THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
In The Court of Appeals

APPEAL FROM SOUTH CAROLINA
WORKERS' COMPENSATION COMMISSION

RECEIVED

APR 18 2016

W.C.C. File No.: 1205080

SC Court of Appeals

Jesus Martinez, Employee,Appellant,

v.

Landmark Builders of SC, LLC, Employer, and Amerisure Insurance Company, Carrier, Respondents,

v.

CCS Masonry, LLC, Employer, and State National Insurance Company, Inc., Carrier, Respondents,

v.

SC Uninsured Employers' Fund,Respondent.

MOTION TO DISMISS APPEAL

Pursuant to Rules 240 and 260, SCACR, Respondents Landmark Builders of SC, LLC and Amerisure Insurance Company hereby move to dismiss this appeal on two grounds.

First, the order appealed from is not a "final judgment, appealable order or decision," as is required under Rule 201(a), SCACR. The Decision and Order attached to the Notice of Appeal is the decision of a single Hearing Commissioner of the South Carolina Workers' Compensation Commission. Commissioner Susan S. Barden heard the parties on September 29, 2015 and filed her Decision and Order on March 4, 2016. Claimant Jesus Martinez did not appeal that Decision and Order to the Full Commission within 14 days of notice of the award. Instead, an appeal of the Decision and Order was filed with this Court.

A party cannot appeal the decision of a single Hearing Commissioner to this Court without first having that decision reviewed by the Full Commission. Janhrette v. Union Camp Paper Corp., 293 S.C. 59, 59-60, 358 S.E.2d 704, 705 (1987); see also Riddle v. Fairforest Finishing Co., 198 S.C. 419, 18 S.E.2d 341 (1942) (holding that a claimant cannot bypass Full Commission review and appeal the decision of a single commissioner directly to the courts). S.C. Code Ann. § 42-17-40 provides for initial hearing and decision by “[t]he commission or any of its members ...” S.C. Code Ann. § 42-17-50 allows a party to file an application for review by the “commission within fourteen days” of notice of the award. S.C. Code Ann. § 42-17-60 is the only provision that provides for appeals to this Court, and those appeals are from a “decision of the commission.” As the Supreme Court noted in Riddle, the term “commission” means “the South Carolina Industrial Commission [sic], and, of course, that means the [individuals] who are appointed commissioners to administer the Act, and, of course, must mean all of them and not just one of them.” 198 S.C. at 423, 18 S.E.2d at 343. Therefore, although the Decision and Order is binding on the parties as to the factual matters decided therein, it is not properly before this Court because it was not timely appealed to the Full Commission. As a result, this Court should dismiss this appeal with prejudice because the appealed Decision and Order is not an appealable decision of the Commission.

Second, this Court should dismiss the appeal because it was not filed by Claimant Jesus Martinez or any attorney representing him. Instead, it was filed by Jesse B. Martinez, who is Claimant’s son. (Att. A, Partial Transc. Of Single Commn’r hearing).

The Notice of Appeal indicates that Jesse B. Martinez filed the appeal as “Representative for Appellant.” To the best of the undersigned’s knowledge, Jesse B. Martinez is not a licensed attorney in the State of South Carolina.¹ While Claimant can file an appeal and other pleadings on his own behalf, pro se, his son cannot file pleadings in the appellate courts of South Carolina on Claimant’s behalf.

“South Carolina limits the practice of law to licensed attorneys.” Medlock v. University Health Serv., Inc., 404 S.C. 25, 27, 743 S.E.2d 830, 831 (2013); S.C. Code Ann. § 40-5-310 (“No person may either practice law or solicit the legal cause of another person or entity in this State unless he is enrolled as a member of the South Carolina Bar ... or otherwise authorized to perform prescribed legal activities by action of the Supreme Court of South Carolina”).² “The generally understood definition of the practice of law embraces the preparation of pleadings and other papers incident to actions ...” Medlock, 404 S.C. at 27, 743 S.E.2d at 831. This includes the filing of a Notice of Appeal and other representation in appellate courts. See Brown v. Coe, 365 S.C. 137, 139, 616 S.E.2d 705, 706 (2005); Renaissance Enter., Inc. v. Summit Tel. Serv., Inc., 334 S.C. 649, 650, 515 S.E.2d 257, 258 (1999).

Although a prior version of S.C. Code Ann. § 40-5-80 allowed a non-lawyer to represent an individual before any tribunal in the State under certain circumstances and conditions, see In re Unauthorized Practice of Law Rules proposed by the South Carolina Bar, 309 S.C. 304, 305, 422 S.E.2d 123, 124 (1992), that statutory provision was deleted

¹ Claimant’s prior counsel moved before the Commission to be relieved as counsel which motion was granted by the Commission. (Att. B, Third Motion to be Relieved as Attorney for Mr. Jesus Martinez; Third Order Relieving Attorney for Mr. Jesus Martinez).

² There is no indication that Jesse B. Martinez has been authorized to perform any legal activities by the Supreme Court. A person who violates Section 40-5-310 may face felony charges and may be subject to fines and imprisonment if found guilty.

and replaced in 2002 Act No. 307, Section Two. Section 40-5-80 currently only provides for a person to represent him or herself pro se. S.C. Code Ann. § 40-5-80 (2015). Because Jesse B. Martinez has no legal authority to file a Notice of Appeal on his father's behalf or as his father's legal representative, this Court should dismiss this appeal with prejudice.

CONCLUSION

For all the reasons stated herein, this Court should dismiss this appeal with prejudice.

 COMMISSION

THIRD MOTION TO BE RELIEVED AS ATTORNEY FOR
 Mr. Jesus Martinez

SCWCC File No.: 1205080

H. Jeff McLeod moves to be relieved as Mr. Jesus Martinez' attorney for good cause, considering the extensive efforts expended and the poor results obtained.

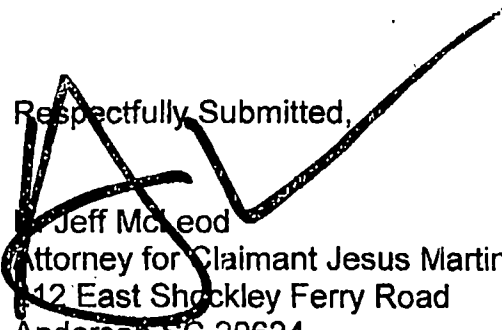

Regulation 67-1203(B) provides that "an attorney may withdraw as counsel on the showing of good cause." Further, the Rules for Professional Conduct, Rule 1.16(b)(7), indicates that an attorney may withdraw from representation for a multitude of reasons, including the financial burden, as well as "other good cause".

This motion is based on the fact that after lengthy negotiations (particularly, with the Claimant), extensive discovery covering literally thousands of pages, the treating surgeon's opinion of causation and a full hearing, this attorney was unable to obtain recognition that the claim was compensability. This attorney has expended his best efforts and some $2,300 in costs, which have been unavailing; this attorney is exhausted. It is time for a change and the Claimant may have more success with another attorney.

WHEREFORE, the movant requests an order:

- A. Relieving H. Jeff McLeod as Mr Jesus Martinez' attorney of record;
- B. And for such other and further relief as the Commission deems just.

Respectfully Submitted,

Jeff McLeod
