limitations for defamation claims. Because the statute does not describe an independent cause of action, Plaintiff’s “Third Cause of Action” does not state a claim. (Plaintiff’s Complaint, ¶¶ 56-59).

For the reasons stated below, Plaintiff has failed to state a claim against the Defendants and his lawsuit must be dismissed with prejudice.

LEGAL ARGUMENT

I. PLAINTIFF’S DEFAMATION CLAIM FAILS UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA TORT CLAIMS ACT.

Under South Carolina law, each of the Defendants is an entity covered by the South Carolina Tort Claims Act (“SCTCA”). S.C. Code Ann. § 15-78-10 et seq. The SCTCA explicitly provides that these entities are immune from suit where an employee acts with intent to harm, with malice, or outside the scope of his or her duty. S.C. Code Ann. §§ 15-78-60(17), 15-78-70.

According to Plaintiff’s own pleadings, the act for which he seeks redress – being “blackballed” because Adrienne Sorensen tagged Plaintiff’s applications for employment with a “Barred for Applying” code – was done “outside the scope of her employment” and “with malicious intent.” (Plaintiff’s Complaint, ¶¶ 58-59). For that reason, the Plaintiff’s own allegations bar recovery from the Defendants under these provisions of the SCTCA. See Moore by Moore v. Berkeley County School Dist., 326 S.C. 584, 586-587, 486 S.E.2d 9, 11 (S.C. App. 1997) (governmental entity immune from suit for employee's intentional torts, or acts outside the scope of his duty, under S.C. Code Ann. § 15-78-60(17)); McCall v. Williams, 52 F.Supp.2d 611, 615 (D.S.C. 1999) (governmental entity not proper party for intentional torts under Tort Claims Act); Smith v. City of Greenwood, 2010 WL 2430952, at *2 (D.S.C. May 13, 2010) (noting [District] "courts have been generally consistent in concluding that intentional acts of a governmental employee, intended to do others harm, are deemed outside the scope of their employment," therefore constituting an exception to South Carolina's waiver of immunity under the Tort Claims Act) (slip op. attached); Doe v. Smith, 2014 WL 2968925, at *1 (S.C. App. June 30, 2014) (affirming the trial court's award of summary judgment to governmental entities pursuant to the Tort Claims Act where loss resulted from employee conduct outside of the scope of his official duties) (slip op. attached).

Simply put, as a matter of South Carolina law, the claim is not justiciable and must be dismissed with prejudice.

II. PLAINTIFF HAS FAILED TO STATE A PRIMA FACIE CLAIM FOR ABUSE OF PROCESS AGAINST THE DEFENDANTS, AND FOR THAT REASON, IT MUST BE DISMISSED.

The South Carolina Supreme Court has defined abuse of process as "employment of legal process for some purpose other than which it was intended by law to effect – the improper use of a regularly scheduled process." Huggins v. Winn-Dixie Greenville, Inc., 249 S.C. 206, 153 S.E.2d 693, 695 (1967). It is distinguished from malicious prosecution by saying it "involves the malicious misuse of perversion of the process, after its issuance, for an end not lawfully warranted by it." Johnson v. Painter, 279 S.C. 390, 307 S.E.2d 860 (1983). The elements, as articulated in Huggins, are (1) an ulterior purpose and (2) a willful act in the use of the process not proper in the regular conduct of the proceeding.

The second element, a “willful act,” has been described as “[s]ome definite act or threat not authorized by the process or aimed at an object not legitimate in the use of the process[.]” Hainer v. Am. Med. Int’l, Inc., 328 S.C. 128, 136, 492 S.E.2d 103, 107 (1997). The “willful act” element consists of three components: (1) “a ‘willful’ or overt act”; (2) “in the use of the process”; (3) “that is improper because it is either (a) unauthorized or (b) aimed at an illegitimate collateral objective.” Food Lion, Inc. v. United Food & Commercial Worker’s Int’l Union, 351 S.C. 65, 715 S.E.2d 251, 254 (S.C. App. 2002) (citations omitted).

Here, there is no allegation that any of the Defendants used or authorized civil or criminal “process” with regard to Plaintiff. Lacking this element, Plaintiff’s abuse of process claim fails and must be dismissed with prejudice.

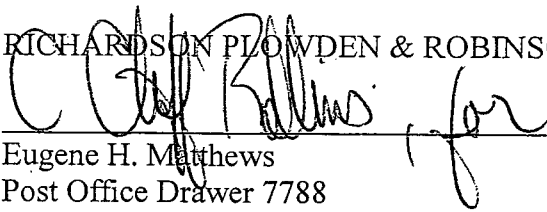

CONCLUSION

For the reasons detailed above, Plaintiff has failed to state any justiciable claim against any of the Defendants. Therefore, Plaintiff’s lawsuit must be dismissed with prejudice, and the Court should award the Defendants any other such relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Dated this the 22nd day of June, 2015.

APPLICABLE LAW

MOTION TO DISMISS STANDARD

Under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(b)(6), a motion to dismiss for failure to state a claim should not be granted unless it appears certain that the plaintiff can prove no set of facts which would support its claim and would entitle it to relief. In considering a motion to dismiss, the court should accept as true all well-pleaded allegations and should view the complaint in a light most favorable to the plaintiff.
Mylan Laboratories, Inc. v. Matkari, 7 F.3d 1130, 1134 (4th Cir.1993) (citations omitted).

DISCUSSION

The defendants Brown, Ouzts, and Powell contend that the plaintiff's civil conspiracy claim should be dismissed because it was not pled prior to the expiration of the two-year statute of limitations period under the South Carolina Tort Claims Act ("SCTA"). See S.C. Code § 15-78-110. The plaintiff responds that the SCTA does not apply to her claim of civil conspiracy and, therefore, a three-year statute of limitations is applicable.
Specifically, the plaintiff argues that she has expressly sued the defendants in their individual, as opposed to official, capacities, which removes them from the ambit of the SCTA.

Section 15-78-70 of the Act provides:

(a) This chapter constitutes the exclusive remedy for any tort committed by an employee of a governmental entity.
An employee of a governmental entity who commits a tort while acting within the scope of his official duty is not liable therefor except as expressly provided in subsection (b).

(b) Nothing in this chapter maybe construed to give an employee of a governmental entity immunity from suit and liability if it is proved that the employee's conduct was not within the scope of his official duties or that it constituted actual fraud, actual malice, intent to harm, or a crime involving moral turpitude.

S.C. Code § 15-78-70 (emphasis added). Under Section 15-78-30: " 'Scope of official duty' or 'scope of state employment' means (1) acting in and about the official business of a governmental entity and (2) performing official duties." S.C. Code § 15-78-30(i).

The plaintiff has specifically alleged in her Amended Complaint that “[s]uch actions on the part of the named defendants in their individual capacities and all acting outside the course and scope of their employment amount to an unlawful conspiracy.” (Am. Compl. ¶ 29 (emphasis added).) Accordingly, the plaintiff has attempted to remove her conspiracy claim from the scope of the SCTA by alleging that the acts of the defendants were expressly outside of the scope and course of the defendants' employment.

*2 The defendant's contend that regardless of the averment, the SCTA is the exclusive statutory remedy for all torts against government employees and, therefore, its statute of limitations controls the timeliness of the conspiracy claim, even if it is ultimately proven that the defendants' actions exceeded the scope of their duties. The plaintiff, in contrast, contends that the averment itself, alleging acts outside of the course of the defendants' employment, exempts the claim from the SCTA. Both parties have relied on the South Carolina Court of Appeals' decision, in Flateau v. Harrelson, 355 S.C. 197, 584 S.E.2d 413 (S.C.Ct.App.2003), to fan their cause.

