Re: Detrick Williams v. The State of South Carolina
Appellate Case No. 2014-002100

Dear Mr. Shearouse:

The Court has requested an explanation from me as to why Mr. Williams post-conviction relief case of his indecent exposure conviction is not moot since he is no longer in custody. It is my understanding that his conviction is still on his record and that it will stay on his record. The sexual offender registry also shows Mr. Williams listed. For those reasons I did not consider the case moot.

Should you have any questions concerning this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Robert M. Pachak
Appellate Defender
