Re: Jeffrey Haselden v. State of South Carolina (Capital Case)
Appellate Case No. 2012-212022

Dear Ms. Thomas:

This letter is to respectfully challenge the accuracy of the transcript we received in the case of Jeffrey Haselden dated March 25, 2008. Ms. Diana Holt is counsel in Mr. Haselden's case, and she has relayed the following errors to me:

- ❖ Page 23, lines 1--3
Beckham and a [instead of 'I' it should be] judge or one came to be assigned to Mr. Beckham's case through court administration the Chief Justice appointed [instead of 'me' it should be] one
- ❖ Page 25
line 10 - should say Bloom, not Boom (but it probably should read "Waters," because he speaks after) also, line 11 - That should read Mr. Waters- Because that is Mr. Waters speaking line 15 - Should read Mr. Bloom, because that is him speaking.
- ❖ Page 26

Could you please check your records regarding the above, and let us know what you find out?

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Kimberly McCall
Legal Assistant