In Flateau, the South Carolina Court of Appeals considered whether the STCA applied to common law tort claims of outrage, invasion of privacy, and civil conspiracy brought against individual employees of the S.C. Commission for the Blind. Unlike the present case, the Complaint did not allege actions outside of the scope of the defendants' employment and, instead, expressly averred that “[a]t all time of the incident ..., the Defendants were members of the Board of the South Carolina Commission for the Blind.” Id. at 204, 584 S.E.2d 413. The court of appeals emphasized 6 separate averments that reinforced the express allegation in the Complaint that the defendants were acting pursuant to their official duties. Id. at 204–05, 584 S.E.2d 413. The Court of Appeals ultimately concluded that the “pleadings clearly and unequivocally” alleged acts taken in accord with the board members “official duties” about “the official business of the Commission.” Id. at 205, 584 S.E.2d 413. As a result of its determination that the SCTA “controls,” the court of appeals subsequently concluded that the Act's two-year statute of limitations, therefore, applied. Id. at 207, 584 S.E.2d 413.

The plaintiff, here, counters that Flateau is readily distinguishable from the present case, insofar as allegations of official conduct were pled there, and not here. The defendants have impressively reinforced their view of Flateau by citing a difficult portion of it, which appears at the very end of that decision and which would tend to support the defendants' present position on the applicability of the SCTA statute of limitations. Namely, the court of appeals, stated in its conclusion, “We rule the two-year statute of limitations applies even if the Board members acted outside the scope of their official duties or if their actions constituted fraud, actual malice, intent to cause harm, or a crime involving moral turpitude.” Id. at 208, 584 S.E.2d 413 (emphasis added).

This statement has caused the undersigned some consternation and is, frankly, hard to understand. The court of appeals did not expound on its stray remark. The Court has tried to understand Flateau both in the context of its specific facts and holding and prior precedent.

First, courts have been generally consistent in concluding that intentional acts of a governmental employee, intended to do others harm, are deemed outside the scope of their employment and, therefore, constitute an exception to South Carolina's waiver of immunity under the Tort Claims Act. See S.C.Code § 15–78–60(17). The South Carolina Court of Appeals, Moore by Moore v. Berkeley County School Dist., 326 S.C. 584, 486 S.E.2d 9, 11 (S.C.App.1997); the Fourth Circuit, Anthony v. Ward, 336 Fed. Appx. 311, 316–17 (4th Cir.2009) (“The jury's finding that Defendants had civilly conspired against Plaintiff was sufficient to remove from the purview of the SCTCA's protected class of government employees.”); and courts of this district, Moody v. Darnell, 2010 WL 297810, at *3 (D.S.C. January 21, 2010); Carthens v. Lewis, 2009 WL 394299, at *6 (D.S.C. February 17, 2009); Harkness v. City of Anderson, S.C., 2005 WL 2777574, at *4 (D.S.C. October 25, 2005); McCall v. Williams, 52 F.Supp.2d 611, 615 (D.S.C.1999), have all agreed.

*3 Second, the court of appeals analysis, in Flateau, specifically turned on the way in which the Complaint had been pled. The court went to some length to explain how the averments implicated the SCTA, by virtue of their focus on official duty acts. It is a reasonable interpretation of the difficult conclusion in Flateau, that the court meant to say that the statute of limitations for the SCTA was applicable, even if it was later demonstrated that acts outside of the scope of the defendants' employment were committed, because the Complaint had rightly implicated the SCTA in the first instance. The Court is unaware of any other interpretation which would render Flateau and prior and controlling precedent comparably harmonious.

Turning to the Complaint at issue here, the plaintiff has, differently than in Plateau, pled her claim so as to limit her allegations to conduct which purports to either be beyond the scope of the defendants' employment or otherwise intended to cause harm. See S.C. Code § 15-78-70. As stated, the Amended Complaint alleges that the conspiracy was performed in the defendants' "individual capacities" and "outside the course and scope of their employment." (Amend. Comp. ¶ 29.) The defendants would be liable, therefore, if at all, only to the extent their conduct, in fact, proved of the kind left expressly beyond the reach of the SCTCA. Moreover, a civil conspiracy claim requires, as one of its three elements, proof of an intent to injure the plaintiff. See Pye v. Estate of Fox, 369 S.C. 555, 633 S.E.2d 505, 511 (2006); Kuznik v. Bees Ferry Assocs., 342 S.C. 579, 538 S.E.2d 15, 31 (Ct.App.2000). Accordingly, the Court finds the SCTCA, and its concomitant statute of limitations, inapplicable. Instead, the general three-year statute of limitations applies to the civil conspiracy claim pursuant to S.C. Code § 15-3-530(5). See Dorman v. Campbell, 331 S.C. 179, 500 S.E.2d 786, 788-790 (S.C.Ct.App.1998). This district has recently agreed. See Moody v. Darnell, 2010 WL 297810, at *3 (D.S.C. January 21, 2010) ("Based upon the allegations in the complaint, the SCTCA statute of limitations would not apply to these claims." (emphasis added)). The defendants do not contend that the claim is untimely under that general statute of limitations.

To the extent the district court disagrees and finds that the Act is, in fact, applicable, the claim must be dismissed without prejudice and the statute of limitations issue left undecided. The circuit courts of South Carolina have exclusive jurisdiction over state-law claims against governmental entities pursuant to the South Carolina Tort Claims Act ("SCTCA"). See S.C. Code Ann. § 15-78-100(b). The District of South Carolina has recognized this limitation on its jurisdiction, based both on Section 15-78-100 and Section 15-78-20(e) of the South Carolina Code, which expressly preserve the State of South Carolina's Eleventh Amendment immunity from suit in federal court. See Stewart v. Beaufort County, 481 F.Supp.2d 483, 493 (D.S.C.2007); Smith v. Ozmint, 2007 WL 858749, at *35 (D.S.C. March 20, 2007). Accordingly, whatever claims the plaintiff has pursuant to SCTCA should be dismissed without prejudice.

CONCLUSION AND RECOMMENDATION

*4 Wherefore, based upon the foregoing, the Court recommends that the defendants' motion to dismiss be DENIED.

IT IS SO RECOMMENDED.

Opinion

PER CURIAM.

*1 Jane Doe appeals the order of the trial court granting summary judgment to Charles Smith, Charleston County
School District (District), and James Island High School
(High School) on her claims for breach of fiduciary duty, outrage, and gross negligence. We affirm.

(1) We find the trial court did not err in granting the District and the High School summary judgment on Doe's negligent supervision claim. See S.C. Code Ann. § 15-78-60(25) (2005) (providing a governmental entity is not liable for a loss resulting from the "responsibility or duty including but not limited to supervision, protection, control, confinement, or custody of any student, ... except where the responsibility or duty is exercised in a grossly negligent manner ...");

Degenhart v. Knights of Columbus, 309 S.C. 114, 116-17, 420 S.E.2d 495, 496 (1992) (stating an employer may be liable for negligent supervision when the employee intentionally harms another when he is on the employer's premises, he is on premises he is privileged to enter only as an employee or is using the employer's chattel, the employer knows or has reason to know he has the ability to control the employee, and the employer knows or has reason to know of the necessity and opportunity to exercise such control);
Moore v. Berkeley Cnty. Sch. Dist., 326 S.C. 584, 591-92, 486 S.E.2d 9, 13 (Ct.App.1997) (finding district not liable for negligent supervision when although there was evidence teacher's classroom was conducted in a lax manner and some teachers observed what they considered "inappropriate" behavior in the classroom, none of the alleged classroom incidents were of such a character that the administration would have, if aware of them, reasonably anticipated that the teacher would engage in sexual intercourse with a student in her own home after school hours). Doe presented no evidence that the District knew or had reason to know of a need to exercise control over Smith to prevent him from abusing Doe.

