Subject: L. Virgil Porter v. Elaine Chavez

Case # 2015CP3203115

Dear Judge Fee,

I received the enclosed letter from V. Elaine Allen, Deputy Clerk on February 21, 2016. I am writing this letter personally to you for I have been dealing with said case since last August. (Court of Appeals since Dec 2013) without receiving anything related from the Court of Appeals!

I am not trying to be difficult, however, I certainly believe that your clerk is somewhat incompetent because that is the third letter that I have received from the Deputy clerk. Each time I receive a letter from your clerk the criteria changes. I have responded to each of the Club's letters which always have a request for additional information or another Certificate which I must make.

The last one said that I, the applicant, failed to file notice of appeal in compliance with Rule # 203 and accordingly the matter has been dismissed.

I vehemently disagree with the letter including the above information signed by a Deputy Clerk! Therefore, I would like to set up an appointment with you to go over everything that I have done to comply with all the requests from your Club. I truly believe if you will review all my information you will find a truly injustice and will see the same case.

Sincerely,

L. Vincent Fort

P.S. I have sincerely responded to each of the Club's request and in the last one I researched the response was - No Matches found for requested Certificate!
