Case: 2016 - CP - 00 - 0152

Attn: Mrs. Kitchings

I wish to inquire as to if I be granted an additional 2 weeks extension for completion of my Initial Appellate Brief I are preparing for the above noted Case.

I am most grateful for the extra time you have granted me to-date.

The two weeks I am requesting would carry me through through the eighth of April. At present I have prepared the brief and am working my way through recitations! (who invented these things??) They have proven to be a significant stumbling block as I am traveling to the local library to find what it seems is not to be found on the Internet. That is to say - find free.

Combined with the translation from Spanish to English - which has not worked out too well as the translator programs I am attempting to use seem not to be designed for the legal profession. I have yet to find a translator that can produce a document close to to having my intended messages. My daughter is helping me with this and what we cannot get translated - she is accessing online resources and seems to be making sense of what I have prepared. She speaks English fluently. She does not however, have any background in legal matters.

As close as I am to finishing a product worthy of submitting to the Court Of Appeals, I wish to request if we might have these two weeks to wrap up a best effort.

I hardly expect we need more than 5 days or so to complete the package - I assure you I will not be needing or asking for more time. The additional week is a safety buffer - just in case.... With all I have invested thus far into this initiative, I truly hope you will consider my request. The longer I am involved with this litigation - I am learning quickly and gaining speed and accuracy.

In the hopes of a positive response, I have enclosed the requisite $25.00 money order to cover the fee for processing the extension. I have also served the appropriate parties as required with copies of this letter and included the affidavits with this request. As you can see - I am learning the ropes!

I wish to thank you again for the courtesy, understanding, and support you have extended to me in this undertaking - Massive Undertaking.

Thank you again. Sincerely,

Alberto Alvarez