(2) We find Doe's contention the School District and the High School failed to exercise slight care because it made no effort to offer guidance, accommodation, or other support to Doe
after her suicide attempt is not preserved for appellate review.
See Wilder Corp. v. Wilke, 330 S.C. 71, 76, 497 S.E.2d 731, 733 (1998) ("It is axiomatic that an issue cannot be raised for the first time on appeal, but must have been raised to and ruled upon by the trial judge to be preserved for appellate review.").

(3) We find the trial court did not err in holding the District and the High School are not liable under a theory of respondeat superior. See S.C. Code Ann. § 15-78-60(17) (2005) (excluding a governmental entity from liability for a loss resulting from "employee conduct outside the scope of his official duties or which constitutes actual fraud, actual malice, intent to harm, or a crime involving moral turpitude ..."); Froneberger v. Smith, 406 S.C. 37, 748 S.E.2d 625, 633 (Ct.App.2013) (stating the modern doctrine of respondeat superior makes a master liable to a third party for injuries caused by the tort of his servant committed within the scope of the servant's employment); Kase v. Ebert, 392 S.C. 57, 61-62, 707 S.E.2d 456, 458 (Ct.App.2011)
("If a servant steps aside from the master's business for some purpose wholly disconnected with his employment, the relation of master and servant is temporarily suspended; and this is so no matter how short the time, and the master is not liable for his acts during such time.”(internal citations and quotation marks omitted)); Frazier v. Badger, 361 S.C. 94, 103, 603 S.E.2d 587, 591 (2004) (“[S]exual harassment by a government employee is not within the employee's ‘scope of employment.’ ”); Brockington v. Pee Dee Mental Health Ctr., 315 S.C. 214, 218, 433 S.E.2d 16, 18 (Ct.App.1993) (holding an employee clearly was acting in his individual capacity and not as an agent for the defendants when he sexually assaulted the victim in his office).

*2 (4) Doe failed to challenge the trial court's granting of summary judgment to the District and the High School on Doe's breach of fiduciary duty claim and outrage claim. She also failed to challenge the trial court's ruling that all of Doe's claims against the High School fail because the High School did not exist as a separate legal entity until 2003. These rulings are the law of the case. See Jones v. Lott, 387 S.C. 339, 346, 692 S.E.2d 900, 903 (2010) (“Under the two issue rule, where a decision is based on more than one ground, the appellate court will affirm unless the appellant appeals all grounds because the unappealed ground will become the law of the case.”); First Union Nat'l Bank of S.C. v. Soden, 333 S.C. 554, 566, 511 S.E.2d 372, 378 (Ct.App.1998) (holding an “unchallenged ruling, right or wrong, is the law of the case and requires affirmance”).

(5) We find Doe failed to challenge properly the trial court's ruling that her claims against Smith for outrage and punitive damages were barred by the Tort Claims Act. Her only discussion of this ruling is in a footnote in her brief within the argument section “The Respondents owed a duty of care to Doe,” in which she states: “To the extent Smith was acting outside the scope of his employment by taking Doe for rides in his car and tending to Doe after her suicide attempt, the ruling by the trial court barring the claims of outrage and for punitive damages against Smith are in error because those limitations on liability apply only to employees acting within the scope of their employment.” See Rule 208(b)(1)(B), SCACR (“Ordinarily, no point will be considered which is not set forth in the statement of the issues on appeal.”); Walde v. Ass'n Ins. Co., 401 S.C. 431, 435 n. 1, 737 S.E.2d 631, 633 n. 1 (Ct.App.2012) (refusing to address an issue when the appellant's brief did not include an issue on appeal addressing this contention, did not argue the specific issue, and only briefly referred to this concern in another argument without providing any supporting authority); Fassett v. Evans, 364

S.C. 42, 50 n. 5, 610 S.E.2d 841, 846 n. 5 (Ct.App.2005) (holding that even if a one-sentence argument could be construed as raising a separate issue on appeal, it was abandoned for being conclusory and failing to cite any supporting authority).

(6) We find the trial court did not err in holding Doe's claims were barred by the statute of limitations. See Moriarty v. Garden Sanctuary Church of God, 341 S.C. 320, 336, 340, 534 S.E.2d 672, 680, 682 (2000) (stating a plaintiff must present at the summary judgment stage and at trial independently verifiable, objective evidence that corroborates a repressed memory claim in order to assert the discovery rule); id. at 335, 534 S.E.2d at 680 (explaining the requirement of corroborating evidence “appropriately balances the plaintiff's interest in pursuing a valid claim and the defendant's interest in being able to defend a stale or false claim); id. at 335–36, 534 S.E.2d at 680 (noting reasons for the requirement are “the disagreement among the psychological and medical communities about the validity of repressed memory syndrome, the danger a plaintiff's memories could be faked or implanted during therapy, and the desire that a plaintiff not have the ability to control the running of the statute of limitations solely by allegations whose only support is contained within the plaintiff's mind”); id. at 336, 534 S.E.2d at 680 (listing examples of corroborating evidence that may satisfy the objective verifiability requirement as “(1) an admission by the abuser; (2) a criminal conviction; (3) documented medical history of childhood sexual abuse; (4) contemporaneous records or written statements of the abuser, such as diaries or letters; (5) photographs or recordings of the abuse; (6) an objective eyewitness's account; (7) evidence the abuser had sexually abused others; or (8) proof of a chain of facts and circumstances having sufficient probative force to produce a reasonable and probable conclusion that sexual abuse occurred”). In order to avoid application of the statute of limitations, Doe was required to establish independently verifiable, objective evidence to corroborate her repressed memory claim. We find Doe failed to present evidence that meets the requirements of Moriarty.

NOW COME the Defendants South Carolina Department of Employment Workforce, South Carolina Budget and Control Board and Office of South Carolina Governor regarding “Barred From Applying” which was an intentional act known to all but unknown to Plaintiff. I am asking this Honorable Court to decline Defendant’s request for dismissal base on the South Carolina Code of Laws that South Carolina Department of Employment Workforce, South Carolina Budget and Control Board and Office of South Carolina Governor violated employment laws with “Barred From Applying”.

FACTS

SCDEW and SCBCB through deliberately and corrupt actions provided written communication that it was a system error but an independent agency as South Carolina Human Affairs determined that “Barred From Applying” was an intentional act. Plaintiff has expired which is not accordance with facts of the civil complaint. "Barred From Applying was confirmed on July 22, 2013 and civil complaint filed May 21, 2015 therefore within the two years requirement.

LEGAL ARGUMENT

SECTION 16-16-10. Definitions. For purposes of this chapter:

(a) "Computer" means a device that performs logical, arithmetic, and memory functions by manipulating impulses including, but not limited to, all input, output, processing, storage, computer software, and communication facilities that are connected or related to a computer in a computer system or computer network. For the purposes of this section, "computer" includes, but is not limited to, mainframes, servers, workstations, desktops, and notebooks; industrial controls such as programmable logic controllers and supervisory control and data acquisition systems; portable hand-held computing devices such as personal digital assistants and digital cellular telephones; data communications network devices such as routers and switches; and all other devices that are computer-based or communicate with or are under the control of a computer such as appropriate telephone switches, medical devices, and cable and satellite television interface systems. "Computer" does not include automated typewriters or typesetters.

