Re: Jack Powell v. MUSC
Appellate Case No. 2015-001331

Dear Mr. Powell:

The Court received your correspondence via email on April 15, 2016. You are advised that the email does not reflect service on the other parties to the appeal.

Upon review of the scanned documents that you reference in your email, my staff is unable to find the errors that you are describing. As noted in our February 3, 2016 letter, all correspondence with the Court must be served on all parties and be accompanied by a proof of service. We are providing a copy of your email to Mr. Jones, counsel for respondent.

Very truly yours,

This is Pro se Jack Powell and I went my case 2015-000049 to retrieve some information to help me finish my Brief for case 2015-001331, that I have to mail tomorrow and when I clicked on my initial brief that was filed on 9-14-15 it comes up there as the same Respondents Reply to Appellants Response that was filed on 7-31-15. I need to see my Brief, could you please look into it? Thanks, Jack
