Appellant has no objection to Respondent's request for an extension. Appellant would show that the appeal relates in large part to multiple, prior appeals. The case spans many years. Respondent certainly has the documents, as they were detailed in prior appeals and specifically referenced. Appellant was under the impression that his Initial Brief as submitted would make it easier for Respondent to prepare his Brief. Appellant will nonetheless promptly ensure compliance with the rules in any event. He will do so within seven (7) days.