SECTION (15-78-60) Exceptions to waiver of immunity: {25} responsibility or duty including but not limited to supervision, protection, control, confinement, or custody of SECTION 16-7-150. Slander and libel.

Any person who shall with malicious intent originate, utter, circulate or publish any false statement or matter concerning another the effect of which shall tend to injure such person in his character or reputation shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction therefor, be subject to punishment by fine not to exceed five thousand dollars or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or by both fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court; provided, that nothing herein shall be construed to abridge any right any person may have by way of an action for damages for libel or slander under the existing law.

SECTION 15-3-550. Two years.

Within two years:

- (1) an action for libel, slander, or false imprisonment; and
- (2) an action upon a statute for a forfeiture or penalty to the State

SECTION 15-78-30. Definitions.

(a) "Agency" means the individual office, agency, authority, department, commission, board, division, instrumentality, or institution, including a state-supported governmental health care facility, school, college, university, or technical college, which employs the employee whose act or omission gives rise to a claim under this chapter.

received verification from SCBCB by Freedom of Information Request which showed Adrienne Sorenson in her scope of duty performed “Barred From Applying” until December 30, 2018 which prevented employment opportunities that has caused deprivation. Defendants are alleging that Plaintiff complaint considered the act of Adrienne Sorenson to be criminal and may not be brought as part of a civil action therefore the mentioning of such was to show how the State of South Carolina perceived her actions. The State of South Carolina did not prosecute Adrienne Sorenson after being dutifully notified of her actions therefore dismiss Defendants claim of a criminal act and for the purpose of this civil lawsuit but as such that has been stated as justifiable verification to slander and libel acts. Defendants are suggesting that Plaintiff stated Adrienne Sorenson did do “outside the scope of her employment and with malicious intent” which was only to show such an egregious act with “Barred From Applying” had to be approved by supervisory management due to being a lower level human resources employee because when responding to past email rejection letters from her referred back to Supervisor Kerry Paul and therefore a previous pattern suggest the same procedure. Adrienne Sorenson did act within scope of her job while at her employment location site of SCDEW. The malicious intent is referring the denied of a job opportunity at SC Judicial Center, denied other job opportunities and expiration date of December 30, 2018. Defendants are claiming no Abuse of Process which is in totally disagreement. Defendants are alleging that Plaintiff two years statue limitations for a Defamation claims any student, patient, prisoner, inmate, or client of any governmental entity, except when the responsibility or duty is exercised in a grossly negligent manner.

SECTION 41-27-20. Declaration of State public policy.

Without intending that this section shall supersede, alter or modify the specific provisions contained in Chapters 27 through 41 of this Title, but as a guide to the interpretation and application of Chapters 27 through 41 of this Title, the public policy of this State is declared to be as follows: Economic insecurity due to unemployment is a serious menace to health, morals and welfare of the people of this State; involuntary unemployment is therefore a subject of general interest and concern which requires appropriate action by the General Assembly to prevent its spread and to lighten its burden which so often falls with crushing force upon the unemployed worker and his family; the achievement of social security requires protection against this greatest hazard of our economic life; this can be provided by encouraging the employers to provide more stable employment and by the systematic accumulation of funds during periods of employment to provide benefits for periods of unemployment, thus maintaining purchasing power and limiting the serious social consequences of poor relief assistance. The General Assembly therefore declares that in its considered judgment the public good and the general welfare of the citizens of this State require the enactment of this measure, under the police powers of the State, for the compulsory setting aside of unemployment reserves to be used for the benefit of persons unemployed through no fault of their own.

(b) "Claim" means any written demand against the State of South Carolina or a political subdivision for money only, on account of loss, caused by the tort of any employee of the State or a political subdivision while acting within the scope of his official duty.

(c) Prior to January 1, 1989, "employee" means any officer, employee, or agent of the State or its political subdivisions, including elected or appointed officials, law enforcement officers, and persons acting on behalf or in service of a governmental entity in the scope of official duty, whether with or without compensation, but the term does not include an independent contractor doing business with the State or a political subdivision of the State. Custody of prisoners by the State or any of its political subdivisions does not in and of itself create an employer and employee relationship between the State and the prisoner. Provided, the provisions of this section in no way limit or modify the liability of a licensed physician or dentist, acting within the scope of his profession.

On or after January 1, 1989, "employee" means any officer, employee, agent, or court appointed representative of the State or its political subdivisions, including elected or appointed officials, law enforcement officers, and persons acting on behalf or in service of a governmental entity in the scope of official duty including, but not limited to, technical experts whether with or without compensation, but the term does not include an independent contractor doing business with the State or a political subdivision of the State. Custody of prisoners by the State or any of its political subdivisions does not in and of itself create an employer and employee relationship between the State and the prisoner. Provided, the provisions of this section in no way limit or modify the liability of licensed physician or dentist, acting within the scope of his profession, with respect to any action or claim which involved services for which the physician or dentist was paid, should have been paid, or expected to be paid at the time of the rendering of the services from a source other than the salary appropriated by the governmental entity or fees received from any practice plan authorized by the employer whether or not the practice plan is incorporated and registered with the Secretary of State.

(d) "Governmental entity" means the State and its political subdivisions.

(e) "State" means the State of South Carolina and any of its offices, agencies, authorities, departments, commissions, boards, divisions, instrumentalities, including the South Carolina Protection and Advocacy System for the Handicapped, Inc., and institutions, including state-supported governmental health care facilities, schools, colleges, universities, and technical colleges.

(f) "Loss" means bodily injury, disease, death, or damage to tangible property, including lost wages and economic loss to the person who suffered the injury, disease, or death, pain and suffering, mental anguish, and any other element of actual damages recoverable in actions for negligence, but does not include the intentional infliction of emotional harm.

(g) "Occurrence" means an unfolding sequence of events which proximately flow from a single act of negligence.

(i) "Scope of official duty" or "scope of state employment" means (1) acting in and about the official business of a governmental entity and (2) performing official duties.

SECTION 15-78-40. Tort liability of State, agency, political subdivision, or governmental entity, generally.

The State, an agency, a political subdivision, and a governmental entity are liable for their torts in the same manner and to the same extent as a private individual under like circumstances, subject to the limitations upon liability and damages, and exemptions from liability and damages, contained herein.

South Carolina Department of Employment Workforce, South Carolina Budget and Control Board and Office of South Carolina Governor clearly violated Section 41-27-20 Declaration of State public policy: without intending that this section shall supersede, either or modify the specific provisions contained in chapter 27 through 41 of this Title but as a guide to the interpretation and application of chapter 27 through 41 of this Title, the public policy of this state is declared to be as follows: Economic insecurity due to unemployment is a serious menace to health, morals and welfare of the people of this state etc,al. "Barred From Applying" being applied to Plaintiff created that menace environment to health, morals and welfare under South Carolina Law Code 41-27-20.

SECTION 1-13-80. Unlawful employment practices; exceptions.

(A) It is an unlawful employment practice for an employer:

(1) to fail or refuse to hire, bar, discharge from employment or otherwise discriminate against an individual with respect to the individual's compensation or terms, conditions, or privileges of employment because of the individual's race, religion, color, sex, age, national origin, or disability;

8

(2) to limit, segregate, or classify employees or applicants for employment in a way which would deprive or tend to deprive an individual of employment opportunities, or otherwise adversely affect the individual's status as an employee, because of the individual's race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, or disability;

The egregious act of "Barred From Applying" discriminated and deny employment opportunities, please refer to South Carolina Code of Law Section 41-27-240, 41-27-650 (B), 41-42-10, 41-29-120 (a, d), 1-13-20, 16-7-150, 1-13-80 {1}{2}.

