Re: Kathleen Lollis et al. v. Lisa Dutton et al., 2015-001861

Dear Ladies:

Under Rule 211, SCACR, the parties are required to file fifteen copies of each brief. This rule is written for the convenience of the S.C. Supreme Court, which has five member panels, rather than the S.C. Court of Appeals, where three judge panels are the norm. In order to save costs and to avoid giving you more briefs than you need, I request that I be allowed to serve just nine copies of each brief on behalf of my clients, the Respondents/Appellants.

Please let me know if this is acceptable. Thank you for your consideration of this.

Sincerely,

John R. Ferguson
