Brad Lightner, Individually and on behalf of all others
similarly situated, Appellant,

v.

Carolina Department of Revenue, Beaufort County, and John Doe, Defendants,

Of whom State of South Carolina and South Carolina
Department of Revenue are the Respondents.

Appellate Case No. 2015-001969

ORDER

On December 22, 2015, this court dismissed this appeal, holding that the underlying order is not immediately appealable. On January 7, 2016, this court sent the remittitur to the lower court pursuant to Rule 221 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules. Also on January 7, 2016, Appellant filed a motion to withdraw the appeal and vacate the order of dismissal, which we construe as a petition to rehear the dismissal of the appeal. Because we received Appellant's petition for rehearing on the same day we remitted the appeal, Appellant's request to recall the remittitur is granted and we proceed with a review of Appellant's petition for rehearing. See Rule 221(b), SCACR ("If a petition for rehearing is received before the remittitur is sent, the remittitur shall not be sent pending disposition by the court.").

After careful consideration of the petition for rehearing, this court is unable to discover that any material fact or principle of law has been either overlooked or disregarded, and hence, there is no basis for granting a rehearing or reinstating this appeal. Accordingly, the petition for rehearing is denied.