CONCLUSION

For this reason detailed above, Defendants has failed to state any justifiable claim against any of the Plaintiff. Therefore, Defendant's Dismissal must be denied and allow the civil complaint to move forward which is just according to violations of the laws that govern the state of South Carolina.

Respectfully submitted, employment opportunities. The fact that Attorney Eugene H. Matthews for Defendants have asked this Honorable Court to dismiss complaint with prejudice instead of fairness and truth is of serious concerns which SCDEW, SCBCB And Office Of South Carolina Governor therefore has shown a willful act to violate the laws of this state established by South Carolina General Assembly. By the state of South Carolina classifying Plaintiff as “Barred From Applying” violated South Carolina Code of Law 1-13-80. South Carolina General Assembly attempted to promote dignity, fairness and harmony for one another therefore declared under South Carolina Code of Law 1-13-80 (A) (B) SECTION 1-13-80. Unlawful employment practices; exceptions.

(A) It is an unlawful employment practice for an employer:

(1) to fail or refuse to hire, bar, discharge from employment or otherwise discriminate against an individual with respect to the individual's compensation or terms, conditions, or privileges of employment because of the individual's race, religion, color, sex, age, national origin, or disability;

(2) to limit, segregate, or classify employees or applicants for employment in a way which would deprive or tend to deprive an individual of employment opportunities, or otherwise adversely affect the individual's status as an employee, because of the individual's race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, or disability;

(B) It is an unlawful employment practice for an employment agency to fail or refuse to refer for employment or otherwise to discriminate against an individual because of the individual's race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, or disability, or to classify or refer for employment an individual on the basis of the individual's race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, or disability.

Having considered the memoranda provided by each side and the arguments of the parties, I hereby GRANT the Plaintiff's Motion In Opposition To Dismiss Complaint and affirmed the law as established by the South Carolina General Assembly to govern.

STANDARD OF REVIEW

In considering Memorandum Of Law In Opposition To Dismiss per Defendant's Request asked that this Honorable Court base its ruling on all allegations set forth in complaint because of the severity and a total disregard for the law. Plaintiff's Complaint specifically addressed Defamation by slander and libel as a claim which South Carolina Code of Law 15-3-550 affirmed. SCDEW, SCBCB And Office Of South Carolina Governor are all government entities where "Barred From Applying" was activated under their authority and supervision therefore is subject to the Tort Law of SC Code of Law 15-78-40. By SCDEW, SCBCB And Office Of South Carolina Governor all committed an unlawful employment practices under SC Code of Law 1-13-80 (A) {1,2} which discriminated against Plaintiff would be subject to the South Carolina Tort Claims Act Law 15-78-40.

DEFENDANT'S ALLEGATIONS

Defendants has alleged no wrong doings and has not accepted responsibility for any issues raised in complaint. Defendants are alleging that Plaintiff's application was not secretly blackballed by state of South Carolina. Defendants has made no acknowledgment of "Barred From Applying" either by Adrienne Sorenson under the authority and supervision of SCDEW, SCBCB and Office of South Carolina Governor. Defendants has made referenced to SCDEW, and SCBCB was system error due to (Plaintiff's Complaint (37-38) but has failed to recognized in (38) that their own investigation had evidence that it was not a malfunction. Defendants are alleging that individual persons named in the complaint has not been served and because of this inaccurate and reckless statement only seek to deceive this Honorable Court due to government entities; SCDEW, SCBCB and Office of South Carolina Governor has clearly been notified as party. Defendants has stated that Defamation has not occur when Plaintiff Complaint outlined with First Cause Of Action as such through slander and libel of written communications. Defendants has stated no Abuse Of Process but SC Code Of Law 41-27-20 Declaration of State Public Policy clearly states: Economic insecurity due to unemployment is a serious menace to health, moral and welfare of the people of this state when involuntary. Defendants has alleged that Final Cause Of Actions does not described an independent cause of action which is clearly define by SC Code Of Law 15-3-550 as a stated claim therefore justification has been established that speaks directly to the injured.

OPINION

Defendants; SCDEW, SCBCB and Office Of South Carolina has taken assurance that with the preponderance of evidence against them available through discovery this Honorable Court without answering the complaint will be granted a Motion To Dismiss with prejudice. To make a request for prejudice have asked this Honorable Court for a decision not based on evidence but bias and preferential treatment. Defendants to make false claims that individual persons have been named as party to complaint and not contacted is judicial obstruction.

DEFENDANTS ARE ALLEGING DEFAMATION CLAIMS FOR SOUTH CAROLINA TORT CLAIMS ACT FAILS UNDER THE LAW SOUTH CAROLINA CODE OF LAW 15-78-10.

Defendants are alleging that because Adrienne Sorenson has been determined to have activated “Barred From Applying” which is outside scope of her duty as an employee of SCDEW therefore South Carolina Tort Claims Act does not apply. SECTION 15-78-70. Liability for act of government employee; requirement that agency or political subdivision be named party defendant; effect of judgment or settlement. (25) responsibility or duty including but not limited to supervision, protection, control, confinement, or custody of any student, patient, prisoner, inmate, or client of any governmental entity, except when the responsibility or duty is exercised in a grossly negligent manner. Adrienne Sorenson secretly applied “Barred From Applying” to expired December 30, 2018 unknown to applicant which has denied employment opportunities and as an employee of SCDEW acted in a grossly manner therefore he employer which is a government entity therefore can not apply immunity. Adrienne Sorenson was at her employment which is SCDEW on July 19, 2013 at 11:11 am when "Barred from Applying" was activated therefore out of the scope of her employment does not apply but within the scope of her duties applies. SC Code Of Law 15-78-30 (I) refers to Scope of Official Duty or Scope of State Employment means (1) acting in and about the official business of a governmental entity and (2) performing official duties. SC Code Of Law 15-78-30 (I) {1,2} specifically applies to the actions of Adrienne Sorenson in her official duty at SCDEW in the human resources department. Defendants are referring to Plaintiff's Complaint (58-59) suggesting Adrienne Sorenson acted outside the scope of her employment but failed to realized that (59) states Adrienne Sorenson committed "Barred From Applying" with malicious intent, originate, utter, circulate or published any false statement therefore a violation pertaining to slander and libel in her capacity at SCDEW under the authority of SCDEW, SCBCB And Office Of South Carolina Governor. SC Code of Law 15-78-60 does not apply to this complaint and does not exempt SCDEW, SCBCB And Office Of South Carolina Governor.

DEFENDANTS ARE ALLEGING PLAINTIFF HAS FAILED A PRIMA FACIE CLAIM FOR ABUSE OF PROCESS DEFENDANTS, AND FOR THAT REASON, IT MUST BE DISMISSED.

