S.C. SUPREME COURT

Come now the Appellant submitting this Pro se brief to establish the following:

That counsel should never have filed a no merit brief because the issues presented at P.C.R hearing was properly preserved for appeal. The issues that appeared in the order denying the appellant relief was properly preserved for appeal in that the order was in compliance with 17-27-80 and 17-27-90. Therefore Counsel's request to be relieved should be denied and Counsel should be ordered to file a merit brief.
