S.C. SUPREME COURT

Re: Mangal v. State, 2016-000610

Dear Ms. Olive:

I have been looking over the certiorari materials I received today and was stunned to discover that you have not served a complete record. Page 326 of the original transcript, which should have been page 228 of the Appellate Record is missing. This page is crucial for the case because it contains expert testimony that the so-called victim of criminal sexual conduct was in fact a virgin. I have not reviewed the entire record you provided so I cannot at this stage say whether there are other problems, but I object most strongly to this alteration of the record and I demand that you file a complete record for the Court's consideration.

By copy of this letter I am requesting that my time to respond to your Petition for Writ of Certiorari not begin running until this issue is resolved.

Sincerely,

John R. Ferguson