In reading Defendant's statement it is assuming that Plaintiff has not suffered of an (1) ulterior motive by Barred From Applying and (2) a willful act in the use of the process not proper in the regular conduct of the proceeding. Plaintiff have suffered harm from SCDEW with senior level staff calling and making threats that there will be no interests in employment with false accusations of harassment by employees which has not been substantiated. SCDEW Senior Staff, Koa Morgan sent a letter to my residence advising not to have contact with a public agency that assist job applicants, false accusations of harassment and threats of filing charges with local law enforcement. Plaintiff has affirmed that "Barred From Applying" activated by Adrienne Sorenson under the authority and supervision of SCDEW, SCBCB And Office Of South Carolina Governor had an ulterior motive by such an egregious act because of the financial hardship that created a life of poverty currently surviving on foodstamps. The branding of Plaintiff "Barred From Applying" until December 30, 2018 would have life long lasting harm as unfit for employment opportunities publicly and privately as character assassination. Plaintiff has been unable to obtain employment that is compatible with education and past work experiences. Plaintiff has affirmed that "Barred From Applying" was a willful act in the use of the process not proper in the regular conduct of the proceeding because the primary function and fundamental basis for SCDEW is to assist with job seekers with employment. "Barred From Applying" for job opportunities became a willful act in the use of the process not proper in the regular conduct of the proceeding. Defendants would send Plaintiff email rejection letters for state of South Carolina positions applied for within minutes of each other on the same day from four (4) to fourteen (14) therefore applications were not receiving proper consideration before "Barred From Applying" was known. Plaintiff had declared to government entities that he was being blackballed before "Barred From Applying". Plaintiff was not aware of "Barred From Applying" until receiving notification from Sharlayne Bellamy of S.C. Judicial Center stating this application can not be considered for employment since receiving that notification from the state of South Carolina. The state of South Carolina did not contact Plaintiff regarding notification of "Barred From Applying" when other positions was applied with the state of South Carolina during the same week. This Honorable Court with confidence can be assured that "Barred From Applying" was a willful and overt act because soon as notification was provided by Plaintiff it was immediately removed by Terrashima Ellerbe of SCBCB on July 25, 2013 at 8:22 am within the scope of her duties. Defendants has suggested that "Barred From Applying" activated by Adrienne Sorenson to be unauthorized therefore do not reach the element of willful which Plaintiff degreed with because all other numerous previous correspondences from her was sent under the authority of immediate Supervisor Kerry Paul that would suggest the same process for other job duties. Plaintiff has never suggested that Adrienne Sorenson as a Defendants but SCDEW, SCBCB And Office Of South Carolina Governor which are government entity and therefore South Carolina Tort Claims Act Law is suitable and must be applied due to an employee grossly negligence act working for a government agency.

Here, the Defendant's Motion To Dismiss contains baseless allegations with regards to unlawful unemployment practices that has been stated in Complaint and affirmed by the preponderance of evidence which is readily to be inspected by this Honorable Court as verification therefore is justifiable to deny dismissal on fairness and truth.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons detailed above, Plaintiff has stated justifiable claims against South Carolina Department Of Employment Workforce, South Carolina Budget and Control Board and Office of South Carolina Governor.

The Defendant's Motions To Dismiss with prejudice is DENIED and Plaintiff's Complaint moves forward with Discovery due to preponderance of evidence.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.

Title 15 - Civil Remedies and Procedures

CHAPTER 78

South Carolina Tort Claims Act

SECTION 15-78-10. Short title.

This chapter may be cited as the "South Carolina Tort Claims Act".

HISTORY: 1986 Act No. 463, Section 1.

SECTION 15-78-20. Legislative findings; declaration of public policy; extent of, and construction of, waiver of immunity.

(a) The General Assembly finds that while a private entrepreneur may be readily held liable for negligence of his employees within the chosen ambit of his activity, the area within which government has the power to act for the public good has been without limit and, therefore, government did not have the duty to do everything which might have been done. The General Assembly further finds that each governmental entity has financial limitations within which it must exercise authorized power and discretion in determining the extent and nature of its activities. Thus, while total immunity from liability on the part of the government is not desirable, see McCall v. Batson, neither should the government be subject to unlimited nor unqualified liability for its actions. The General Assembly recognizes the potential problems and hardships each governmental entity may face being subjected to unlimited and unqualified liability for its actions. Additionally, the General Assembly recognizes the impossibility of insuring for acts retrospectively. The General Assembly seeks an orderly transition to the recognition of individuals' rights against the tortious sovereign as defined herein. Consequently, it is declared to be the public policy of the State of South Carolina that the State, and its political subdivisions, are only liable for torts within the limitations of this chapter and in accordance with the principles established herein. It is further declared to be the public policy of the State of South Carolina that to insure an orderly transition from sovereign immunity to qualified and limited liability that the General Assembly intends to provide for liability on the part of the State and its political subdivisions only from July 1, 1988, forward in prospective fashion. No governmental entity which was not insured at the time of the injury for which compensation is sought is liable under this chapter and those which were insured are liable only to the extent provided herein. Liability for acts or omissions under this chapter is based upon the traditional tort concepts of duty and the reasonably prudent person's standard of care in the performance of that duty.

(b) The General Assembly in this chapter intends to grant the State, its political subdivisions, and employees, while acting within the scope of official duty, immunity from liability and suit for any tort except as waived by this chapter. The General Assembly additionally intends to provide for liability on the part of the State, its political subdivisions, and employees, while acting within the scope of official duty, only to the extent provided herein. All other immunities applicable to a governmental entity, its employees, and agents are expressly preserved. The remedy provided by this chapter is the exclusive civil remedy available for any tort committed by a governmental entity, its employees, or its agents except as provided in Section 15-78-70(b).

(c)(i) As to those causes of action that arise or accrue prior to the effective date of this act, the General Assembly reinstates sovereign immunity on the part of the State, its political subdivisions and employees, while acting within the scope of official duty provided that sovereign immunity will not bar recovery in any cause of action arising or accruing on or before the effective date of this act if the defendant maintained liability insurance coverage.

(ii) In such cases involving governmental health care facilities, as defined in Section 15-78-30(j), recovery shall not exceed the limits of the liability insurance coverage up to a maximum recovery of five hundred thousand dollars.

(iii) In all other such cases recovery shall not exceed the limits of the liability insurance coverage.

(d) Nothing in this chapter affects liability based on contract nor does it affect the power of the State or its political subdivisions to contract.

(e) Nothing in this chapter is construed as a waiver of the state's or political subdivision's immunity from suit in federal court under the Eleventh Amendment to the Constitution of the United States nor as consent to be sued in any state court beyond the boundaries of the State of South Carolina.

(f) The provisions of this chapter establishing limitations on and exemptions to the liability of the State, its political subdivisions, and employees, while acting within the scope of official duty, must be liberally construed in favor of limiting the liability of the State.

(g) The General Assembly recognizes the competing interests of either providing physicians and dentists qualified immunity under the provisions of the South Carolina Tort Claims Act or continuing unqualified liability for medical malpractice actions brought against governmentally employed physicians or dentists. While patients deserve accountable and competent health care, regardless of the public or private character of the provider, governmental entities, in order to attract qualified physicians and dentists, must be able to offer an affordable compensation and employment package, including liability insurance. The General Assembly, in amending this chapter, intends to provide an orderly transition from noninclusion to inclusion of physicians and dentists under the provisions of this chapter. Additionally, the liability limits, and hence mandated insurance coverage, of governmental entities for acts of physicians or dentists, acting within the scope of their profession, are set somewhat higher than those provided for other types of governmental liability. These higher limits and mandated coverages are recognition by the General Assembly of significantly higher damages in cases of medical malpractice. To this end, inclusion of physicians and dentists within this chapter has been delayed until January 1, 1989, when an affordable program of group liability insurance will be instituted.

Title 41 - Labor and Employment

CHAPTER 27

Employment and Workforce - General Provisions

ARTICLE 1

Short Title; Purpose; Construction; Amendments

SECTION 41-27-10. Short title.

Chapters 27 through 41 of this title shall be known and may be cited as the "South Carolina Department of Employment and Workforce".

