RE: State of South Carolina vs. Delamontray Robinson
2015-GS-12-055, 2016-GS-12-201

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I received a letter (enclosed herein) explaining his reasons for requesting an appeal. I do not know if he sent it to the court so I am sending it to the court. I have also sent him a letter asking him to comply with the court rules and send his explanation to the court as well.

Sincerely,

Devon R. Nielson, Esq.
Attorney for the Appellant

Dear, Devon Nielson

I would like to fail for a appeal because I feel as though I was over charged and unlawfully treated by the Chester County Detention Center Officers after informing them several times of my issues concerning several ind. including Officer Murdoch but nothing was done about the situation that was at hand I also wrote inmate complaints but never received anything back

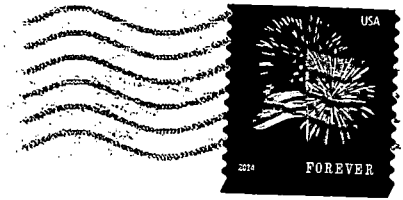

RECEIVED

Also I was never allowed to make a written statement on my behalf saying what happened that ~~that~~ day at Chester County Detention Center, nor did I ever receive a discovery of what the victim was claiming happened and what led up to the assault, battery on a officer 1st degree and who were the people that witnessed the incident at that time, because officer Murdoch fail to report that me and his commanding officer was having an unprofessional relationship.

All of these concerns were stated to MR Nielson but I believe Mr. Robinson was told to not focus on the situation at the time being because no one wants to hear anything about officers doing anything to inmates, and after I had informed my grandmother of the incidents at hand including the current one with officer Murdoch and I informed my father of the relationship between me and the commanding officer ~~Di~~ Diamonique White (L.T) who was well aware of the issues between me and officer Murdoch but chose to avoid them and I never received a formal administrative review as I requested which was recorded on video October 16/2015 from 2:00 until 7:00 the next morning where there were several other ~~and~~ officers involved and not only was I accused of assaulting one officer but two.
