State of South Carolina,

Respondent,

vs.

Dwayne Lee Rudd,

Appellant,

APPELLANT'S MOTION TO RELIEVE COUNSEL

---

I hereby request this court relieve Tommy A. Thomas as counsel, and concluding representation from the above Appellant case number . Appellant has received the courts opinion dated February 24, 2013 with an affirmation . Appellant request that counsel file a petition for rehearing, but counsel refused and appellant attempted to file a pro se petition; However, this court denied petition because appellant was represented by an attorney. Appellant's attorney has sent by mail a Post-Conviction Relief application to be filed with the court. This matter has closed.

Respectfully submitted,

Sincerely,

March 29, 2013

Dwayne Lee Rudd

Dear Ms. Kichtings,

Please find enclosed a copy of Certificate of service and a Motion to Relieve. Thank you for your assistance in this matter. Appellant would like to note that he has request the evidence, and materials that Mr. Thomas has in his possession, so Appellant can properly prepare for his Post-Conviction Relief application. The applicant is required to prove his case with a preponderance of evidence. Mr. Thomas has refused to hand over the requested materials.

Sincerely,

Dwayne Lee Rudd
Appellant