HISTORY: 1962 Code Section 68-1; 1952 Code Section 68-1; 1942 Code Section 7035-81; 1936 (39) 1716; 1966 (54) 2640; 2010 Act No. 146, Section 11, eff March 30, 2010.

SECTION 41-27-20. Declaration of State public policy.

Without intending that this section shall supersede, alter or modify the specific provisions contained in Chapters 27 through 41 of this Title, but as a guide to the interpretation and application of Chapters 27 through 41 of this Title, the public policy of this State is declared to be as follows: Economic insecurity due to unemployment is a serious menace to health, morals and welfare of the people of this State; involuntary unemployment is therefore a subject of general interest and concern which requires appropriate action by the General Assembly to prevent its spread and to lighten its burden which so often falls with crushing force upon the unemployed worker and his family; the achievement of social security requires protection against this greatest hazard of our economic life; this can be provided by encouraging the employers to provide more stable employment and by the systematic accumulation of funds during periods of employment to provide benefits for periods of unemployment, thus maintaining purchasing power and limiting the serious social consequences of poor relief assistance. The General Assembly therefore declares that in its considered judgment the public good and the general welfare of the citizens of this State require the enactment of this measure, under the police powers of the State, for the compulsory setting aside of unemployment reserves to be used for the benefit of persons unemployed through no fault of their own.

SECTION 41-27-30. Construction.

Nothing in Chapters 27 through 41 of this title must be construed to cause the department or the courts of this State in interpreting these chapters to be bound by interpretations as to liability or nonliability of employers by Federal administrative agencies, nor is it the intent of the General Assembly to require an identical coverage of employers under these chapters with coverage requirements pursuant to Section 3101 et seq. of the Federal Internal Revenue Code.

Title 15 - Civil Remedies and Procedures

CHAPTER 78

South Carolina Tort Claims Act

SECTION 15-78-10. Short title.

This chapter may be cited as the "South Carolina Tort Claims Act".

HISTORY: 1986 Act No. 463, Section 1.

SECTION 15-78-20. Legislative findings; declaration of public policy; extent of, and construction of, waiver of immunity.

(a) The General Assembly finds that while a private entrepreneur may be readily held liable for negligence of his employees within the chosen ambit of his activity, the area within which government has the power to act for the public good has been without limit and, therefore, government did not have the duty to do everything which might have been done. The General Assembly further finds that each governmental entity has financial limitations within which it must exercise authorized power and discretion in determining the extent and nature of its activities. Thus, while total immunity from liability on the part of the government is not desirable, see McCall v. Batson, neither should the government be subject to unlimited nor unqualified liability for its actions. The General Assembly recognizes the potential problems and hardships each governmental entity may face being subjected to unlimited and unqualified liability for its actions. Additionally, the General Assembly recognizes the impossibility of insuring for acts retrospectively. The General Assembly seeks an orderly transition to the recognition of individuals' rights against the tortious sovereign as defined herein. Consequently, it is declared to be the public policy of the State of South Carolina that the State, and its political subdivisions, are only liable for torts within the limitations of this chapter and in accordance with the principles established herein. It is further declared to be the public policy of the State of South Carolina that to insure an orderly transition from sovereign immunity to qualified and limited liability that the General Assembly intends to provide for liability on the part of the State and its political subdivisions only from July 1, 1986, forward in prospective fashion. No governmental entity which was not insured at the time of the injury for which compensation is sought is liable under this chapter and those which were insured are liable only to the extent provided herein. Liability for acts or omissions under this chapter is based upon the traditional tort concepts of duty and the reasonably prudent person's standard of care in the performance of that duty.

(b) The General Assembly in this chapter intends to grant the State, its political subdivisions, and employees, while acting within the scope of official duty, immunity from liability and suit for any tort except as waived by this chapter. The General Assembly additionally intends to provide for liability on the part of the State, its political subdivisions, and employees, while acting within the scope of official duty, only to the extent provided herein. All other immunities applicable to a governmental entity, its employees, and agents are expressly preserved. The remedy provided by this chapter is the exclusive civil remedy available for any tort committed by a governmental entity, its employees, or its agents except as provided in Section 15-78-70(b).

(c)(i) As to those causes of action that arise or accrue prior to the effective date of this act, the General Assembly reinstates sovereign immunity on the part of the State, its political subdivisions and employees, while acting within the scope of official duty provided that sovereign immunity will not bar recovery in any cause of action arising or accruing on or before the effective date of this act if the defendant maintained liability insurance coverage.

(ii) In such cases involving governmental health care facilities, as defined in Section 15-78-30(j), recovery shall not exceed the limits of the liability insurance coverage up to a maximum recovery of five hundred thousand dollars.

(iii) In all other such cases recovery shall not exceed the limits of the liability insurance coverage.

(d) Nothing in this chapter affects liability based on contract nor does it affect the power of the State or its political subdivisions to contract.

(e) Nothing in this chapter is construed as a waiver of the state's or political subdivision's immunity from suit in federal court under the Eleventh Amendment to the Constitution of the United States nor as consent to be sued in any state court beyond the boundaries of the State of South Carolina.

(f) The provisions of this chapter establishing limitations on and exemptions to the liability of the State, its political subdivisions, and employees, while acting within the scope of official duty, must be liberally construed in favor of limiting the liability of the State.

(g) The General Assembly recognizes the competing interests of either providing physicians and dentists qualified immunity under the provisions of the South Carolina Tort Claims Act or continuing unqualified liability for medical malpractice actions brought against governmentally employed physicians or dentists. While patients deserve accountable and competent health care, regardless of the public or private character of the provider, governmental entities, in order to attract qualified physicians and dentists, must be able to offer an affordable compensation and employment package, including liability insurance. The General Assembly, in amending this chapter, intends to provide an orderly transition from noninclusion to inclusion of physicians and dentists under the provisions of this chapter. Additionally, the liability limits, and hence mandated insurance coverage, of governmental entities for acts of physicians or dentists, acting within the scope of their profession, are set somewhat higher than those provided for other types of governmental liability. These higher limits and mandated coverages are recognition by the General Assembly of significantly higher damages in cases of medical malpractice. To this end, inclusion of physicians and dentists within this chapter has been delayed until January 1, 1989, when an affordable program of group liability insurance will be instituted.

SECTION 15-78-70. Liability for act of government employee; requirement that agency or political subdivision be named party defendant; effect of judgment or settlement.

HISTORY: 1962 Code Section 1-360.27; 1972 (57) 2651; 1973 (58) 698; 1979 Act No. 24 Sections 4-7; 1996 Act No. 426, Section 4.

SECTION 1-13-80. Unlawful employment practices; exceptions.

(A) It is an unlawful employment practice for an employer:

- (1) to fail or refuse to hire, bar, discharge from employment or otherwise discriminate against an individual with respect to the individual's compensation or terms, conditions, or privileges of employment because of the individual's race, religion, color, sex, age, national origin, or disability;
- (2) to limit, segregate, or classify employees or applicants for employment in a way which would deprive or tend to deprive an individual of employment opportunities, or otherwise adversely affect the individual's status as an employee, because of the individual's race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, or disability;
- (3) to reduce the wage rate of an employee in order to comply with the provisions of this chapter relating to age.

(B) It is an unlawful employment practice for an employment agency to fail or refuse to refer for employment or otherwise to discriminate against an individual because of the individual's race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, or disability, or to classify or refer for employment an individual on the basis of the individual's race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, or disability.

