RE: Appellate Case NO: 2016-000434 (Ineffective assistance counsel)

I am writing you about a plea that I feel I was wrongfully advised to enter by my Attorney Ms. Katarzyna K. Timmons, @ Sumpter County Public defender office. Ms. Timmons advised me to plea guilty to Shoplifting $3,500 0-5, I was sentenced to 5 yrs.

I was later giving my discovery that states by the detective the merchandise was $915, not the $3,500 she advised me to plea to. My attorney could not had read my discovery, or she would have noticed the difference in the money. I further feel that my attorney should have provided me with a copy of my discovery so I could have seen what evidence the state had against me. I would not have plead guilty to that amount.

I would like to move forward with this appeal grounds of Ineffective assistance counsel. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,
Lorenzo Ragin #231577
