CASE NO.:2015-001714

Plaintiff-Respondent,

DEFENDANT- APPELLANT PETITION FOR REHEARING

Vs.

RECEIVED

KOEBY K. WILLIAMSON,

APR 18 2016

Defendants- Appellant

SC Court of Appeals

The Defendant- Appellant Koeby Williamson is petitioning THE SOUTH CAROLINA COURT OF APPEALS for a rehearing of Appellant case No. 2015-001714. The defendants appeal was dismissed due to Rule 207 of the South Carolina Appellant Court Rules. He was required to contact the Office of Court Administration within 10 days and failed to do so. When counting the days the Defendant- Appellant believed he had 10 business days to reply. He did not count the weekends as part of the 10 day period to respond. As a result the Defendant- Appellant received money to order transcripts late believing he was still within the time frame, the Defendant- Appellant response to the court was also late. The Defendant- Appellant wants to inform the court that he is disabled and receives a voluntary contribution of $150.00 a month as an income. The Defendant- Appellant is appealing a decision he believes he can have over turned, because of his financial situation he has been unable to afford a lawyer to help him with his case and he has been forced to defend himself. Defendant- Appellants appeal if dismissed would be subject to pay for charges hundreds of dollars more than what he was originally charged and he would also be evicted from his home for charges he has evidence that did not occur. The Defendant- Appellant respectfully asks that the Supreme Court takes this into consideration while deciding on the defendant petition for a rehearing.