(C) It is an unlawful employment practice for a labor organization:

- (1) to exclude or to expel from its membership or otherwise to discriminate against an individual because of the individual's race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, or disability;
- (2) to limit, segregate, or classify its membership or applicants for membership or to classify or fail or refuse to refer for employment an individual in a way which would deprive or tend to deprive an individual of employment opportunities or would limit employment opportunities or otherwise adversely affect the individual's status as an employee or as an applicant for employment because of the individual's race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, or disability;
- (3) to cause or attempt to cause an employer to discriminate against an individual in violation of this section.

(D) It is an unlawful employment practice for a covered entity:

- (1) to exclude or otherwise deny equal jobs or benefits to a qualified individual because of a known disability of an individual with whom the qualified individual is known to have a relationship or association;
- (2) to fail or make reasonable accommodations to the known physical or mental limitations of an otherwise qualified individual with a disability who is an applicant or employee, unless the covered entity can demonstrate that the accommodation would impose an undue hardship on the operations of the business of the covered entity; or to deny employment opportunities to a job applicant or employee who is an otherwise qualified individual with a disability, if the denial is based on the need of the covered entity to make reasonable accommodation to the physical or mental impairments of the employee or applicant;
- (3) to use qualification standards, employment tests, or other selection criteria that screen out or tend to screen out an individual with a disability or a class of individuals with disabilities unless the standard, test, or other selection criteria, as used by the covered entity, is shown to be job related for the position in question and is consistent with business necessity;
- (4) to fail to select and administer tests concerning employment in the most effective manner to ensure that, when the test is administered to a job applicant or employee who has a disability that impairs sensory, manual, or speaking skills, the test results accurately reflect the skills, aptitude, or whatever other factor of the applicant or employee that the test purports to measure, rather than reflecting the impaired sensory, manual, or speaking skills of the employee or applicant, except where the skills are the factors that the test purports to measure.

(E) It is an unlawful employment practice for an employer, labor organization, or joint labor-management committee controlling apprenticeship or other training or retraining, including on-the-job training programs, to discriminate against an individual because of the individual's race, color, religion, sex, national origin, or disability in admission to or employment in a program established to provide apprenticeship or other training.

(F) It is an unlawful employment practice for an employer to discriminate against an employee or applicant for employment, for an employment agency, or joint labor-management committee controlling apprenticeship or other training or retraining, including on-the-job training programs, to discriminate against an individual or for a labor organization to discriminate against a member or applicant for membership because the individual has opposed a practice made an unlawful employment practice by this chapter or because the individual has made a charge, testified, assisted, or participated in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing under this chapter.

(G) It is an unlawful employment practice for an employer, labor organization, employment agency, or joint labor-management committee controlling apprenticeship or other training or retraining, including on-the-job training programs, to print or publish or cause to be printed or published a notice or advertisement relating to employment by the employer or membership in or a classification or referral for employment by the labor organization or relating to a classification or referral for employment by the employment agency or relating to admission to or employment in a program established to provide apprenticeship or other training by the joint labor-management committee indicating a preference, limitation, specification, or discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, or disability, except that the notice or advertisement may indicate a preference, limitation, specification, or discrimination based on religion, sex, or national origin when religion, sex, or national origin is a bona fide occupational qualification for employment.

(H) It is unlawful for an employer, labor organization, or employment agency to print or publish or cause to be printed or published a notice or advertisement relating to employment by the employer or membership in or a classification or referral for employment by the labor organization or relating to a classification or referral for employment by the employment agency indicating a preference, limitation, specification, or discrimination based on age.

(I) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter:

- (1) It is not an unlawful employment practice for an employer to employ employees, for an employment agency to classify or refer for employment an individual, for a labor organization to classify its membership or to classify or refer for employment an individual, or for an employer, labor organization, or joint labor-management committee controlling apprenticeship or other training or retraining programs to admit or employ an individual in a program on the basis of the individual's religion, sex, or national origin in those certain instances where religion, sex, or national origin is a bona fide occupational qualification reasonably necessary to the normal operation of that particular business or enterprise.
- (2) It is not an unlawful employment practice for a party subject to the provisions of this section to compile or assemble information as may be required pursuant to Section 1-13-70(i) or Federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission or federal contract compliance requirements or pursuant to another law not inconsistent with this chapter.
- (3) It is not an unlawful employment practice for an employer to apply different standards of compensation or different terms, conditions, or privileges of employment pursuant to a bona fide seniority or merit system or a system which measures earnings by quantity or quality of production or to employees who work in different locations if the differences are not the result of an intention to discriminate because of race, religion, color, sex, national origin, or disability; nor is it an unlawful employment practice for an employer to give and to act upon the results of a professionally developed ability test if the test, its administration, or action upon the results is not designed, intended, or used to discriminate because of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, or disability. It is not an unlawful employment practice under this chapter for an employer to differentiate upon the basis of sex in determining the amount of wages or compensation paid or to be paid to employees of the employer if the differentiation is authorized by Section 6(d) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended (29 U.S.C. 206(d)).

RULE 12
DEFENSES AND OBJECTIONS - WHEN AND HOW PRESENTED - BY PLEADING OR MOTION - MOTION FOR JUDGMENT ON PLEADINGS

(a) When Presented. A defendant shall serve his answer within 30 days after the service of the complaint upon him, unless the Court directs otherwise when service of process is made pursuant to Rule 4(e), and provided further that the State of South Carolina shall answer or otherwise respond to an application for post-conviction relief within 60 days after service of the application, if it arises out of a guilty plea, and 90 days if it arises out of a trial. A party served with a pleading stating a cross-claim against him shall serve an answer thereto within 30 days after the service upon him. The plaintiff shall serve his reply to a counterclaim in the answer within 30 days after service of the answer or, if a reply is ordered by the court, within 30 days after service of the order, unless the order otherwise directs. The service of a motion permitted under this rule alters these periods of time as follows, unless a different time is fixed by order of the Court: (1) if the Court denies the motion or postpones its disposition until the trial on the merits, the responsive pleading shall be served within 15 days after notice of the Court's action; (2) if the Court grants a motion for a more definite statement the responsive pleading shall be served within 15 days after the service of the more definite statement, and a responsive pleading, if necessary, shall be served within 15 days after notice of the court's action on a motion to strike.

Note:

This Rule 12(a) is identical to the Federal Rule except that it changes the time to answer from 20 to 30 days, and the time to plead after motion denied from 10 to 15 days. No other changes in State practice are affected by the Rule.

Note to 1986 Amendment:

The amendment to Rule 12(a)(2) sets the time for response after a motion to strike at 15 days, which is the same time set for pleading after a successful motion for a more definite statement.

Note to 1995 Amendment:

Rule 12(a) is amended to provide special time periods for the State to respond to applications for post-conviction relief because the thirty day time period for civil litigation is often extended so that the State may obtain a transcript of the proceeding before responding.

(b) How Presented. Every defense, in law or fact, to a cause of action in any pleading, whether a claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim, shall be asserted in the responsive pleading thereto if one is required, except that the following defenses may at the option of the pleader be made by motion: (1) lack of jurisdiction over the subject matter, (2) lack of jurisdiction over the person, (3) improper venue, (4) insufficiency of process, (5) insufficiency of service of process, (6) failure to state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action, (7) failure to join a party under Rule 19, (8) another action is pending between the same parties for the same claim. A motion making any of these defenses shall be made before pleading if a further pleading is permitted. No defense or objection is waived by being joined with one or more other defenses or objections in a responsive pleading or motion. If a pleading sets forth a cause of action or defense to which an adverse party is not required to serve a responsive pleading, he may assert at the trial any defense in law or fact to that cause of action or defense. If, on a motion asserting the defense numbered (6) to dismiss for failure of the pleading to state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action, matters outside the
